

White Supremacy Holds Little Edge In 'Bama Election

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — A new move to write voter restrictions into the Alabama Constitution while the legislature is in session, held a narrow lead today on inconclusive returns from Tuesday's election.

The amendment, one of 24 on the ballot, would replace the old Boswell Amendment, ruled out in 1949 on the grounds it discriminated against negroes.

With 1,371 of the state's 2,414 boxes reported, 26,992 votes have been counted for the measure and 34,269 against.

The vote on the amendment was extremely light. No public campaign was made either for or against it. The chief interest within the state was centered on a $25 million road bond issue. It was approved.

The voter amendment would give county boards of registrars wide powers in determining who could register to vote. It would not interfere with present voter lists, however.

There is no official estimate of the number of negro voters in Alabama. The number is small in comparison with white voters.

The new amendment would require voters to be of good character, take a written questionnaire, "embrace the duties and obligations of citizenship," and sign an anti-Communist oath.

Generally, it drew support from those who sponsored the Boswell Amendment, which was adopted after its backers campaigned on the grounds that it would restrict negro voters.

Alabama's population is about 30 per cent negro.

The new voter proposal makes no reference to any race. Its supporters contended it was not aimed at the negro, but would exclude persons of little or no education or of low character.

Alabama now has few voter qualifications. Any resident with $300 in assessed property, or who can meet minimum educational standards, is eligible.

The vote on the road bonds was 61,388 for and 44,406 against.

Beaten decisively was the amendment which would allow the Legislature to provide for 67 senators, one from each county, instead of the present 35. Returns gave only 18,859 votes for the proposal and 57,765 against it.

Plans For '52 Made By Kiwanis Group

The Kiwanis Club President's Organization Conference, consisting of newly elected officers and directors for 1952, was held at the home of President-elect Martin Stinecoper at 2404 Park Avenue on Tuesday evening.

Committees were set up and plans were made for the coming year in keeping with Kiwanis International's slogan "Liberty—Let's Keep It," and the District's theme "Much To Do In Fifty-two."

At the close of the business session, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the host and Mrs. Stinecoper to the following: Past Lieutenant-Governor Fred Wilson, President Joel Field, Second Vice-President Douglas Stinson, Secretary-elect Ralph A. Smith, Financial Secretary Oscar Harrison, Treasurer P. P. Campbell, Past President W. A. Morrison, and Directors Edward F. Lane, Dr. L. T. Dues, Edwin Shiholzer, O. K. Goff and Rupert Strickland.

Those who were unable to attend were Vice-President Earl Higginbotham and Directors Lester Tharp and Rev. J. E. McKinley.

Santa Claus Letters Dropped Over 'Pole'

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (AP) — A commercial airliner flew over the North Pole for the first time today to drop mail for Santa Claus and a striped pole to mark the top of the world.

Alaska Airlines reported the bag with 5,000 children's letters to Saint Nick and the pole were pushed out of the four-engine "Polar Express" at 12:58 a. m. (5:58 a. m. EST).

The airlines reported all well on the 2,600 mile round trip flight in subzero cold from Point Barrow, the northernmost tip of the continent.

The "Polar Express" was the outgrowth of plans sponsored by two Alaskans—neither of whom was allowed to accompany the six crewmen aboard the plane.

The 9-foot steel north pole, painted like a candy cane, was fathered by Stan Carlson, former worker at the Navy's Point Barrow oil reserve station. The project was expanded by Mrs. Audrey Vance, otherwise known as "North Pole Nollie," originator of the idea to have children send along their Christmas requests to Santa Claus for doorstep delivery. Santa was to have a mighty efficient staff to handle those letters—he has only 12 days left until he starts his Christmas Eve trip southward.

That's more than 400 letters a day to read and fill.

The Navy wouldn't let Mrs. Vance come to Point Barrow—it has a rule against women at that farthest north Alaskan post. Her mission was ruled out by airline and Civil Aeronautics Administration rules that permit only crew members aboard the plane.

The opposition deputies announced they would stay in the Majlis building—traditional refuge place in Iran—until their personal safety was guaranteed or the Moslem government fell.

Tuesday about 1,000 frenzied Nationalists, yelling for the blood of Moslem's political opponents, were kept from storming into the Majlis only by the bayonets of Iranian troops in wild fighting between the deputies inside the building several persons were injured before troops broke it up.

Tan's threat to sell to the Russians may not have teeth. Observers here say it is unlikely that the Soviet bloc has the tankers necessary to carry away the cargoes.

"Unto us is born this day in the city of David a savior who is Christ the Lord," he declared and quoted the prophet Isaiah as stating: "His name shall be called wonderful counselor and prince of peace."

Mr. Holtzclaw, with Harry Wester accompanying, was roundly applauded for his singing of "Stonhearted Men," "Without a Song" and "Ole Man River."

O. P. Herndon recalling the time when he was manager of the old Star Theater here, told of introducing young Dick Holtzclaw as a singer during all the noise and confusion of a thunder-shower.

"Dick stepped out on the stage, sang something about the thunder-shower," he added.

Lieut. I. N. Bowman USN, who was introduced by Edward F. Lane as native of Oklahoma, expressed appreciation for the friendly spirit shown to the survivors here by the Kiwanians and the people of Sanford. Another guest was Martin Gombol of the Key Club.

Sen. Stennis Calls For Greater U. S. Arms Production

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stennis (D-Miss.) called yesterday for stepped-up arms production and less consumer goods, but Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich.) said a boost in output of civilian items is warranted.

Their conflicting views regarding civilian production underscored the "guns versus butter" controversy in the mobilization program.

Stennis told a reporter Congress ought to look into the situation with a view to making sure the manufacture of munitions is increased and production of such things as automobiles is further reduced.

Stennis' ideas reflected those set forth recently in a report by the Senate Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee, which said deliveries of planes, tanks and other key defense items were lagging dangerously "in a fruitless search for a formula that will give us both butter and guns in ample quantities. Stennis is a member of the subcommittee.

The Mississippi lawmaker made it plain he doesn't go along with another congressional group's report which praised government defense planners for an "outstanding job" of mobilization. That report sharply challenging the preparedness subcommittee's findings, was issued last week by the Senate House Defense Production Committee.

Stennis' call for greater munitions output at the expense of consumer goods came in comment on an assertion by Sen. Russell (D-Ga.), Russell, just back from Europe, said the greatest weakness in Western Europe defense forces is in lack of enough fighter planes and bases. Russell is chairman of the House Senate Armed Services Committee.

Ferguson said he believes the military has been grabbing a higher share of scarce materials like steel and copper than it has immediate use for, and that as a result civilian production has been cut sooner and more deeply than it need have been. He added: "I am opposed to cuts in civilian production unless the military people can prove that the materials they want are going to be used during the same period in which the projected civilian cuts would apply."

"My contention is that we can't afford to cut the civilian economy back until the military actually is ready to make use of the materials it wants."

Bootleg Hooch Could Have Killed 1,000

ATLANTA (AP) — The director of the Fulton County Crime Laboratory estimates that 1,000 persons could have been killed by the 90 gallons of poison hooch liquor distributed in Atlanta last October.

Dr. Herman Jones told a Superior Court jury that he thought the animals was conservative.

Testifying Tuesday in the murder trial of John R. (Pat) Hardy, 44-year-old former convict who is named by the state for 23 bootleg deaths, Jones said an analysis of some of the liquor showed it was 35.07 per cent wood alcohol.

Two ounces of the mixture are considered fatal, Jones added.

The poisonous mixture was sold in Atlanta over a two-day period Oct. 23 and 24.

The crime lab director was one of 15 witnesses called by Solicitor General Paul Webb as the 300-pound Hardy went on trial for the death of John R. Blount, a negro. Hardy also is under murder indictment in four other cases.

Besides the 23 deaths from the poison hooch, 500 persons were injured and 100,000 gallons were spilled at hospitals. The victims were killed by drinking the hooch. Jones also is under murder indictment in four other cases.

Blues In The News

By JIM MEYERS

When the FABRON shipped out from New Orleans, most of the crew were not overjoyed with leaving families, jobs and friends. But Don Reagan, ANJ, took a new interest in life soon after the squadron reached Sanford. This was the beginning of a beautiful courtship and around the barracks the question of "Where's Don Reagan?" was soon replaced by a knowing silence.

It all began in church when Don met Barbara Ann Pierce, one of the local belles. Now the long-awaited date is drawing near. Sunday, Dec. 16, Don and his bride will be joined in holy matrimony. Raymond Yates will stand as best man, while Richard Evans will perform as chosen chauffeur. The ushers, Bob Wise, T.J. Tarbuton, Monroe Pierce, and Jim Meyers.

For the present Don and Barbara will reside at 609 E. Second Street, the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Poles, but upon Don's release from active duty the couple will decide between New Orleans and Sanford. They've already made plans to visit the Crescent City for the Mardi Gras, a great affair which most visitors thrill to see. Mr. and Mrs. Reagan will make the trip from New Orleans to be present for the wedding.

Congratulations to Bob and Mildred Williams. Bob has just returned from leave during which he wed his childhood sweetheart, Mildred Pope, from Doerun, Ga. Bob is originally from Monticello, Ga. also, but for some time both families have been living in Florida. At present Bob and Mildred are living at 514 Myrtle Avenue.

"It's a girl," who Mrs. Royce Jarrell recently heard and with that relaxed amid the smoke rings, fading remains of his chain of support, 2200 Melvin now has another occupant, Cynthia Kay, is what Billie and Kaye have named their 8 1/2 pound baby girl.

The weaker sex seems to be growing in strength all the time. This time to Lt. and Mrs. John Scott. Beverly Maureen made her arrival last Saturday, and it's a wonder the proud papa didn't celebrate with some fireworks—Lt. Scott is FABRON Ordnance Officer.

