

LETTER FROM SENATOR BRYAN.

Defines Position on Citrus Fruits and Gives Good Reasons For Same.

The orange growers of the United States are contending on the one hand, that a rate of eighty cents a box is necessary for the preservation or protection of the industry; and the Ways and Means Committee, on the other hand, for the reduction of the rate to 35 cents a box.

A majority of the committee is pledged to a revenue rate which contemplates the importation of foreign oranges, for, in no other way can revenue be raised on oranges than by a tax on orange importations.

If the Democrats in Congress are true to their platform and pledges it is inevitable that a rate will be established inviting importations of foreign oranges, even though there may be none, just as there will be rates on other articles of foreign production now barred by the Republican protective tariff wall. If the Democrats are not true to their pledges and platform the protective wall would be maintained, the people will be unrelieved of the burdens under which they have labored, and the party will be judged unworthy of trust and its destiny determined.

Oranges are a luxury and properly come under a higher rate than necessities. I shall support a luxury rate but not one that is protective. I could not do more without feeling that I had deserted my party, and this I know the Florida orange growers would not have me do.

Will the orange industry be injured by a lower rate? This can be determined, not upon an argument based on apprehension and fear, but by the facts alone.

From the statistical departments I have gathered some facts which I submit. The world's production of oranges in 1912 is estimated as follows:

The United States, (boxes)	20,000,000
Spain	10,121,563
Italy	736, WW
Italy	3,636,823
Palestine	736,124
Japan	344,461
Japan	176,732
Cuba	45,123

Of this total of practically 35,000,000 boxes the United States produces 58 per cent and the remainder of the world 42 per cent.

In 1908 we exported 651,000 and in 1912, 1,200,000 boxes of oranges. Of this quantity Canada took 1,150,000 boxes.

In 1912 Canada imported of oranges and grapefruit, 3,218,000 boxes, of which the United States supplied 2,950,247 boxes, or all but 267,743 boxes. If Canada, which admits citrus fruit free, imports so insignificant a quantity from countries other than the United States, how can it be fairly contended that the United States, with a tariff of 35 cents a box, would be deluged with foreign oranges and the industry destroyed?

If the United States and Canada, with a combined population of a hundred million consume 20,000,000 boxes, is it not fair to suppose that the three hundred millions of Europe would supply a demand sufficient to consume the total foreign production of fifteen million boxes? The per capita consumption of the United States and Canada is 30 oranges, that of Europe 7 1/2, and is it not but fair to assume that the Europeans have as keen an appetite for a fine fruit as the people of the United States?

From what source do the growers of the United States fear competition? Not Spain, nor Italy, nor Palestine, nor Japan, for they are too remote to compete. Possibly Porto Rico, Cuba, and Mexico—producing all told less than 400,000 boxes.

The groves of Spain, especially those of Valencia and other southern provinces from which the greatest supply is drawn, have been infected for several years past with the red scale, which is regarded as a most serious enemy of the citrus family. I shall oppose the importation of oranges from any country where there is citrus infection and to that end have introduced in the Senate an amendment to exclude such oranges from our imports. I am in favor of that sort of protection to the industry but not one through tariff legislation.

Frankly, I am of the opinion that the Florida orange needs no protection and I doubt if the bill, at 35 cents a box, will raise any but an insignificant revenue. The Florida orange stands in a class by itself. It sells in Canada for more than it sells for in the United States. The orange growers attribute this to a combination of buyers. Nevertheless, the buyers have not the power to force the public to pay more for a Florida orange than the Florida orange is worth. If the buyers get what it is worth, why not the producer? Do they? If they do not whose fault is it?

I wish to suggest also that the greatest initial development of the orange industry was between 1875 and 1893, up to which time the tariff on oranges was 26 cents a box.

Very respectfully,
W. P. Bryan.

Washington, April 19.

Music Club

The regular meeting of the Music Club was held at the home of Mrs. Frank L. Woodruff Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Mrs. M. Martin leader.

A very interesting paper on "Richard Strauss; His Personality and Compositions," was read by Mrs. Martin and very much enjoyed by the club.

Miss Chandler from Enterprise, whom the club is pleased to have as a member, entertained the club with two characteristic compositions by Richard Strauss: Op. 17, No. 2, "Standchen" and "Frieilecher," most charmingly rendered.

Mrs. Geo. L. Hoy sang as only Mrs. Hoy can sing, "In the Time of Roses," Louise Reichardt, accompanied by Mrs. R. E. Tolar and "Slumber Song" by Mendelssohn.

Miss Chandler kindly consented to play another selection, Chopin's "Polonaise," Andante Spiranti, which concluded the musical part of the program.

A brief discussion on "What is Program Music" followed.

After the transaction of a few matters of business and an announcement by the secretary, the meeting adjourned.

Buys West Side Store

I. L. Jenkins, late of Sebring, Fla., has purchased the West Side Cash Store from C. C. Cobb and will conduct the same with a new and much larger stock of goods. Mr. Jenkins and family have moved here and will become citizens of the new county of Seminole, having every indication that this section of Florida is destined to become one of the best in Florida. Mr. Cobb gives up mercantile life for the produce business in which he has a long and successful record. We welcome Mr. Jenkins and family to our midst and feel sure that they will be no mistake in becoming citizens of Sanford and Seminole county.