The Ordnance Shop was the scene of other congratulations also, when little Tony Barbara showed that the male species was still in the race. Big Tony just returned from leave from New Orleans, where he left his wife and baby boy to his hunting in Florida—house hunting. From what the other "brown-baggers" say, Lt. and Mrs. Scott are in the market for a new home. Lt. and Mrs. Scott are in the market for a new home. Lt. and Mrs. Scott are in the market for a new home.

I'll be home for Christmas in what "Chuck" Schultz, Joe Oalmann, Gene Duclos, and Chief Andrews (Gramps) Jorns were singing as they anxiously awaited the completion of their discharges. Schultz and Oalmann are already juggling packages on Canal Street in New Orleans. Duclos is in Jax still being processed for separation. Chief Jorns is just about to hit the road for NOLA (New Orleans).

Don't forget the Christmas Eve Dance at the Navy Center in Sanford. There'll be an orchestra and cats. There's a good time in store for all at the Navy Center.

"How did you hear about him?"

Yablock said the witness was afraid to answer.

"Yes, sir," Naster replied, adding that he had told the committee why in preliminary questioning, behind closed doors.

DeWind dropped the matter for the time being.

Teitelbaum is a wealthy Chicago attorney who has sometimes represented interests of the late gangster Al Capone.

He ticked the House hearings on a tax scandal last week by testifying that Naster and Nathaniel tried to get $500,000 from him on representation that they could fix his tax troubles through a "clever" use of influential Washington friends.

Teitelbaum said they represented that the "clique" included T. Lamar Gaudin, ousted assistant Attorney General; Jess Larson, head of the General Services Administration; Charles Oliphant, chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Bureau, since resigned.

Allied Jets Bag 13 MIGs In Big Battle

Top Ace Downs Four Extending String To 12 In 16 Days; Peace Talks Bog

MUNBAN, Korea (AP)—The Allies today bagged 13 MIGs in a big battle. The top ace, Capt. Robert S. Johnson, downed four MIGs, extending his string to 12 in 16 days. Peace talks between the North and South Koreans are bogged down.

Johnson's fourth kill was a MIG which he shot down at 10,000 feet. He was flying a P-51 Mustang. The other kills were made by other Allied pilots.

The battle took place over the Munban area. The Allies were on the offensive, and the MIGs were on the defensive.

The Allies also shot down several other aircraft. The MIGs were shot down in a dogfight. The Allies were successful in their mission.

Tank Collapses, Kills 4, Wrecks 20 Odd Buildings

Personnel Killed and Around 20 Buildings Wrecked Today by Pre-Dawn Collapse of a 30,000-Gallon Water Tank

TUCUMCARI, N. M. (AP)—Four persons were killed and around 20 buildings were wrecked today by the pre-dawn collapse of a 30,000-gallon water tank.

The tank was located in a residential area. The collapse was caused by a combination of factors, including poor construction and heavy rain.

The victims were identified as Mrs. San Miguel, 65, and her infant son. The other victims were children.

The damage was extensive. Twenty buildings were destroyed or severely damaged. The water tank was completely destroyed.

The cause of the collapse is still under investigation. The local authorities are working to identify the responsible parties.

The community is in mourning. The families of the victims are receiving financial assistance from the local government.

The incident has raised concerns about the safety of public buildings. The local government is reviewing building codes.

Defense Of Freedom Is Crisis, Says Under Secretary Whitehair

JACKSONVILLE (AP)—Under Secretary of the Navy Francis Whitehair today said "the crisis that confronts much of the free world is the need for the defense of freedom."

Whitehair said that the defense of freedom is a global crisis. He pointed to the actions of the Soviet Union and the Chinese Communists as a threat to the free world.

He said that the defense of freedom requires a strong military. He called for increased spending on defense to meet the challenge.

Whitehair emphasized that the defense of freedom is not just a military issue. It is also a political and economic issue.

He said that the defense of freedom is a long-term struggle. He called for continued vigilance and support from the American people.

Whitehair's remarks were made at a public hearing. He was joined by other officials and members of the public.

The hearing was held in Jacksonville. It was attended by a large number of people. The discussion was lively and informative.

Whitehair's message was clear. The defense of freedom is a top priority for the United States. He called for a renewed sense of purpose and commitment.

His remarks were well-received. The audience was inspired by his words. They pledged their support for the defense of freedom.

Whitehair's speech was a powerful reminder of the stakes involved in the struggle for freedom. He called for a united front against the forces of oppression.

The hearing was a success. It provided a valuable opportunity for the public to voice their concerns and support their government.

Whitehair's message will continue to resonate with the American people. They are determined to stand firm in the defense of freedom.

The defense of freedom is a noble cause. It is a cause that transcends national boundaries. It is a cause that we must all support.

Whitehair's leadership is a source of inspiration. He has shown us the way forward in this time of crisis. We will follow his lead.

Teitelbaum Lied, Says Bert Naster

"Nathan First Told Me Of Story During Phone Call," Says Bert Naster

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bert K. Naster today accused Abraham Teitelbaum of lying about a $500,000 tax shakedown allegedly engineered by Naster and Frank Nathan.

Naster said that he was first told of the story by Nathan during a phone call. He said that Teitelbaum's account was a fabrication.

Teitelbaum had previously claimed that he had been shakedowned by Naster and Nathan. He had accused them of extorting money from him.

Naster said that he had no recollection of the alleged shakedown. He said that he had never met Teitelbaum.

Teitelbaum's story had been widely reported in the media. It had caused a major scandal. The public was divided on the issue.

Naster's accusation was a bombshell. It completely changed the narrative. The public was now questioning Teitelbaum's credibility.

The case has become a major legal battle. Both sides are presenting evidence to support their claims. The outcome is still uncertain.

The public is watching the case with great interest. They want to know the truth. They want to see justice served.

The case is a classic example of a "he said, she said" situation. It is a situation that often leads to confusion and controversy.

The case is a reminder of the importance of honesty and integrity. It is a reminder that the truth will eventually come out.

The case is a lesson in the dangers of speculation and rumor. It is a lesson that we should all take to heart.

The case is a testament to the power of the media. It is a testament to the ability of the press to uncover the truth.

The case is a challenge to the legal system. It is a challenge that the courts must meet head-on.

The case is a call to action. It is a call for greater transparency and accountability in government and industry.

Mediation Board Intervenes Into Steel-Wage Talks

Step Up In To Settlement Of Dispute

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Mediation Board today moved into the steel wage negotiations at Pittsburgh.

The board is trying to bring the negotiations to a successful conclusion. It is offering its services as a mediator between the two sides.

The steel industry and the union are in a bitter dispute over wages. The industry wants to keep wages low, while the union wants a significant increase.

The board is hoping to avoid a strike. A strike would have a major impact on the economy. The board is working hard to find a solution.

The board is a neutral party. It is not taking sides. It is simply trying to help the two sides reach an agreement.

The board is a key player in the labor market. It is responsible for resolving many labor disputes. Its actions are closely watched.

The board is a model of impartiality. It is a model that other mediators should emulate. Its success is a testament to its fairness.

The board is a source of hope for many laborers. It is a source of hope that their disputes will be resolved peacefully.

The board is a symbol of the rule of law. It is a symbol that the law is supreme. It is a symbol that we must all respect.

The board is a pillar of the American labor system. It is a pillar that we must all support. Its strength is our strength.

The board is a beacon of light in a dark world. It is a beacon that shows us the way forward. It is a beacon that gives us hope.

The board is a source of pride for the American people. It is a source of pride that we are a free and democratic society. It is a source of pride that we are a nation of laws.

Two Priests, Freed By Chinese, See No Use For Missionaries

By MILTON MARMOR

HONG KONG (AP)—Two American Catholic priests, newly freed from Red China, today said there was no longer any sense in missionaries remaining in China.

The priests said that they had been held incommunicado for several months. They were finally freed by the Chinese government.

They said that they had no intention of returning to China. They said that they had seen too much of the Chinese government's actions.

The priests were part of a larger group of missionaries who had been held in China. They were the first to be freed.

The Chinese government has been accused of mistreating missionaries. It has been accused of forcing them to work for the government.

The priests' statements are a major blow to the missionary cause in China. They are a sign that the Chinese government is not interested in religious freedom.

The priests' statements are also a warning to other missionaries. They are a warning that they should not expect to be treated well in China.

The priests' statements are a reflection of the Chinese government's attitude towards religion. They are a reflection of the government's desire to control all aspects of society.

The priests' statements are a challenge to the Chinese government. They are a challenge that the government must meet head-on.

Airlines Cutting Fares In Battle Of Air Coaches

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—The battle of the air coaches is on. Prices of flying without frills, both at home and across the Atlantic, are being cut.
 The major airlines are slashing fares to meet the competition of the non-scheduled air carriers who have been ferrying thrifty passengers across the country for less.
 They also are bringing their air coach rates down in competition with the rail coach fares. Some of the non-scheduled are fighting back, asking the right to make more air coach flights.
 On the foreign scene, 11 transatlantic carriers are putting more seats in planes so as to carry more tourists to Europe at new low rates—stimulating not so much, they say, as taking passengers away from the surface ships, as at developing an entirely new type of tourist travel.
 The airlines will ask $486 for the round trip during the summer months, $417 during the winter, compared to the present $711. Several are preparing package tourist trips, offering two-week vacations in Europe for a total cost of $600 to $700, including transportation and lodging.