Woodland Park Notes

A jolly party spent Sunday afternoon at Woodland Park. Captain Fulton took them in his beautiful yacht, Ramona. Those in party were Mr. and Mrs. Norwood, Mr. and Mrs. Joiner, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Wessner, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Harris, Messrs. Hamrick, Zinner, Pugh, Gadsden, Senn, Allen, Tilden, Raley, Long.

Evening Bridge

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Gonzales were host and hostess at a very pleasant informal evening at cards Friday evening. Two tables of bridge were played. The ladies' prize, a deck of cards was won by Mrs. O. W. Brady, who made the top score. Dr. Samuel Puleston won the gentleman's prize, also a deck of cards, by the top score.

After the enthusiastic games of cards were concluded fruit salad, wafers, olives and chocolate were served by the hostess.

Those who enjoyed the pleasant evening were Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Dr. and Mrs. Puleston, Mrs. O. W. Brady and Mrs. C. O. McLaughlin.

Picnic Party

Friday was most pleasantly spent at Enterprise by a party of ladies who enjoyed the many pretty views to be found at Enterprise and a visit to the orphanage, which they found as neat as a new pin, under the supervision of Miss Louise Stork, the efficient superintendent.

The inmates seemed well and happy. The children do all the work about the place and they do it well. The ladies were shown over the house. They were especially pleased with the room which is furnished by the Junior Epworth League of this city and which is occupied by boys who take care of it and keep it in apple pie order.

Some contributions to the Home were taken over by the ladies, but there are numbers of articles which would make the Home more comfortable and which would be gladly received.

The superintendent is very anxious to have the upstairs porch screened in for a sleeping porch for some of the children, but they lack $10.00 of the sum that will be required to have the work done. Five springs for single beds will indeed fill a long felt want. Curtains, shades, rugs and bed linen would add very much to the comfort and appearance of some of the rooms.

Good articles of clothing and canned goods would be very acceptable as well as money. Two of the children in the Home, whose parents had once lived in Sanford, were invited by the ladies to join them at their picnic luncheon, which was enjoyed at one of the springs.

The members of the pleasant party were Mrs. A. E. Phillips, Mrs. J. C. McLaughlin, Mrs. W. E. Housholder, Mrs. A. H. Moses, Mrs. T. J. Miller, Mrs. C. E. Henry, Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mrs. O. L. Miller, Mrs. S. O. Shinholser.

Library Day

The Wednesday Club will celebrate their nineteenth birthday for the benefit of the Library at the home of Mrs. S. O. Chase Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The members of the club and their guests who are expected to be all the friends of the Library in the city and all others who are interested in its welfare and growth are requested to bring twenty cents, one penny in excess of nineteen, the years of the club, for good measure and as a silver offering.

An entertaining program and refreshments will be provided for the pleasure of the club and guests.

Car Burned Up

A fine Cadillac car belonging to Mr. Larrabee of Orlando caught fire yesterday on the road between this city and DeLand, just east of the Monroe ferry and was entirely consumed before the flames could be controlled. There was something wrong with the feed pipe of the gasoline tank and a quantity of gasoline had flooded the carburetor and the pan beneath. This seemed to catch fire from the muffler or some other part of the car and almost before the occupants of the car were aware of the fact the lower part of the handsome car was ablaze. Another car came to the rescue but on account of scarcity of water and having no fire extinguishers the people could only watch the demolition of the car. Mr. Larrabee is a well known trucker and fruit grower of Orlando and has the sympathy of his many friends in his loss.

Purchased Karnatz Place

Prof. Harvey has purchased the Karnatz place on Sanford Heights and will occupy the same with his family. Mr. and Mrs. Karnatz will move closer to the business quarter, his business of managing the Imperial Theater making suburban dwelling inconvenient. Prof. Harvey's friends are congratulating him upon his purchase, for it means that he and his estimable wife will make Sanford their future home.

Odd Fellows Anniversary

Sanford Lodge of Odd Fellows invite the public to be present at their anniversary services to be held at the Star Theater next Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. Rev. Blocker and Rev. Sell of DeLand will deliver addresses and the occasion will prove interesting to Odd Fellows and those who are not of the Order. Every one is cordially invited to attend the services.

It is unique; has no complicated parts; it is not a spring paralyzer as are many devices; it does not throw extra strain on the rear axle but it makes your car ride easier and protects the mechanism of it; it will reduce the tire expense because the wheels are more constantly in contact with the ground, because the helical springs that compose the J. M. have been studied and applied in so scientific a manner that they give the twenty or thirty vibrations a second necessary for the greater speed of motor cars on rough roads.