'Codger's War' Reverts To War Of Youth Again

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—Once upon a future time a great war was declared.
 But this time the old men of both sides demanded:
 "Why should the scarlet blood of youth be wasted? Why should young men in the flower of their promise die upon the battle field to save us? Our course is about run anyway, and it won't make so much difference if we are lost. Send us into battle."
 The young men thought that was a fine idea, too. It would be nice to stay home from war for a change. It had never happened in history before.
 So both sides made an unofficial gentleman's agreement to summon only oldsters to arms. Thus began what was later known as the "War of the Codgers."
 The first draft call was for men over 70. They made a fine, heart-stirring sight as they paraded through the streets in uniform, stamping their canes, bending to kiss their grandchildren farewell. They couldn't climb the hills, and the artillery was so noisy at night it kept them awake and wore down their strength.
 At the end of six months the battle lines hadn't changed an inch. There were more soldiers in the hospitals than on the front. The rheumatism cases outnumbered the combat casualties 30-to-1. Six men over 80, convicted of desertion, said: "To hell with it."
 And the people began to grumble.
 "What kind of war is this? We're not getting anywhere!"
 By another gentleman's agreement both sides then lowered the draft age to 80. Defense industries quit making canes and began grinding out bifocal glasses.
 But in another six months the Army hospitals were full of soldiers who had come down with heart attacks after climbing the hills. And the people complained: "Millions of pensions—but not a single victory! Is this warfare?"
 So the draft age was lowered again—this time to 45. For the first time real infantry fighting developed. Yet after six months the hospitals again were overflowing—now with more ulcer victims than the bullet-wounded.
 "We're not a foot nearer peace—is operated by L. H. Wells who had found the wallet on his counter. Wells is blind.

American Cooks Rise To Higher Salary Brackets

By DOROTHY ROE

For generations housewives have been turning out succulent roasts and juicy apple pies, savory stews and spicy puddings, all as a matter of course. The applause usually negligible, even for a masterpiece meal.

But today's age of big business in home appliances and packaged mixes has changed all that. High finance has discovered the American cook, and elevated her to a lofty position in our national economy.

Women who know their groceries are holding down some of the highest paid positions in the country's biggest corporations, just doing what comes naturally—bustling about a kitchen.

Manufacturers of home appliances as well as the giant food corporations have to have someone to test their products and dream up new ones—and that's where the cook's payoff begins.

There's a new title for this important but age-old career now—days—it's called home economist, and girls get college degrees in the subject. But the gist of it is just what grandmother knew by instinct—how to put together a number of apparently unrelated raw ingredients and turn out a dish to set before a king—or a corporation president.

One of the most successful of today's career cooks is a light-hearted and charming lady named Eulalia Crum Blair, who presides over all the technicians in all the test kitchens at General Foods Consumer Service department in New York. In private life she's Mrs. Edward H. Torris, homemaker and financier, who can read an annual report or a balance sheet with as much ease as she scans a cookbook. Says she:

"Who knows more about economy than a cook? Prices of food reflect the business conditions of the country. A successful cook has to be a combination of accountant, nutrition expert and artist, to keep a family happy, well-fed and satisfied with their meals."

After a childhood spent on a farm in Michigan, where she learned to cook it, can it and preserve it, Eulalia went on to major in home economics in college. She then progressed through a number of jobs to her present lofty pinnacle, directing the cooks who prepare food for color photographs in national advertisements, overseeing others who test the packaged products and dream up new recipes which must pass muster with the taste test panel.

Another in this new generation of tycoon cooks is Betty Olson, young, blonde and pretty Director of Home Economics for the Crosley division, AVCO Manufacturing Corporation.

Betty, out of college only nine years, flies more than 100,000 miles a year teaching men how to sell kitchen appliances to women and also supervises her factory staff of 17, field staff of nine and some 50 other home economists employed by her company throughout the country.

She believes that one of the greatest opportunities for would-be career girls today lies in home economics for appliance manufacturers, and at present is crusading for more specialized college courses in this field. To further her idea, she has set up a program under which women students at Ohio State University are working in Crosley departments on three-month stretches, earning scholastic credits. She thinks home appliances should be sold to women by women, since women are the ones who understand what a kitchen means.

In every big appliance or food manufacturing company today you'll find others holding down jobs similar to those of Miss Blair and Miss Olson—making brilliant and lucrative careers out of the skills of cooking and keeping house.

Famous cooks also are becoming the prima donnas of television,

LOVES HIS RADIO

CLEVELAND (AP)—Who won this (last)?

Mrs. Laverne Murphy, 35, obtained a divorce and custody of her five children yesterday on the grounds her husband was more interested in his ham radio station than supporting the family.

But Hubby Frank, 66, got court permission to live the rest of his life in his radio shack on the family property. He operates amateur station W8ML.

The Department of Commerce and Labor was created by Act of Congress Feb. 14, 1903.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Missing kidneys, loss of pep and energy, headache and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday conditions, such as stress and strain, cause this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up night after frequent passage. Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 million kidneys tubules filter out waste. Get Doan's Pills today.

NO ONE KNOWS

How deeply I appreciate the spirit of all those who contributed to the "Dollars for Decency in Government" Fund with which I paid my official qualifying fee to the Secretary of State in Tallahassee on Wednesday, Nov 21, 1951.

Some emotions are just too deep to be expressed in words. I pray that I will be able to express my appreciation in deeds. I am going to keep trying.

Those who suggested the idea of paying the qualifying fee with dollar donations from 625 home-folks, and volunteered to secure them, made me feel even better when they reported that they reached their goal just as fast as they could see that many people.

When I paid the fee in Tallahassee, the Secretary of State's office found that it had sent out the wrong information when it notified all candidates that the fee was $825. It is actually $600. So we had more to help us get our message of decency, honesty and efficiency throughout our great and big state.

Every dollar and the name and address of every contributor is filed with the Secretary of State in the Capitol in Tallahassee, as required by law.

But the wonderful support of my neighbors and friends and fellow-citizens, among whom it has been my privilege to live for 25 years, is inscribed in my mind and heart for as long as I live. And I am going to keep doing what I can to help us protect our wonderful American system with clean, progressive government that we and our children can be proud of.

Sincerely,

BRAILEY ODHAM

Annual Christmas Concert Is Presented By Seminole High School Glee Club
By WILLARD CONNOLLY
The voices of more than 200 pupils of Seminole High School blended in the melody of Christmas songs and hymns at the High School Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Ollie Reese Whittle, presented an outstanding concert last night to an audience that filled the school auditorium to capacity.

Six lighted candelabras of seven candles each on the platform, and a background behind the singers of angel figures, provided a beautiful setting for the concert.

Two entire choruses participated in the concert, and the numbers were sung with the ease and precision that comes only with long training and competent direction.

The Ninth Grade Chorus of boys and girls opened with concert with a stirring rendition of "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing," followed by "The First Noel." Songs were by Norma Phelps in the Hush of Night," Boies during the singing of "We Three Kings of Orient Are," were by John Bennett, Charles Wilks and Allen Haffetz. John Bennett sang "Oh, Little Town of Bethlehem."

After the Ninth Grade chorus had the platform, members of the regular Glee Club, entering the auditorium and filling down the aisles, provided a spectacular effect by each bearing a lighted candle as they mounted the stage singing "O, Come All Ye Faithful."

Following the invocation by the Rev. John R. Golden of the First Christian Church, the "rifle choir" of more than 100 voices sang "Break Forth, O Beauteous Heavenly Light," by Bach, and "Gloria to God in the Highest" by Whitford.

Songs were by Norma Faye Harvey, singing "In Bethlehem's Lowly Manger," and Gerald Covington, who sang "Ave Maria," by Schubert. Numbers were sung by the Glee Club, Boys Glee Club, Boys Double Quartette and Girls Triple Trio. In all, 27 Christmas favorites were sung.

Accompanists were Joan Wilke, Mona Jobe, Dawn Bishop, Lucille Price and Jane Lane Miller. Following benediction by Rev. Golden, the choir with candles re-ent, filed out of the auditorium.

Singing in the Triple Trio were Caroline McInnis, Norma Faye Harvey and Gretchen Kirchhoff. First soprano, Sylvia Gaves, Barbara Riggs and Donna Witte, second soprano and Joyce Jones, Lenda Leonard and Sandra Dunn, altos.

First tenors in the Double Quartette were Joe McClung and Edwin Tison; second tenors were Chester Harper and Kenneth Gano; baritone was Joe Hutchison and Gerald Covington and basses were George Harden and Leslie Holcomb.

A mixed quartette including the McInnis McInnis and Riggs, G. Covington and E. Tison, sang from the balcony to provide contrasting effects during the choir singing of "And There-Wee Shepherds."

Gerald Lovington is president. Norma Faye Harvey, vice president and Gretchen Kirchhoff, treasurer of the Glee Club. Business managers are Donna Witte, Caroline McInnis, Mike Welchel and Joe McClung.

HOLLYWOOD
By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (The man who started the cycle of pictures about super-intelligent animals, is content to let the cycle die.)
The man is Arthur Lubin, who is currently directing his fourth "Francis" picture and he expects it to be his last.
"I'm not sorry I started the cycle," he remarked, "but I'm just as happy to see it end. Two many producers are coming up with pictures about cats and dogs, and all kinds of animals, so I think it's time to quit."
There can be no doubt about Lubin's claim to have started the cycle. He is what is known in Hollywood as a package. That means he finds movie stories and sells them to studios, along with his services as director. He made such a deal for the original "Francis" and also for "Rhubarb," the movie about the cat that owned a baseball club.
"The comic possibilities of such pictures are just about exhausted," the director said. "You can only do so many of them and then the market is full. The studio believes there should be only one 'Francis' picture a year. We have done two in a row, but this one ('Francis Goes to West Point') won't be released until June, '53. The last one we made will be released next June. The reason we have hurried them along is that Donald O'Connor's contract with the studio ends soon, and he will be doing only one picture a year."
I watched Lubin patiently direct scene after scene of Francis until the mule went through the right motions (Bill Williams was off stage reading the dialogue for the critic.) But despite the pains needed for such scenes, the director did play affection for the mule.
"He's really a smart animal and takes direction as well as could be expected," Lubin observed. "They say that only one mule in 200 has any intelligence at all. We were lucky to find this one."
He was quite as complimentary about Rubarb. "It's just what you can't do a thing with."
"Ah, but does— They are wonderful to work with. They will do anything you tell them to."
Lubin remarked that the Francis films and "Rhubarb" have been very popular here and abroad, with one exception. "For some reason," he said, "the pictures have not been liked in England. I don't know why that should be. But they have done big business in Belgium, France and Scandinavia."
The director's next package will also be in the fantasy department. But this time will concern flora rather than fauna. He will direct Irene Dunne in something called "It Grows on Trees." The "it" is just what you think it is.
"Irene plays a woman who can't resist a bargain," Lubin related. "She buys a couple of trees at a sale. One day she notices something strange about the leaves. They are government bills. The tree in the shade grows $5 bills, and the one in the sun grows $10. "Naturally, she has trouble convincing everyone of this and all

Crystal Shower Is Given For Mrs. Hale

Mrs. Leonard Hale was honored with a crystal shower given by Mrs. R. F. Hale, Mrs. E. V. Boyd and Mrs. J. M. Watson. The party was given at the latter home.