Some of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain

Containing a loss estimated at $75,000, completely destroyed the old Clyde Dock No. 2, belonging to the St. Johns River Terminal Company, and situated at the foot of Washington street, Jacksonville, shortly after 5 o'clock this morning. Five large barges loaded with lumber and the property of the Jacksonville Forwarding Company, lying on the slip adjoining the dock, also were destroyed and burned to the water's edge. The fire floated for some distance down the St. Johns river. The contents of the dock building consists of $2,500 worth of cross-ties, the property of G. C. Ryland & Co., was totally destroyed. The opinion is that had the local harbor had ample fire protection from necessary fire tugs the loss resulting from the fire could have been greatly reduced and the danger to all the water front property have been eliminated.

which started Tuesday afternoon completely destroyed the large planing mill of the Sumner Lumber Company at Jacksonville, six miles north of Ocala. About 100,000 feet of lumber was reduced to shavings. The mill was operated by the Sumner Lumber Company of Ocala. The estimated at about $10,000 with insurance. The fire is supposed to have started from sparks falling into a pile of shavings.

Bigelow, one of Tampa's prominent citizens, died Sunday morning of a heart ailment. Mr. Bigelow was among the members of the city council and served in Tampa in 1884, before the first city hall had been built. When the old city system began running trains into Tampa he was appointed that city's first street agent. He was a native of New York, L. I.

Application for a bond issue of $50,000 for the building and operation of a municipal water plant and the purchase of a portion of a dock and resurrection pier is under considerable discussion in Fernandina and much interest is being manifested in the proposition. The next meeting of the city council will call for the issue and appoint a date therefor.

Tampa Drug Company will erect a new building at Washington and Florida avenue, in that city at a cost of $50,000.

A number of Tavares citizens met a few days ago to organize a bank. The bank was organized and the bank will be ready for business early in the fall.

Plans have been perfected for the construction of the Florida Funeral Directors and Embalmers' Association which will take place in Jacksonville on May 15th.

Material is on the ground for the improvements to be made on the ice plant at Santa Gorda and for the erection of additional cold storage facilities and the same will be pushed to completion.

Work on the Lafayette street bridge at Tampa is rapidly progressing. Additional work is being made to the force each day and now the number of men working on the construction is nearly 100.

Miss McLaughlin Hostess
A very pleasant informal, small party was entertained by Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin Tuesday evening. Games of bridge were played. The prize, a handsome vase, was won by Mrs. Ruth Butler, who made the high score among the ladies. The high score among the gentlemen was made by W. C. Hill, who won the prize, a pretty picture.

The interesting games of cards concluded a delicious fruit salad, and chocolate were served by the hostess whose guests were Mrs. J. H. Butt, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Butt, Mrs. A. B. Wallace, Miss Ruth W. C. Hill.

Seminole County Bill Passes House With Flying Colors

SANFORD DELEGATION JUBILANT

Work of Committee on County Division Surpasses Anything Before Attempted in Sanford

Tallahassee, Fla., April 24 (Special to the Herald). The Sanford people no doubt were excited when the joyful intelligence was flashed over the wires on Tuesday night that the Seminole bill had passed the House by the rousing majority of 59 to 5.

But had the good people of Sanford and our friends in the new county been present at the session of the House and been there awaiting the result, as the delegation was, it is doubtful if they could have held themselves in check and for awhile after the verdict we were afraid the Speaker would have to call us down. The Seminole bill came up at a night session and the Seminole braves had marshalled their forces for the last time before the battle. Those of us who had arrived on the afternoon train had only time enough to register at the hotel when we were called away to look up our friends and see if they still stood by us. It was an anxious time, for the Orlando people were on hand and had engaged several lobbyists and they could be discerned here and there in the corridors of the capital building doing some "tall talking." We immediately "scattered out," a phrase that will be famous in Sanford from now on and we saw every man in the House all over again and asked them how they stood on the proposition and the proposition looked good. Forrest Lake, like the good fighter that he is, never even had his supper and stayed on the job. Mr. Forster, who has been on the firing line for three weeks, Charlie Hand, A. T. Rossetter, Capt. B. F. Whitner and good old Douglass were on hand and while they did not seem to be worried they were glad to see the old guard return to the fray and we worked like the well oiled piece of machinery that the Sanford delegation has become. There was not much appetite displayed at the table that night and we rushed off to the state house early in the game. There was a feeling of suppressed excitement that pervaded the atmosphere and some of us walked the corridors just as some of us anxious fathers have walked the room with a sick baby at night and the case was parallel, for we were walking the floor with the baby Seminole. The Orlando fighters were there in force and they wore a confident smile. Bill after bill came up before the House and the suspense was becoming unbearable. Our many friends were on hand in numbers and we have plenty of them. They were watching the affair almost as anxiously as the Sanford delegation and the writer mentally drew a picture of the scene. It would look good on a canvass to be preserved in the new court house at Sanford. Finally Mr. Lake crossed the room and spoke to one of the reading clerks and all of us took a hitch in our belts. The clerk called "House Bill No. 4" and we stiffened like hounds in leash when the horns of the huntmen blow. Mr. Lake arose and asked that the bill be put upon its second reading. The House voted aye. This seemed easy. Mr. Lake arose again and moved that the rules be waived and the bill be put upon the third reading and final passage. Then arose the dissenting voices and before the clerk could start, Robinson of Orlando asked for the floor and received recognition and amid the silence read what purported to be a message from the people who resided in the new territory. He said that he had a petition of names that represented a majority of the people, but did not say that it was from the whole county instead of from the new territory. It was pitifully weak in every detail and was the last will and testament of the dying county of Orange. While not making any impression upon the House it acted with dynamic effect upon Forrest Lake, and Robinson had hardly seated himself when Lake arose and if any one thinks that Lake cannot talk they should have heard him in defense of Seminole. He swiftly but surely took up the important items, paid his respects to the people who were fighting county division, and himself tore to pieces the flimsy arguments advanced by Robinson and wound up with a touching appeal to the house that would have melted the brick streets of Sanford. When he finished the assemblage applauded him to the core and showed how the sympathy of the people stood. Then arose the majestic figure of Hon. Otis Parker of the new county of St. Lucie. He has a powerful voice and is an orator of the old school. He took the history of the East

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here The Readers Will Find Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

After an hour's conference at the White House last night President Wilson directed Secretary of State Bryan to proceed at once to Sacramento to cooperate with Governor Johnson and members of the California legislature in regard to framing a law regarding the ownership of land by aliens that would not conflict with the treaty obligations of the United States, particularly with Japan. Secretary Bryan will leave tonight and will be in San Francisco next Monday.

The fall of Scutari before Montenegrin armies has been heard of with extraordinary demonstrations of joy by foreign nations, especially Serbia and the foreign department has sent congratulations to the Montenegrin government. The first effect of the fall of Scutari will be the extension of the international blockade to Nazzo, but what the next step of the foreign powers in checking the government the movement is hard to tell. The view prevails in St. Petersburg that the coercion of Montenegro is not to be an easy matter. The Austro-Hungary minister has made definite proposals to the powers to make Montenegro a protectorate, but it is known that such proposals will be unwelcomed.

The lives of 100 miners, possibly 120, paid the toll shortly after midnight of a disastrous explosion in the Cincinnati mine of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Co., at Finleyville, Pa. Over three score of workmen in the mines made their escape with difficulty, crawling most of the time on their hands and knees through deadly gas fumes and over debris. Up to 11 at night seventy bodies of victims had been recovered. The bodies were located by rescuing squads of the United States bureau of mines, the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke Co. and of the Pittsburg Coal Co.

As the rescuers found bodies they were carried to the entries. None of the bodies, however, were brought to the open.

Sanford Celebrates

Sanford was the scene of the greatest celebration on Tuesday night that she has seen in many years. As the news came in by wire that the Florida Legislature had voted in favor of the forming of Seminole county the town turned out in full force, boys, men and dogs and fear the air with shouts and pistol shots until far into the night.

The old cannon at the city dock came in for its share, and at the seventh charge burst into a thousand pieces. The explosion was terrific. Pieces flew in every direction and how it happened that no one was hurt is a mystery that only Providence can explain. It is said that pieces were picked up as far away as French avenue, which is at least six blocks from the scene.

While the celebration was somewhat vigorous, it must be remembered that this result was after weeks of suspense, during which time the nerves of every man in Sanford were keyed up to the straining point, and the pent up enthusiasm burst forth in war whoops and cheers that lasted until well into the night.

There has been no question that has been so closely watched in many years as the outcome of the county division fight. The boys should be excused in this instance if they did disturb the slumbers of some of their elders.

Art for Schools
 An exhibition of pictures will be held April 23, 30, May 1 and 2, in this city for the purpose of raising funds for the purchase of pictures for the walls of the public schools.

This exhibition of pictures is one of more than ordinary interest. It consists of carbon photographs and engravings loaned by A. W. Elson & Co., of Boston, Mass. The collection is a large one and contains only the very best reproductions of the master pieces of art of different countries and periods. Nearly every gallery and country in the world could have to be visited to see the original pictures which are here brought together in one collection.

The collection comprises two hundred subjects representing all the principal schools of art and including many reproductions of sculpture, architect and important views from nature. Few collections have ever been brought together which so completely cover the history of art as this. An excellent catalogue has been prepared giving important facts bearing on the artists and their masterpieces. The catalog will be on sale at the exhibition hall.

No city or town should be indifferent to the culture and refinement of its people. It is part of the school work to locate those qualities in the children through whatever means it has at its disposal. The wholesome and refining influence of pictures of the right sort on the school walls is now generally recognized as one of the most valuable means of securing this end. The funds for purchasing such pictures, as well as an opportunity to make a selection from a very large number, is secured by means of the exhibition. The larger the attendance, the greater the number of pictures that can be secured for the schools.

We hope you will not fail to visit the exhibition, and believe you will be fully repaid for the slight trouble and expense in the pleasure and profit you will gain for yourself, besides helping on the work.

Remember the date and place. April 23, 30, May 1, 2, at the High School.

At the Baptist Church
 Dr. J. J. Blocker of Stetson University, Florida, will preach at the Baptist Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock and evening at 7:30 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended to every one to attend.

See me at — Woodland Park.