The party rooms were attractively decorated throughout with arrangements of various colored flowers. Games were played and prizes were awarded to Mrs. M. Milligan and Miss Bobbie Hicks.

Refreshments of punch, cakes, cookies, opened sandwiches, nuts and mints were served to the guests from the dining table which was overlaid with a hand-made lace cloth.

Those enjoying the evening with Mrs. Hale were Mrs. Milligan, Mrs. Richard Gogger, Miss Hicks, Miss Bertha Bond, and the hostesses, Mrs. Hale, Mrs. Boyd and Mrs. Watson.

Class Is Entertained By Mrs. Williams
The home of Mrs. Vobe Williams, Sr. was the scene Tuesday evening of the annual Christmas party of the Women's Bible Class of the First Baptist Church. A Christmas motif was carried out in decorating Mrs. Williams' home.

A chicken supper was served buffet style to the guests after which the business meeting was held and presided over by Mrs. H. C. Moore, president of the class.

The class voted to present $25 to the "Lotte Moore" offering at the close of the meeting. 400-

Trabert, Schroeder Sweep Swedes From Court In Davis Cup Matches

By GAYLE TALBOT
MELBOURNE, Australia.—Tony Trabert and Ted Schroeder virtually swept their Swedish opponents off the courts in the first two singles matches of the U. S. Sweden Interzone Davis Cup final today and were expected to finish the job Friday by taking the doubles in similar convincing fashion.

Tony and Ted, whose selection for the singles over Vic Seixas and Dick Savitt caused some surprise, each won their matches in straight sets to give the U. S. a commanding 2-0 lead. A victory in the doubles will put the U. S. in the challenge round against Australia.

Trabert, a Cincinnati youth on leave from the Navy, crushed Sven Davidson, 6-2, 6-4, 9-7. Then the veteran Schroeder from LaCanada, Calif., stormed over Lennart Bergelin, Sweden's No. 1 player, 6-2, 6-4. Davidson and Bergelin will pair against Tony and Ted in the doubles.

Trabert defeated Davidson in the opening match by staying in the backcourt and passing the netting. Schroeder played a superb game in crushing Bergelin. He scored 32 placements to Bergelin's 13 and served nine aces to none for the Swede. The match lasted only 52 minutes, the last set 18 minutes.

Kissimmee Holding Hunting Dog Trials

KISSIMEE.—The open all age classes of the sixth annual Piney Woods Field Trials for hunting dogs starts today and ends Friday.

Winner of the amateur all-age title Tuesday was Satilla Star, owned and handled by Lester Varn of Jacksonville and Warwick, Ga. Second was Dr. Sam's Wahoo, owned and handled by Sam Orr Black of Spartantown, S. C. and third was Miss Sierra, owned by Tom Stuart, Tampa.

Coleman Resigns At Gator Mentor For Job At Tech

GAINESVILLE.—Arthur M. (Tony) Coleman has resigned from the University of Florida's coaching staff to become assistant athletic director at Georgia Tech in Atlanta.

Coleman will replace Roy Munderoff, who resigned effective Jan. 1 to become athletic director at the University of Louisville.

"We will miss Tony here at Florida," Munderoff said, "and very much regret his leaving. However, we are glad to see him have this opportunity of advancement."

At Florida, Coleman coached the freshman team in 1950 and was varsity end coach in the 1951 season.

"It is with the deepest regret that I leave the University of Florida," Coleman said, "and I do so simply because I feel I can not afford to turn down a fine opportunity for professional advancement offered at Georgia Tech."

Coleman came to Florida from Abilene Christian College in Texas two years ago.

Chicago Hoopmen Lose First Cage Games Of Season

CHICAGO.—Chicago's two major college basketball teams—Loyola and DePaul—lost their first games of the season Wednesday night.

The Sports Register

By DEREK DUNN-RANKIN

When John Krider told the Chamber of Commerce meeting Tuesday night that Sanford would have to start thinking about running a baseball team on their own, he may have added a big boost to the chances of having a winning ball club here.

Krider told the meeting that lack of accommodations and the fact that the major teams have already organized their farm systems for the coming year closed Sanford out of possible big league support.

That adds up to just one thing: Local capital, local leadership and local elbow grease will have to go into producing a ball club for Sanford by the time the season starts in mid-April.

Krider thinks Sanford can do it and come up with a better team than the Glants gave the town last year. And the former Brooklyn pitcher ought to know.

Chicago Hoopmen Lose First Cage Games Of Season

CHICAGO.—Chicago's two major college basketball teams—Loyola and DePaul—lost their first games of the season Wednesday night.

Loyola succumbed as expected to Illinois T Champaign, 74-66. DePaul, which had been averaging 80 points a game in five previous victories, was humiliated by little Northern Illinois State at DeKalb, 74-69.

The Northern Huskies allowed the Chicago Demons to take the lead only once—early in the second quarter—when DePaul fashioned a brief 23-18 advantage. Otherwise, the Huskies controlled the game with accurate long range shooting and a surprisingly aggressive under-the-basket game.

Illinois, rated the country's third-best team in this week's Associated Press poll, won its second game of the young season in polishing off Loyola, winner of three previous games.

Taking advantage of their height advantage, the Illini pushed off to an early lead, were out in front 47-32 at halftime, and resisted Loyola surges in the second half.

Kansas State, ranked fifth in the AP poll, was upset by San Francisco, 55 to 52, in an inter-sectional game at San Francisco.

In other games Brigham Young nipped Toledo, 68-57; Maryland beat William and Mary 54-53; Tulsa took Arkansas, 48-44; Louisville beat Eastern Kentucky, 72-70;

Seminole Cagers Playing DeLand Indians Tonight

Untested Seminole Quintets Meeting B, Varsity Teams

Seminole High School basketball coaches Fred Glants and Bill Fleming will try developing a pair of workable quintets tonight as they test their inexperienced Calvary Pele hopshooters into the season's opening tilt against the DeLand Indians at 8:30 tonight in the DeLand gym.

A double header is on the program as the B fives clash in the opening frame followed by the contest between the two varsity teams.

The little, light, inexperienced B squadders are an unknown quality and with the DeLand ladies court work just as much a mystery as to how the opener will go as any other's.

The varsity men will also be working as a unit for the first time and the Sanford coach is expected to juggle players hunting the right combination to come up with a winning aggregation.

Three lanky giants, Wino Harlin, Gerald Covington and Bennie Doug Whitney, have the height to make the Seminole team a prep court terror if they can develop into smooth working basket men. Aiding the tall boys will be Ray Davis, Junior Meitz, and Terry Cordell, a well muscled trio of littler men who may add to Sanford floor power.

Medwick Is Named To Manage Smokers

TAMPA.—Joe Medwick, former St. Louis Cardinals baseball star and former manager of a Miami Beach club, has been named manager of the Florida International League's Tampa Smokers.

Medwick, succeeding Ben Chapman who will go with the Cincinnati Reds as coach, has been in baseball since 1930 when he played with Scotland of the Middle Atlantic League.

He broke into the majors in 1932 and played with the Cardinals, Brooklyn Dodgers, New York Giants, Boston Braves and New York Yankees.

Last season, Medwick led the Class B Carolina League's Raleigh club to third place.

Medwick because it started on a showing.

Krider thinks we can come up with a better ball club and his reasons sound like sense to us.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

NEW YORK.—Having been slapped down once in an effort to apply strict controls to college athletic practices, the NCAA bigwigs likely will try a gentler form of persuasion... One plan which likely will come up at the January meeting is to require the head of each school to certify that he knows and approves of all aid being given to athletes... There won't be any prescribed limits or punishment... That seems to allow plenty of leeway, but the idea is that there won't be any excuses, either, if flagrant cases of subsidization turn up... The academic accrediting agencies—much more powerful than the NCAA—might then step in and slap the offending schools down on charges of "bad academic practices"... Question is just how far would these agencies go if there was any doubt at all about a matter which isn't exactly academic.

Just Plane Lucky

When the Notre Dame football team took off from Los Angeles airport in a chartered plane following their victory over Southern California, they used the same route as passengers taking a smaller ship to San Francisco. The Irish special had taxied to the end of the runway when two men who had boarded the ship looked around uncertainly at the collection of husky and hungry athletes and asked shyly: "This plane is going to Catalina, isn't it?" They were returned to the gate, but brother wouldn't they have been surprised if they had landed at South Bend?

T Formation Plus 2 Platoon System Ups Grid Scoring

NEW YORK.—Two platoon and formation football have increased the scoring among college elevens over two touchdowns a game since 1936 and reduced shutouts almost 50 per cent, an Associated Press survey showed today.

In 1936, the first year of the Associated Press poll to determine the country's best teams, the average score of a game played by the better teams was 19 to 8. The top 10 teams of 1931 romped over the gridiron at a 28 to 9 pace, an increase of 13 points a game.

The 1936 elevens participated in 91 games, and in 51 of them one of the teams failed to score. The leaders of the past season played 96 games and only 27 times was a team unable to gain the end zone.

In 1925, the average score was 24 to 5. The records of the 10 colleges placing men on the 1925 All-America team were used in compiling figures for that year. In the 67 games played by the leaders that season, 51 teams failed to score.