Engineers at B. of L. E.
 There are no more engineers in South Florida today than are needed to "pull" the regular trains. All the locomotive men who could possibly get off went to Jacksonville to attend the convention of the Brotherhood of the Locomotive Engineers in session there. Meanwhile the Atlantic Coast Line is using every available man to "pull" the phosphate "ext." this week out of Mulberry.
 As many of the main line "speed kings" as could, got off from the Sanford to Port Tampa run, and as many as could from the Charlotte Harbor Division. Main line flyers are moving just as swiftly as ever, but they are not being "pulled" by engineers who know every proverbial "pig trail" along the track.

Card of Thanks

Mr. J. M. Brown and T. J. Cochran desire to express their thanks to the people of Sanford for their kindness to them during the sickness and death of their daughter and wife, Mrs. T. J. Cochran. They also wish to thank the Methodists for their church. Kindnesses of this nature will never be forgotten by them.

At the Imperial

News comes to Sanford that the ever popular Frank L. Maddocks has an entirely new and latest repertoire of popular plays from the pens of the best known playwrights. Mr. Maddocks is expected to bring his company to Sanford some time soon.

Frank J. Powers, America's Foremost Entertainer, will be a very early attraction at the Imperial. Mr. Powers is at present appearing in Tampa where he is playing to capacity houses each night. His performance is of very high class and above the average of such shows and Mr. Powers has built a reputation for himself in America that none in his line can surpass.

Mr. Powers and his company will give the most satisfactory performance of any mesmerist that has appeared in Sanford. Those who go to see Mr. Powers to be intelligently instructed in the mysteries of mesmerism will find him a refined lecturer who can discourse in a lucid, understandable flow of non-technical terms and he will send his auditors away with a better understanding of his art, as well as a greater respect for his profession. There is fun, nothing but fun, in his presentation, so the young folks who have no care for the scientific features of the performance will find wholesome amusement of the quality that creates and appetite.

Don't forget that there is a new machine for projecting the pictures on to the screen at the Imperial and the program consists of six reels nightly until further notice.

Couldn't Walk!

"I used to be troubled with a weakness peculiar to women," writes Mrs. Anna Jones, of Kenny, Ill. "For nearly a year, I could not walk, without holding my sides. I tried several different doctors, but I grew worse. Finally, our druggist advised Cardui for my complaint. I was so thin, my weight was 115. Now, I weigh 163, and I am never sick. I ride horseback as good as ever. I am in fine health at 52 years."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving daily. Such earnest testimony from those who have tried it, surely proves the great value of this vegetable, tonic medicine, for women.

Cardui relieves women's sufferings, and builds weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a trial. It should help you, for it has helped a million others. It is made from pure, harmless, herb ingredients, which act promptly and surely on the womanly organs. It is a good tonic. Try it! Your druggist sells it.

THE "BABY", Born at Tallahassee, Florida, April 25, 1913

WE ARE GRATEFUL

The Herald on behalf of the people of the new county of Seminole wishes to thank the members of the Legislature...

Our stay in Tallahassee will never be forgotten. We will leave the hospitable people with regret. We will miss the fine body of men in both branches of the Legislature...

Therefore, knowing as we do the members and knowing the large amount of work they are doing and being entirely familiar with the many little troubles that beset them...

Having had troubles of our own our hearts are open to sympathy and are filled with praise for our treatment while at the state capital.

THE SANFORD CANNON

The old cannon is no more. An old Sanford landmark, one which has seen generations come and go, has taken a leading part in times of great celebration...

The old cannon, on account of its associated memories was dear to the heart of many of the older residents of Sanford. It has been used on great occasions of rejoicing and celebration...

But the "old order changeth" and at a fitting moment, during the celebration of the throwing off of the yoke of the political ring of Orlando the cannon was blown into a thousand pieces.

'Tis well. Let the dead bury their dead, and in the meantime The Herald will head the list to bring a new 12-inch cannon to Sanford and place it on the sea wall in 1915.

The Sanford contingent arrived in the capital Tuesday afternoon after a week end's stay at the Celery City. These boys were intent on having the new county created and were never asleep when it came to looking after the division fight.

The success of county division will mean an increased activity along all lines, and when the Sanford boosters who are in Tallahassee get back to work there will be something doing.

Now that it is all over we would rise to inquire if the Orlando papers really expected county division to fail. If they were really sincere in their deductions they are great political prophets like unto the Oracle of Delphi.

Every one in Sanford should attend the revival meetings at the Presbyterian church. Dr. Little gets at the heart of things in his lectures in a most convincing manner and every service is a lecture that is most interesting.

Senator Donegan and Representative Lake have received so much free advertising from the Orlando papers that they have about decided to make the race for Governor and U. S. Senator.

Every city in Florida, large and small is paving with brick, and before long all the country roads will be paved with brick. It is the only material that will stand the strenuous racket of the automobile.

It is safe to assume that no Orlando man will ever buy property in Tallahassee. The climate is much too cold for the Orlando bunch and they have gone home for their overcoats.

Summer will be a most busy time in Sanford. There will be more new houses built during the next six months than ever before in our city.

Sanford will meet the home coming delegation from Tallahassee with open arms if successful. If not successful with eggs.

Thursday Bridge Club Mrs. J. L. Hurt entertained the Thursday afternoon bridge club and special visitors at the ever popular game of bridge.

Three tables of bridge were played, one of which was a guest table. The club prize, a deck of cards, was won by Mrs. Deane Turner. Mrs. A. P. Connelly made the top score at the guest table, winning the guest prize, also a deck of cards.

When the games of cards were concluded a delicious Charlotte Rume was served and also food grape juice.

Mrs. Hurt's guests were Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mrs. F. J. Gonnans, Mrs. Deane Turner, Mrs. Kent Rometter, Mrs. Gertrude Keely, Mrs. Aylette Fitch, Mrs. A. P. Connelly, Mrs. C. C. Howard, Mrs. Robert Newman, Miss Annie Hawkins.

Sanford Crackers Enjoying Lull After the Storm

TALKS OF OLD TALLAHASSEE

Hills and Valleys are Great Surprise to the Sanford Delegation

Wednesday morning and we are waiting patiently for our good little county to be made. There is a lull now after the storm of Tuesday night and the boys who have been on the firing line and also the members of the lower house are glad to rest, the former because they are relieved at the success of the measure and the latter because they are tired of hearing about county division.

Several of us took a ride into the country yesterday under the chaperonage of Capt. B. F. Whitner and he pointed out the many sights to us. We visited his old home sight and the Randolph estate and many other beautiful locations that before the war were immense plantations, some of them containing thousands of acres, and in contemplation we could see the fine old southern mansions with the colonial columns, the negro quarters, the fields of cotton and corn and all the sights of antebellum days.

St. Agnes Guild Entertains
The young lady members of St. Agnes Guild of the Episcopal church were hostesses at a very entertaining "Senses Party" at the home of Mrs. T. A. Neal Tuesday evening, complimentary to the church choir and other friends.

The guests were entertained with a very interesting and enthusiastic contest of the five senses—seeing, tasting, smelling, hearing, feeling—which were tested by the display of a multiplicity of objects, directly appealing to each one of the senses in turn, and to be named. A limited time was given in each contest. The largest number of correct answers were given by Miss Eleanor Roberts and John Murrell, who each received a handsome picture.

Vocal duets and solos by Mrs. Pugh and Miss Mabel Bowler were much enjoyed.

A delicious Waldorf salad, sandwiches and coffee were served in the dining room which was beautifully decorated and fragrant with a profusion of American Beauty roses. The evening was delightfully spent, the young ladies of St. Agnes Guild proving themselves charming hostesses. They were graciously assisted in entertaining their guests by the president of the Guild, Mrs. T. A. Neal.

SCENES IN THE CAPITAL

ing the hills and valleys is most wonderful sight after a residence in the flat country, and at several junctures yesterday we had the driver stop and we sat entranced at the panorama spread out at our feet. There were several small bodies of water and one large lake to break the dry appearance of eternal hills and valleys and the view of the lake surrounded by the emerald green background would have made a fine painting. We had no kodak with us, but only a picture of this scene could ever half portray the beauties of the red clay country. It seems that a few weeks residence in Tallahassee works wonders on the South Florida cracker and many of them have gained in weight and look so well upon their return to Sanford as to cause favorable comment upon Tallahassee as a health resort.

We expect to leave this week if possible and we will leave the capital with regret. The press gang, Editor Smith of the Daily Democrat, Col. Tom Appleyard, the state printer, all the members of the state Legislature and attaches, state officers and the residents of Tallahassee have a warm spot in our hearts that will be enshrined there forever. Southern hospitality is dispensed at the state capital as nowhere else. The city is old in traditions, old in appearance and we would not have it otherwise. We are glad to note many changes in new buildings and brick streets, but while glad of the progress some of us are fossilized to the extent of wishing that Tallahassee would never wake up, for her charms lie in antiquity—a sleeping beauty. Tallahassee commercialized would not be Tallahassee at all and if they ever start to freshen up the old place and changing the face of nature in any way we shall vote for moving the capital to Jacksonville or some other seaport, where there will be nothing but noise and confusion all the time. Tallahassee is the place for the capital and the capital is the place for Tallahassee. Nothing ever happens here but the Legislature and the Woman's College and no one ever wants anything else to happen. No better location ever existed for the capital and here's hoping that Tallahassee will remain the capital and that Tallahassee will remain the same forever and aye.

59 FAVOR AND 5 OPPOSE

Coast counties in which he had resided and gave some pertinent facts regarding the benefits to be derived from county division and how the mother county and the offspring always prospered after division. He also paid his respects to the county officials who fatten upon the public and always oppose division because it means the curtailing of their fees, and that the members of the House should look at the matter from the people's point of view, from the progressive point of view, from the end of the county that had always shown that they could take care of themselves and not only did he stand for county division in this instance but in every instance where the new county could show the proper credentials and prove large enough to set up housekeeping for themselves. When he concluded he was roundly applauded and the Sanford delegation had to go into the corridor and hug each other. Then came the roll call and how anxiously we watched our friends as they met our expectations and to a man answered according to their judgment of the case. The final roll call showed that fifty-nine voted aye. Five voted nay. We didn't wait to see any more of the proceedings. We do not know whether Dr. Lake took the baby from the improvised cradle and kissed it or not. But the Sanford boys broke for the door and scattered out sure enough for the telegraph office, for we knew that anxious hearts were waiting to hear that we had struck the Orlando shackles from our limbs and not only was the baby born but new hope and great hope had been born in Seminole county that night. As we chased up the street like a lot of school boys with Forster—the staid and sedate Forster—in the lead we yelled with a force and vim that would have shamed our prototypes—the Seminole braves—and no Seminole braves ever gave such war hoops or chanted the song of victory as did that wild mob of Sanford people. The bunch lined up at the telegraph and they were so excited that none of them could write an intelligent wire and finally they told one of the operators to wire Huff at Sanford to give the news first hand and take off the sharp edges of anxiety of the boys at home. The writer fixed a wire for Mr. Forster, and he states this to demonstrate his state of mind with victory in sight. Bless Forster, he has regained his youth and how he has worked and studied and shaped the ends and worried when we were keeping the boys in good humor.