Probably the most outstanding figure developed in the survey was that which showed the increase in the length of the schedule. The 1925 leaders played 27 games, including Washington's 20 to 19 loss to Alabama in the Rose Bowl. The 1931 teams already have played 96 games and have six bowl appearances docketed for New Year's Day.

Stanford End Voted Year's Best Lineman

NEW YORK.—Bill McCall, a big factor in Stanford's winning of the Pacific Coast Conference football title and the Rose Bowl spot against Illinois, has been voted as the lineman of the year.

The 21-year-old 225-pound end from San Diego was the choice of 103 sports writers and sportscasters participating in the Associated Press poll.

Big Bill, named on the Associated Press' All-America offensive team, received 17 votes for his feats of catching 42 passes, seven for touchdowns, and picking up 607 yards.

Two All-America tackles, Don Coleman of Michigan State and Jim Weatherall of Oklahoma, tied for second place. Bob Ward, Maryland's All-America guard, was voted third.

Ted Daffer, Tennessee guard, received four votes and Ray Beck of Georgia Tech, also a guard, received three, to find places among the top 10.

Presidents Agree On One Point, Athletes Rate College Education

WASHINGTON.—College presidents studying sports have found one point on which they're all agreed: They feel a college athlete is entitled to, and should get, a college education.

As they went back to work today they still were far from a decision on what their chairman, Dr. John Hannah of Michigan State College, thinks is the heart of the problem.

"We still don't know how to control recruiting and subsidizing," he told reporters Wednesday. "Spring practice, bowl, that sort of thing, are just the fringes."

The college presidents are members of a special committee set up by the American Council on Education. They met here for a couple of days last month, and followed this with a session Wednesday and today.

Hannah said the presidents were agreed on the proposition that a college athlete is entitled to what he presumably came to college for: an education.

There have been some complaints that athletes are allowed to spend too much time on snap courses in physical education. But Thomas E. McDonough of Emory University in Georgia, who is president of the College Physical Education Association, told the educators Wednesday that:

1. Physical education is no snap, and

2. Athletes shy away from it. "You have to take biology, chemistry and physics," he told reporters. "They not only take a lot of time with laboratory periods, but they're also very difficult."

Lloyd P. Jordan, Harvard football coach and president of the National Coaches Association, said he favors a controlled spring practice, believes athletes should receive the same treatment as other students and thinks that coaches should be regular members of the faculty.

On the touchy question of recruiting, he said coaches feel there's no reason why they can't sell their institution to a youngster the same way any other teacher can. "I think each institution must work out its own salvation," he added.

Stetson Five Beat Florida Southern

LAKELAND.—Jim Young led the Stetson University Hatters to a 61-43 victory over Florida Southern College's Moccasins in a basketball game Wednesday night.

Young tallied 17 points and his teammate, Jim Tavenier, rung up 12 to pace the Hatters. Bob Forrest was high man for the Mocs with 14, pressed by Fred Lapper with 13 points.

Stetson held a 29-26 halftime edge.

Charles Victor For Fifth Time Over Joey Maxim

SAN FRANCISCO.—Former Heavyweight Champion Essard Charles has finally convinced Light Heavyweight Title holder Joey Maxim, after five beatings, that it is a hopeless cause to challenge him.

Charles, who expects to punch the crown off Jersey Joe Walcott's head in their return fight early next year, dashed Maxim's hopes for a successful foray into the heavier division at the Cow Palace Wednesday night.

There were no knockdowns and not much sustained action. Neither was damaged or even in trouble. The crowd of 10,827 booted at times in dull moments when Maxim engaged in his frequent clinches.

Both Charles and Maxim immediately looked forward to championship fights not too long off. Charles expressed confidence of regaining his crown from Walcott and said he expected the fight to be scheduled for February or March. Matchmaker Al Weill said the Charles-Walcott winner will defend his crown against Rocky Marciano in New York, probably in June.

Charles and Maxim, each an experienced boxer with little ating in his punches, disappointed those fans who wanted a knockout. The ex-heavyweight boss justified his 1 to 3 favoritism to outscore Maxim. He packed the heavier blows. Charles weighed 150, heaviest of his career; Maxim 178.

On the touchy question of recruiting, he said coaches feel there's no reason why they can't sell their institution to a youngster the same way any other teacher can. "I think each institution must work out its own salvation," he added.

One Millionth Car Death Is Expected To Occur Dec. 21

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's toll of deaths in motor vehicle accidents soon will reach the one million mark.

The National Safety Council says it may be reached on Dec. 21.

No one will be able to say with certainty that this means that woman or child actually was killed on Dec. 21, 1951.

Suppose the count reaches 999,000 at 11 p.m. EST on M (for million) Day. A half hour goes by without a reported fatality.

Then an automobile veers into a telephone pole in New York City. The driver, John Doe, the only person in the car, is killed. A traffic cop hurries up to the auto, notes that Doe is dead, and glances at his watch. It is 1:30 p.m. EST.

The death of Doe could be listed only as the 1,000,000th reported motor vehicle fatality since 1933. The statistics on deaths before that time are based on the best available records and round-number estimates. They are not the actual figures.

The person listed as Victim No. 1,000,000 might be—if the actual deaths before 1933 were known—Victim 999,709 or Victim 1,000,101.

The council counts all deaths in accidents involving a motor vehicle—auto, bus, truck, motorcycle, motor bike, motor scooter.

The council does not intend to name the 1,000,000th victim. It says its only purpose in promoting M Day is to call attention to the rise in fatalities in the one million mark in the hope that it will "crack the apathy" of the nation.

The council will make its final tabulation before the million mark is reached.

Zero Weather Hits Midwest States

By The Associated Press

The coldest weather of the season hit Midwest areas today with temperatures again dipping below zero in Northern Border states.

The cold air centered in the North Central states but extended from the Dakotas eastward through the Great Lakes region. The sub-zero spots were in Northern Minnesota, Northwestern Wisconsin and most of North Dakota. Temperatures were around normal in other parts of the country.

It was 13 below zero at International Falls, Minn., early today after a high of -6 Wednesday. At the same time it was -12 at Grand Forks, N. D., -9 at Duluth, Minn., and -7 at Minot, N. D. The above in Chicago was the lowest of the season. Other readings included 32 in Corpus Christi, Tex., 31 in Miami, 35 in Los Angeles, 31 in New York and Washington and 33 in Seattle.

Lower readings were forecast to night for most of the cold belt.

is reached. It has been making weekly tabulations but its reporting machinery is not geared for daily gathering of fatality reports.

So, several days before M Day, The Associated Press will start gathering figures on deaths across the nation.

The AP will file stories on the rise in the toll. On M Day it will announce that its count has reached the one million mark, and pass along the 1,000,000th name reported to it—if it is a single name.

It may be the mythical John Doe killed in New York City at 1:30 p.m. EST.

But the 1,000,000th name on the list may not get there in such simple and dramatic circumstances.

The 1,000,000th name could be that of Richard Roe, who might die at 1:29 p.m. EST in a Miami hospital of injuries suffered when he was knocked down by a motor cycle on Oct. 21.

There are many other possibilities.

Suppose the deaths of Doe and Roe are both recorded at 1:30 p.m. EST. Which could be listed as No. 1,000,000?

Suppose, with only one to go, three men are killed when their car rams into a truck on an Ohio road.

Or, with only one to go, a bus containing an unknown number of passengers skids off a mountain road in Colorado and plunges into a deep lake.

Whatever happens, the actual 1,000,000th victim, like the Unknown Soldier, will be "known but not named."

Murder, 1,600 Years Old, Is Discovered

VANCOUVER, B. C. (AP)—A murder committed more than 1,600 years ago in Egypt has been uncovered in the Vancouver Museum.

The body of the victim, a 10-year old boy, has been on display at the museum for more than 30 years.

It had been exhumed at the site of ancient Thebes where the Pharaohs and nobles of Egypt were interred.

Until six months ago, the mummy was believed that of a girl. Then it was X-rayed and museum directors announced it was a boy.

But the X-rays disclosed more. The boy's bones were broken. But the skin had been partially torn away from the skull. The left eye had been knocked out of its socket. One knee was dislocated and both thigh bones were broken. But the arms and fingers were unmarked.

It was obvious the boy had been murdered, probably by being swung from the legs and smashed on some hard surface. Had he died by accident, the arms would have been hurt.

Noel Robinson, president of the Vancouver Museum, said the boy was undoubtedly of noble birth and possibly might have stood in the way of succession to the throne by an older and more powerful claimant, who decided to do away with him.

Charles Holtzclaw Is Named Police Chief

BRADENTON, Fla. (AP)—Mayor Warren Treacy announced yesterday that he is naming Charles Holtzclaw as chief of the Bradenton Police Department, succeeding Jesse McDaniel, resigned.

Holtzclaw also announced that he is appointing E. H. Cullenberry to serve as assistant chief.

A native of Santa Fe, Holtzclaw has had considerable experience in police work. He served as chief of police in the city of Bradenton for a number of years.

Holtzclaw was born in Santa Fe, N. M., and has lived in Bradenton for the past four years and has been on regular duty the past 12 months.

Killer Eludes Posses In Suburban District

BALTIMORE (AP)—George F. Ross, 27-year-old accused police killer, burglar and dope addict, apparently had flown the coop to day, eluding the most intensive man hunt in Maryland history.

FBI agents and state police officials said they were satisfied the dapper, little scar-faced hoodlum had left the area.

How he got out or where he went was anybody's guess.

A posse of 100 FBI men and 50 state troopers failed to flush him from the suburban countryside around Ellicott City where the search began late Monday night when Ross fired on two county police officers who surprised him sleeping in a car stolen in Ohio

Xmas Comes Early In Criminal Court

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Christmas came early to Criminal Court Wednesday with Judge William T. Harvey as Santa.