By this time the house had adjourned and filled the streets, and we adjourned also, and waiving the rules surrounded the representatives and the senators, and there was some handshaking sure enough. The lobby of the Leon soon filled and strange to say we all felt so good that we forgot to celebrate and just sat and held hands like a lot of moon-struck lovers and we felt in the same mood. Maybe we have often sat upon other porches in the moonlight and thought we were in Paradise, and we would not desecrate those holy thoughts and fond recollections with similitudes, but honestly Tuesday night the moonlight never seemed finer and some of us never had such a rush of feelings steal over us, not even in our wooing days. We owe a debt of gratitude to our good friends in the Legislature that we can never repay. Our bill was a local one in a measure and yet in county division many a local one has been eliminated and a county division bill is in the limelight and is fought every step where there is opposition and Seminole county had opposition, regard it as you may. The Sanford delegation takes the credit of keeping the matter fresh in the minds of the legislators and to this fact may be laid the cornerstone of our success. The editor of The Herald takes no credit to himself and will not give credit to any individual. If he could as a disinterested party attempt to honor the men who have put it over he would never write finis on the articles but the division would become an ever-green and bloom forever. No one in the fight wants the credit. No one who has been in Tallahassee ever expects to relate what he individually has done to make possible county division, for the very good reason that the bunch up here have worked as a unit under Forster and Lake and all personal thoughts have been buried. So much has this spirit been manifested in our work that even now we ask Mr. Forster if we can go to bed or to dinner or to the capital. This is really the true secret of our success and God grant that it shall be perpetuated in the new county of Seminole and in Sanford. The spirit of "stick together" that has been germinated here would build cities in the desert, would conquer armies, would even bulk head Lake Monroe and build a tourist hotel, difficult as these problems have always been in Sanford. The editor of The Herald has prayed that he would see to it that when our people would acquire this spirit. He has labored for it. He has cast all personal motives aside in every question, until at times it would seem that he had no opinions on any question. He has besought the people early and late to get together and do things and his prayers were answered in this county division matter. Nothing could have ever brought the people together as one man like the division. It was the same spirit that dominated our forefathers when they took up their muskets in the days of 'seventy-six and drove the invading armies from their shores. It is the same spirit that has lain dormant in the bosoms of the big hearted men of Sanford. They had the spark but it had never been struck and apathy had killed the germ for a time. Thus, today we can rejoice not alone in the matter of a new county but also in the fact that a new spirit was born on the night that Baby Seminole came into the world.

The Florida Legislature were ignorant of the fact last night that they were doing mankind in general a good turn. They supposed that division was being made, but in reality they created a city on the banks of the St. Johns. They gave us an impetus that will never be retarded until we have a real city of twenty thousand souls or more. A city that will never be retarded at any stage because we have acquired the spirit that goes with success—the spirit that comes to the victor after he has conquered the oppressor and stands forth resplendent in all his strong, young manhood.

The bill now comes to the Senate, and even before you read these last lines the wires ought to be singing the lullaby songs of the new baby and regarding the fact that the bill has passed the Senate and been signed by the Governor.

The delegation will get home about Friday or Saturday, and while we have learned to love old Tallahassee that has been good to us in our time of need while we hate to leave the friends in both houses that will always be classed among our dearest friends—while we hate to leave the battle field as the soldier hates to lay down his arms to seek the peaceful pursuits of business—we are certainly glad that a few days more will put the Governor's seal upon the bill and that we can bring the precious child with us and hand it to Mayor Spencer at the station.

THE LEGISLATIVE GRIND

Law Makers At Tallahassee And Their Duties - Details Of Legislative Nature By Special Correspondent

The much celebrated Stokes "Mental Anguish" bill, directed at the telegraph companies, formed the central attraction in the Senate Wednesday, following its unanimous passage in the House, and there were evidences that much good work has been done by the telegraph companies in the last few days. The debate was stubborn and will be continued later.

XXXXXX
A little bill of less than a page in length, by Mr. Floyd, of Franklin, proposing the appropriation of ten thousand dollars for the purpose of erecting at Key West a monument to Henry M. Flagler "in part payment" for his great work for Florida, threw the House Tuesday morning into an earnest but orderly debate, such as would cause all the press correspondents in the gallery to move forward toward the rail and take notes. It was indeed a spectacular debate.