Jimmie Cobb, young Jacksonville father of two, pleaded guilty of drunkenness. The judge said, "Do you have $25?"

"No, sir," answered Cobb.

"Do you have $25?"

"No, sir," said Judge Harvey. "Can you scrape $25 together before Christmas?"

"I'll try," Cobb replied.

"All right," said the judge. "You get $25 together and spend it on your wife and kids for Christmas."

Coral Gables High School Hit By Fire

CORAL GABLES, Fla.—The main building of Ponce de Leon Junior High School was badly damaged by a spectacular fire early today.

A patrolman spotted the blaze in a tower of the two-story building. By the time fire equipment arrived flames had spread. The entire Coral Gables fire department was called out and assistance was sent from Miami and South Miami.

School officials believed a short-circuit started the blaze. Estimated damage ran from 70 per cent to 80 per cent of the main building. No dollar figure was given, but the building was insured for $200,000.

Whooping Crane Is Involved In Two-State Fight

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—The Gulf Coast is all worked up about birds again. This time Texas is saying Louisiana to separate those whooping lovebirds. Jo and Crip, Louisiana wants back a whooping crane it loaned Texas.

Texas says Louisiana can't have her—or him. The states can't even agree on the sex.

Besides, point out Texas fowl fanciers, their feathers still ruffled over the great pelican question, the Louisiana whooping crane is a mate of the Texas bird and it would be breaking up a family to separate them.

Also, Jo and Crip might produce a baby whooper. That would bring joy to naturalists. For there are only 25 whooping cranes known to exist and naturalists fear the birds will become extinct unless some whoopers come along.

Only a few weeks ago, the two states were battling over pelicans. Texas got the jump on Louisiana by replenishing the pelican supply at St. James Park near Buckingham Palace in England.

That cut Louisiana deeply. It wanted to supply the pelicans. The odd appearing fowls are Louisiana's state bird.

Jo, the female crane, or Crip, the male, was borrowed from New Orleans' Audubon Park Zoo as a mate for the bird at the U.S. Wildlife Refuge in Austwell, Tex. They have been mates five years and produced one offspring. The young crane was lost, probably to a predatory animal.

Monday, the Audubon Zoo's superintendent, George Douglass, said he planned to come to Texas, claim his bird—he says it's Crip, the male—and return with it to Louisiana Saturday.

Immediately Naturalist Julian Howard, Austwell refuge manager, said Douglass couldn't get Jo or Crip without a fight.

He said he would ask his bosses at the U.S. Wildlife Service, in Washington "what the score is."

Howard says the New Orleans Zoo's bird is Jo, the female.

And, he says, he has no idea of giving up Crip, even if Douglass should get Jo. This statement was brought forth by a remark by Douglass that he could breed whoopers in captivity.

So far as he knows, Howard said, the zoo has no male of its own. It would have to take a male, probably Crip, from the refuge to carry out the captivity breeding plan.

The whoopers, which once strutted the sun as they flew in great flocks, now are reduced to 25. Each fall they fly to the Texas refuge.

British Inventors Devise Explosion Prevention Bomb

JARNBOROUGH, England (AP)—British inventors have devised a bomb to keep war planes from blowing up in combat, it was announced today. The device may be adapted to prevent dust and gas explosions in coal mines.

The bomb, about half the size of a grapefruit, snuffs out in a fraction of a second the explosions of high octane gasoline such as caused the loss of hundreds of bombers in World War II.

The Society of Royal Aircraft Constructors, which disclosed the invention, said these explosions are caused by bullets or fire touching off the fumes rising from gasoline in the fuel tanks.

The newly-invented bomb, containing carbon tetrachloride gas, is placed inside the tanks. When an explosion of gasoline fumes begins, it is detected by a highly-sensitive diaphragm built into the bomb. Within a few thousandths of a second the bomb goes off, completely damping the explosion with its suppressor gas.

The society said the suppressor bomb has proved its worth in experiments conducted at the Royal Aircraft Establishment here, where it was developed.

First, tracer bullets were fired at ordinary unprotected tanks partly full of high test gasoline. They disintegrated in smoke and flame. Then bullets were fired at similar tanks containing the suppressor bombs. The tanks rocked when the bullets hit them, but that was all. The society said there seemed to be no reason why the bombs damp out underground blasts like those which have killed thousands of miners in the past.

Xmas Shopper Gets Gift-5 Pound Baby

NEW YORK (AP)—A Christmas shopper in Macy's basement Tuesday received an unexpected gift from the store—a five-pound girl.

Mrs. Mary Fartrich, 31, gave birth prematurely to the child in a downstairs lounge of the big department store.

Excited salesgirls called a doctor from Macy's medical department when the woman's condition became known. She had been shopping with an aunt and a son, John, 4.

The baby, named Ann, was taken to a hospital in an incubator-equipped ambulance. Macy's said it would give her a layette. Mrs. Fartrich was taken to a hospital in another vehicle.

Mother and baby both were reported doing well.

Prize Money To Pay For Kids Education

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Samuel P. Weston's chocolate "starlight double-delight cake" may help to educate her children.

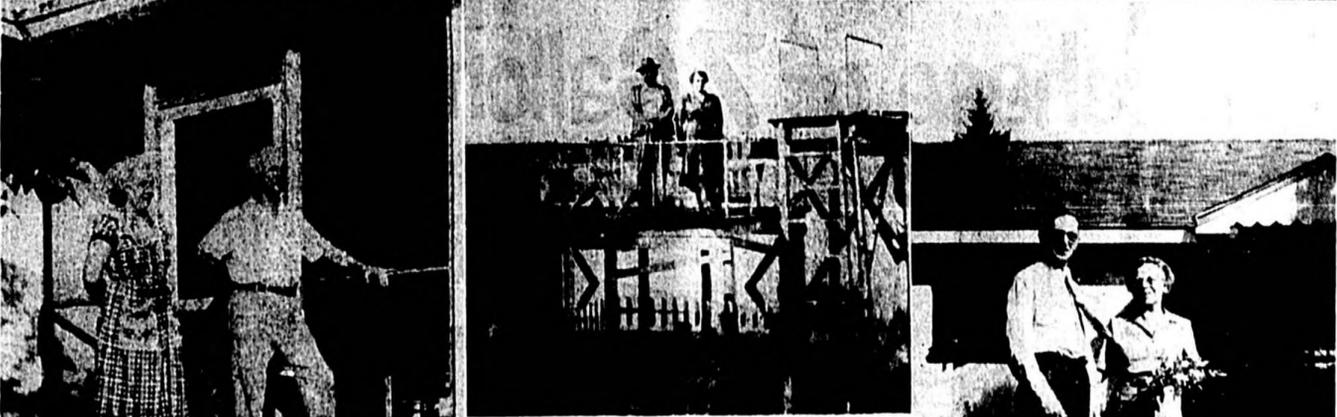

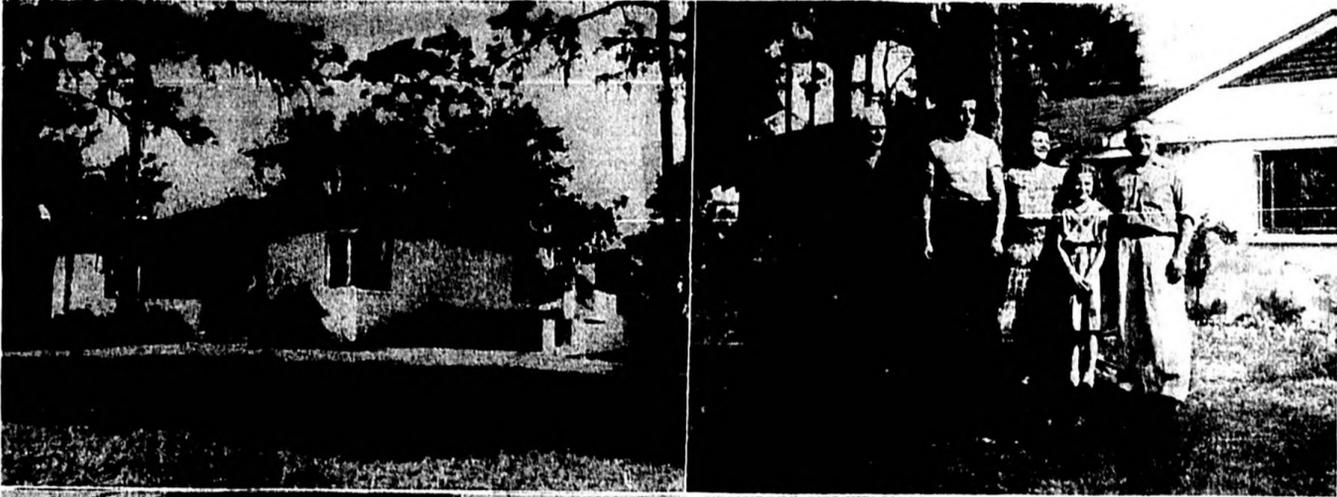

The 32-year-old La Jolla, Calif., housewife—winner of the Pillsbury Mills annual baking contest—says she probably will invest her $25,000 first prize money for that purpose.

Mrs. Weston and her husband, an aircraft company public relations man, have two sons, Peter, 6, and David, 3.

The President's daughter, presenting the check in behalf of the four companies, said "I tried to bake a cake once, but I bent the knife when I went to cut it."

Lake Mary Residents Enjoy Florida Living

Photos by W. R. Connolly

Many new homes have been built during the past several years on the beautiful shores of Lake Mary, Crystal Lake, Little Lake Mary and other lakes in Lake Mary, a suburb five miles southwest of Sanford. At upper left, Lloyd Leadmon, retired owner of the Armstrong Heaters Corp., Richmond, Ind., stands with Mrs. Leadmon in front of their new home facing Lake Mary in the former Evansdale park. The family at upper right are neighbors of the Leadmons. The group includes Andrew Toney at left, 64 year old retired farmer from Eaton, Ohio, his grandson, Ralph, and Mr. and Mrs. Earle Toney, with the granddaughter between them. Earl Toney of Richmond, Ind. is a painter and contractor. At lower left are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Coplin at the entrance of their attractive home at the north end of Lake Mary. A former technical teacher at Marshall High School, Chicago, Mr. Coplin is also a talented artist and art teacher. They came to Florida after a search for a homestead on the Pacific coast. At lower center, C. P. Brasington, retired Cincinnati manufacturer of chemical machinery and Mrs. Brasington, enjoy the view from the dock near their home at Crystal Lake. Resident of Lake Mary for four years, Mr. Brasington has served as president of the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Peckham, at lower left, are well known in this section. Mr. Peckham has been a machinist with the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad for 29 years, and did much of the interior work for his new home on the shore of Lake Mary next to the Earle Toney's.

Amnesia Victim, Gone Six Years, Back Home Again

TARPON SPRINGS (AP)—David Yerke returned home to pick up the life he left behind when he went looking for sponges six years ago and never returned.

With him are his pretty wife Douglas and his daughter Sharon. Yerke turned up in Detroit last month a self-styled amnesia victim. When Mrs. Reuben David Dry, a New Orleans nursing home operator, read about Yerke she said he was married to her.

The former sponge hooker is back to receive medical aid and get a job. The Yerkes arrived last night.

Mrs. Yerke told a reporter. The family plans to start life anew here. David will need psychiatric treatment for perhaps six years. Right now he needs lots of rest.

It makes no difference to her what David did during the six years of his disappearance because it was not his fault. She believes in her husband.

She is going to get a job to help out. At Detroit she talked with Mrs. Dry by telephone from New Orleans. Mrs. Yerke explained Mrs. Dry said she did not have a marriage license and did not recall where she and David were married.

The physician who treated David, she went on, told her he administered a truth serum to him and carried on a conversation. From that talk, the doctor said there was "possibly some connection" between David and Mrs. Dry but that he did not believe the two were married.

Mrs. Yerke said the Detroit physician planned to issue a statement explaining the medical angles of the case.

What about her impression when she first saw David in Detroit? "Wonderful," she said, although he appeared strange and tried old acquaintances here, but didn't seem to be able to say too much to them, his wife explained. Sharon will enter school tomorrow and on Christmas the three will be together like that time in 1945 when he gave his wife a pretty dressing gown and Sharon—then two months old—a gold locket.

SUICIDE DOG

PROVIDENCE, R. I. (AP)—The Rhode Island Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals is convinced that it has a dog and its hands that is trying to commit suicide.

George J. Reilly, manager of the society, said last night the small, brown mongrel dog jumped in the Woonasquatucket River twice in the last two days, both times fighting off rescuers until captured with long poles and nooses.

Now, Reilly says, the dog is apparently trying to starve himself, rejecting both food and warm blankets.

Reilly says he's hoping the dog's owner would show up so he can find out what's troubling the dog.

SING WHITEY BIES

LONDON (AP)—Stanley Damerrell, 27, who wrote the words for "Let's All Sing Like the Birdies Sing" and other songs, died yesterday.

Mayor Of Stuart Re-elected Tuesday

STUART (AP)—Stuart voters Tuesday re-elected Mayor Ernest Tyner and City Commissioner John Keller. They also chose Ralph B. Ulmer for a place on the Commission for two years.

Tyner led the voting with 484;

Ulmer received 467 and Keller 325. Other candidates and their votes were: Ben Goddard, 238; Herman Reitz Jr., 195, and Charles Deese, 147.

City Judge Harry F. Dyer was unopposed. He received 410 votes.

The Department of Commerce and Labor was created by Act of Congress Feb. 14, 1903.

Reds Refuse To Tell Of Prisoners

Commies Will Agree To Troop Rotation If U. N. Accepts Red Truce Plans

By ROBERT B. TUCKMAN
MUNSAN, Korea (AP)—The Reds flatly refused today to lift the curtain of secrecy surrounding their prison camps, but said they would accept the rotation of 5,000 troops a month if the Allies accept other Communist terms for enforcing a Korean truce.

The limited rotation plan was part of a new six-point Communist proposal which made little impression on Allied negotiators. An official U. N. communique made no mention of rotation and said the proposal showed "little significant departure from the unacceptable proposal of Dec. 3."

In Stockholm, the Swedish Foreign Office said the U. S. had asked if Sweden would join a neutral inspection commission to help police a Korean truce. It said Sweden has made no decision.

Negotiators have not agreed on how an armistice would be enforced. The Allies have indicated they might accept a Communist proposal to use representatives of neutral nations for behind-the-lines inspections.

Red delegates said International Red Cross inspection of Communist prison camps was "out of the question."

They again refused to turn over lists of Allied prisoners unless the U. N. Command first accepts the Communist idea of exchanging all prisoners. Rear Adm. R. F. Lihby wanted to know why the Reds asked for it because only it contains just a handful of names and you are ashamed to give it to us?"

The Reds complained the great majority of prisoners held by the U. N. would not be returned if an armistice was signed.

Vote Recorded By Garden Club Against Removal

Women of the Sanford Garden Club today voted unanimously against removing the five Sabal palm trees in the city square.

At twenty-fifth Street and Park Avenue, the Garden Club considered removing the trees on the ground that the trees obstructed the view of places of business nearby.

Mrs. L. E. Spencer, president, Mrs. E. J. Spencer, secretary, and Mrs. E. J. Spencer, who made the motion to retain the trees, declared that years ago, before the Garden Club became interested in beautifying the triangle, it was an eyesore.

She pointed out that low shrubbery, planted there, proved to be a traffic hazard, and as the shrubbery was taken out and the palms planted, the Garden Club had considered removing the trees on the ground that the trees obstructed the view of places of business nearby.

Vegetable Crop Will Dip 8 Per Cent For 1952

Most Florida Crops Will Record Drops In National Trend

ORLANDO (AP)—A number of winter vegetable crops in the United States for 1952 are expected to average eight per cent less than 1951, the U. S. Department of Agriculture and the Florida Agricultural Experiment Stations report.

The Florida average was not given, but most crops estimates were lower.

The mid-month report said: Florida's 1952 lima bean crop will be five per cent less than last year's small crop of 63,000 bushels.

Cabbage production in four states is expected to be 17 per cent off. Florida's expected average crop is 144,000 tons, 12 per cent lower than last year. California's expected crop is estimated at 82,000 tons, Arizona 15,000 and Texas 11,000—each down considerably from 1951.

Peanut production in California, Arizona, Texas and Louisiana is 23 per cent less.

The report says in Florida, California and Arizona is estimated at slightly below 1951's 7,800,000 crates, of which Florida is expected to produce 3,000,000.

Florida's escarole and chivey crops are expected to be less than 1951's 2,374,000 bushels, and indicated lettuce production is 482,000 crates against 429,000 in 1951.

Green pepper average reported for harvest this year is 17 per cent above last winter.

Indicated commercial early Irish potato production in Texas and Florida is 2,628,000 bushels, 18 per cent higher than 1951.

Expansion of spring planting indicated in the Hastings and other Florida areas but planting reduction is indicated in the Texas lower valley. Florida's 1951 winter crop was 2,125,000 bushels and the spring crop was 4,000,000 against Texas' 1,810 winter and 1,800,000 spring crops.

City Building Permits Showing An Increase

City building permits issued in the month are showing an increase in value of construction compared to that of November. Permits for four new homes were issued recently.

Lawrence P. Pines received a permit to build a house of frame construction at 428 Summerlin Avenue at a cost of $8,000. Oiler-Walker, Inc., in charge of this building work.

H. C. Atkinson is building a concrete block house on Washington Avenue at a cost of $10,000. Brainerd and Nelson are contractors. F. A. Ashby, contractor, is putting in a six-room frame house at 90 East Twentieth Street at a cost of $9,000.

Arnold Williams received a permit to build a one and one-half story house at a cost of $10,000.

Teletype Increases Production

The Sanford Herald this week joined the Associated Press' new Florida teletype circuit, begun last July, the second in the United States, as a means of increasing production and publishing a larger volume of late news. Left, Robert Taulie of the Teletypewriter Corporation inspects the new equipment, as Paul Horton, Herald foreman, right, looks on, while the new Blue Streak Comet is seen in actual operation, without a human hand touching it, by means of the tape seen emerging from the perforator at the right.

Herald Installs New Linotype; Joins AP Teletypewriter Circuit

The Sanford Herald this week became the sixteenth newspaper in the state to join the Associated Press Florida teletypewriter circuit by which type is set automatically. The Florida circuit, inaugurated last July 2, was the second AP teletype circuit in the United States, although some others have been placed in operation since that time.

Teletypewriter circuits enable one operator at a central control point to provide a perforated tape in newspaper offices at widely separated locations. This tape when fed through a Teletypewriter Operating Unit attached to line type machines produces without manual operation justified lines of type as they appear in the newspaper and at a maximum rate more than twice that of normal production.

The Florida circuit, operated out of Jacksonville, now consists of the Bradenton Herald, Clearwater Sun, Deland Sun News, Fort Pierce News Tribune, Jacksonville Journal, Lakeland Ledger, Ocala Star Banner, Panama City News Herald, Pensacola News, St. Petersburg Independent, Sarasota Herald Tribune, Tallahassee Democrat, West Palm Beach Times, Melbourne Times, Orlando Evening Star, and the Sanford Herald.

One operator in Jacksonville provides the tape in all these widely separated newspaper offices which in turn operates a linotype machine in each one of them. But because mechanical operation is faster than manual operation, the tape operated Comet linotype machines produce 12 lines of type per minute as compared to six lines a minute as the manually operated machines.

The Herald's New Comet Linotype was installed a month ago. It is the Intergalactic Linotype Co.'s newest model, developed primarily for speed and use with teletypewriter circuits. The number of the Herald's machine is 194 which means that there are only 303 of them in all the rest of the world, since the first new machine was numbered 100. It can be operated either by hand or manually merely by turning a switch.

Attached to the machine is the Teletypewriter Operating Unit (Continued on Page Two)

Tourist Building Fund Raising Goal Is Set At $10,000

The fund raising goal for the new tourist building was set at $10,000 last night by the Jaycee committee, in charge of securing donations of money and materials for the project, meeting at the home of Mervin Oiler.

Under the chairmanship of W. H. Stempert, committee members Oiler, Richard Farrell, William DeLuzar and Carl Price mapped plans to start the dimes, dollars and checks rolling into the fund for a building for Sanford tourists.

The city is planning to ask for bids on Dec. 21 on the building which will be erected on City property adjacent to the shuffleboard courts in Fort Mellon Park.

The necessity for a new building is due to the use of the old tourist building as a nifty center.

The Jaycee committee is planning to set out collection jars in downtown locations with a picture of the architect's drawing of the building and a fund raising slogan. A thermometer showing progress of the drive is scheduled to be erected in a prominent downtown location and committee members are investigating the possibility of several benefit entertainments.

Next week the group will appear to Sanford civic clubs at their luncheon meetings for donations from members to get the drive under way.

Mr. Stempert, temporary chairman of the Jaycee committee in charge of the drive, asked the group last night to start thinking about finding a permanent chairman.

Lawyer Asserts Tallulah Granted Check - Approval

NEW YORK (AP)—The defense today admitted that Tallulah Bankhead's former personal secretary and maid raised sums on the actress' checks, but claimed Miss Bankhead authorized it.

Fred G. Moritt, counsel for 60-year-old Mrs. Evelyn R. Cronin, waved a check in his hand and told the jury: "I tell you now that it was Mrs. Cronin who raised this check. She raised all these checks."

Mrs. Cronin, an ex-showgirl and dancer who worked for Miss Bankhead until the check-writing case exploded last year, is accused on 32 counts of forgery and grand larceny.

Moritt's statement came while he was cross-examining Bernard (Continued on Page Two)

Memorial Services For Departed Elks Are Held At Lodge

Impressive memorial services for departed members of the Elks Club were held last night at Sanford Lodge 1211, R.F.O.E.

Robert A. Bennett, local Elks officer, presided at the services, which were held in the Elks Club building.

Howard R. Davis, Grand Exalted Ruler of the Elks Club, presided at the memorial services. He presided at the Elks Club building.

Xmas Party Planned By American Legion

The Sanford Post No. 53, The American Legion, is expecting a big attendance at the Legion Hut Monday night at its supper and Christmas party, Denver Correll, post commander, announced today.

The "show line" will form at 7:30 P.M., he stated, and a special supper will be served by the Legion Auxiliary Unit, under direction of Mrs. Charles Webster.

A program of string music will be featured by Dave Shannon, Bill Martin and Harry Wester.

Charles Morrison, Rotarian, Elks and tenor, will lead in group singing, and will introduce a skit that is reported to be "side-splitting."

Richard Holtzclaw, New York City Opera Co., To Sing For Rotarians

By WILLARD CONNOLLY
Richard "Dick" Holtzclaw, baritone of the New York City Opera Co., and known by the professional name of Richard Wentworth, will sing for the Rotary Club at its meeting Monday noon with Harry Wester accompanying.

Born in Sanford, Mr. Holtzclaw is back home for the holidays and is visiting his brother, James P. Holtzclaw, manager of the local Coca Cola Bottling Co., and family.

Fond of fishing in Seminole County, Mr. Holtzclaw declared yesterday, "I am hoping to catch my share of speckled perch and bass before I have to leave on Jan. 8 for a 10 day open engagement in Montreal, Canada, starting Jan. 8."

When Dr. H. W. Rucker, one of the Kiwanis Club's leading baritone heard that Mr. Holtzclaw was to attend the Kiwanis meeting in Sanford, he immediately telephoned Mr. Holtzclaw and invited him to sing for the club.

Joan Bennett's Husband Shoots Hollywood Agent

Wanger Accuses Him Of Trying To Break Up His Family Life

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Movie producer Walter Wanger was ordered released today on $5,000 bail in the shooting of his wife's agent, and District Attorney R. Ernest Roll told reporters: "I can't say whether he will issue a complaint."

By GENE HANDSAKER
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Film Star Joan Bennett's husband Walter Wanger, who shot down a Hollywood agent "because he broke up my home," goes to court for arraignment today.

The victim, Jennings Lang, 39, was killed Thursday night by ten bullets in a parking lot across the street from the police station and is in serious condition.

Miss Bennett, who said she was discussing her plans for a television show with Lang when the shooting started, denied she was romantically interested in him.

Wanger, prominent film producer, was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon under Police said a formal complaint will be issued later today charging either assault with intent to commit murder or assault with a deadly weapon.

Lang underwent surgery lasting an hour and a half Thursday night. One 38 bullet penetrated his groin and came out through the rear of his left leg. Chief Anderson said.

The other slug tore through Lang's clothes and grazed his thigh but didn't break the skin. A bullet slipped through the left front fender of Miss Bennett's green Cadillac convertible. She was sitting in the car when the gun roared, about 5:30 p.m. in a parking lot across the street from the Beverly Hills police station.

Lang was standing by the car, talking to her. He doubled over clutching at his abdomen.

"Chief Anderson quoted Miss Bennett as saying she told Wanger: 'Get away and leave us alone.' She told the police chief that (Continued on Page Two)

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP)—Film Star Joan Bennett's husband Walter Wanger, who shot down a Hollywood agent "because he broke up my home," goes to court for arraignment today.

The victim, Jennings Lang, 39, was killed Thursday night by ten bullets in a parking lot across the street from the police station and is in serious condition.

Miss Bennett, who said she was discussing her plans for a television show with Lang when the shooting started, denied she was romantically interested in him.

Wanger, prominent film producer, was booked on suspicion of assault with a deadly weapon under Police said a formal complaint will be issued later today charging either assault with intent to commit murder or assault with a deadly weapon.

The other slug tore through Lang's clothes and grazed his thigh but didn't break the skin. A bullet slipped through the left front fender of Miss Bennett's green Cadillac convertible. She was sitting in the car when the gun roared, about 5:30 p.m. in a parking lot across the street from the Beverly Hills police station.

"Chief Anderson quoted Miss Bennett as saying she told Wanger: 'Get away and leave us alone.' She told the police chief that (Continued on Page Two)

Oliphant Testifies He Helped Sen. Bridges On Klein Tax Case

Assessment Amount Said In 6 Figures; Tax Lien Slapped On H. Grunewald

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Cecil King (D-Calif.), chairman of the House committee investigating tax scandals in the government, conferred for 45 minutes with President Truman today. He declined afterwards to tell White House reporters anything about the meeting or even to say whether it was himself or the President who initiated it.

The White House wouldn't say, either. Informed sources said in advance, however, that King undoubtedly would offer advice on the drastic action promised by Mr. Truman to put the Administration's house in order well before next year's election campaign.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Charles Oliphant linked the name of "Mystery Man" Henry (The Dub-Iman) Grunewald with another big tax case today and quoted Grunewald as saying he was helping Sen. Bridges (R-N.J.) on it.

Oliphant resigned chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Bureau, told House tax investigators that Bridges himself made an inquiry about the case involving a company assessment against Hyman H. Klein of Baltimore.

The amount of the assessment was not brought out but reporters were told it was "at least six figures." Many other angles also were left hanging, temporarily and limits the investigators were building up in new situations.

For the second day, Oliphant was in the witness chair before the House ways and means committee investigating tax irregularities in highlights.

Oliphant acknowledged that he let a tax deficiency prosecution against a Washington bond firm drop because Rep. James Morrison (D-La.) had interested himself in the case. He said he let it drop despite instructions from George Schoeneman, then commissioner of internal revenue, that it should be prosecuted.

Oliphant admitted he topped U. S. Senator William H. Roth (D-Mo.) in a public attack on a tax return.

Oliphant and Rep. Roy Wilkins (D-Mo.) disputed whether it was a (Continued on Page Two)

Russia Is Asked To Settle With Tito's Regime

Assembly Will Hear Russia's Charges Against America

PARIS (AP)—U. S. Ambassador Philip C. Jessup told the United Nations Political Committee today the Western powers will open disarmament negotiations with Russia "with the fixed desire and hope that they will result in agreement." Explaining the revised Western disarmament proposals, Jessup said it was obvious that fundamental differences remained between the Soviet Union and the West.

PARIS (AP)—The United Nations General Assembly today called on Russia and her satellites to settle their differences with Yugoslavia peacefully in accordance with the spirit of the U. N. Charter.

The vote was 17 to 3 (Soviet bloc) with two abstentions (Afghanistan and Iran).

Today's action gave full Assembly approval to action taken previously by its special political committee.

Yugoslavia which broke away from the Kremlin's domination in 1948, charged in the committee that Russia and other eastern European countries were putting diplomatic, military and economic pressure on his country in order to force it back into line. Russia replied that Yugoslavia was "springing" for aggressive Anglo-American activity against the Soviet Union.

The General Assembly also agreed to set up a special commission to investigate the charges which the U. S. is trying to prevent rebellion against the Kremlin.

The vote, which the Assembly accepted a recommendation from its disarmament steering committee, was 55 to zero with two abstentions (New Zealand and Cuba).

U. S. Delegate Ernest A. Gruening said he was pleased to see no objection to a public airing of the charges which he said the U. S. would disprove. He suggested, however, that the item be taken up directly by a plenary session of the Assembly without prior committee debate.

Pakistan's Sir Mohammed Zafrullah Khan objected to this procedure and Gross thereupon with drew the suggestion.

The Russia charges are based on an interpretation of the Mutual Security Act which Congress passed this fall, by which the Russia claim that U. S. has appropriated 100 million dollars to pay "traitors" on Russian soil.