XXXXXX
Some notable visitors arrived in Tallahassee Tuesday morning, the first mentioned being former Gov. Albert Jennings, then comes Col. P. A. Vans Agnew, from Kissimmee, and H. G. Bartlett, of Jacksonville. Mr. Jennings is interested in drainage matters and is paying close attention to legislation now pending. The Ex-Governor is one of the most distinguished visitors always welcome to the capital and Col. P. A. Vans Agnew is not far behind. The latter gentleman is one of the big attorneys of the state having his offices in Kissimmee, where he directs a large number of institutions having to do with the welfare of the state at large. H. G. Bartlett is interested in a banking house at Jacksonville, and is rapidly acquiring a reputation for business acumen, coming to Florida from Toledo, O., where he was connected with one of the largest banking houses in that progressive city.

XXXXXX
Senator Depew, of New York, arrived in Tallahassee Tuesday after a few days' stay at his home. The senator is expected to remain in Tallahassee in order to look after large business interests. The member from Osceola and Orange is gaining ground each day, being felicitated on his pleasing manner and persuasive style.

XXXXXX
Representative Harry Goldstein, of Nassau, has introduced and is deeply interested in the passage of a bill providing for the placing of fire escapes on any building of more than two stories in height, believing that enforcement of such a law will result in great saving of life from fires in future years.

Last night for the first time since the administration of Gov. Broward the gubernatorial mansion at Tallahassee witnessed the Governor in the receiving line with his wife. His excellency and Mrs. Park Trammell gave the first of their official receptions for the legislators and their families and friends and the general public.

Both houses of the Legislature were in receipt of the following invitation on Saturday last:

"Mrs. Trammell and myself will give on Thursday evening, April 24, from 8:30 p. m. to 11 p. m. a public reception at the Governor's home, in honor of the legislators and their families. All members of the legislature and their families and friends, all connected with the legislature and the public generally are most cordially invited.

The Library Day benefit and birthday party given by the Wednesday Club in celebration of its nineteenth years, at the home of Mrs. S. O. Chase, Wednesday afternoon was both a pleasant social occasion and gratifying success in every way.

Mrs. George L. Maris, president of the Wednesday Club presided in her usual dignified, gracious manner, having in charge also the program, which was most delightfully rendered.

The program committee deserves the appreciation of the club and guests, for the splendid arrangement of their fine program, the excellent selections which were so charmingly rendered by each individual taking part, and contributing so much to the pleasure of the audience.

Mrs. Cruse Barnes presided at one end of the table in the dining room, and dished the delicious apricot ice which was served with cake by Misses Melf Whitner and Mabel Bowler in Mexican costume. Miss Charlotte Keelor presided over the large dish of hot "tamales" at the other end of the table, which she served at five cents each. Mrs. B. F. Whitner also assisted in serving the refreshments.

A very satisfactory sum of money was realized for the benefit of the Library.

The following is the program which was thoroughly appreciated, enjoyed, enthusiastically received and unstintingly praised by the guests at the pleasant birthday party at which the Wednesday Club were hostesses.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here The Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

A long threatened break in the main line Mississippi river levees along the west bank in Upper Louisiana came at an early hour this morning when the Lake St. John levee twelve miles to the north of Ferriday, La., went out, turning the flood waters loose upon the fine farming lands and villages of lower Tensas and Concordia parishes. Approximately twenty thousand persons will be driven from their homes as a result of this crevasse, which will flood a territory embracing about 900 square miles. The property damage will total several thousand dollars.

Further evidence of the aggressiveness of the northern rebels was given today when several hundreds of them well armed and mounted, captured the town of Vanegas, on the National railroad in the state of San Luis Potosi. They cut the railroad to the north and then moved over to Matehuala, a mining and smelting center. Dozens of engagements have occurred during the last week in various parts of the republic.

In deference to Secretary of State Bryan, who is due in Sacramento, California tomorrow to confer with Governor Johnson and the Legislature on the proposed anti-alien land laws, it has been decided to make no plans for the conference until Mr. Bryan has signified the purpose of his visit. Governor Johnson met this afternoon with Attorney General Webb and a dozen of the administration leaders for a general discussion of the situation with regard to Secretary Bryan's visit. But no course of action was proposed. Governor Johnson afterwards said that everything hinged on the desires of the state's visitor.

This is considered the fatal date in the Balkan problem in which new and difficult complications have arisen. The ambassadorial conference is to decide whether the European concern shall influence Montenegro or whether Australia shall be left alone to compel the evacuation of Scutari.

Meeting Commercial Club

The Commercial Club will hold a most interesting meeting next Friday night in the city hall. The meeting is called for the purpose of hearing the report of the committee on county division and other matters of importance will come before them. This is the first meeting of importance held for several weeks and a large attendance is expected.

What Good Is It?

Some persons ask, "What good is it?" This question with the same propriety might be propounded concerning the nature of the discovery of the North Pole. When steam was seen escaping from the tea-kettle, "What good is it?" would have been a sensible inquiry. When Franklin wrestled lightning from the skies and stopped it by a key the people might have credulously smiled as they asked, "What good is it?" He could not have answered, for children ask questions, philosophers cannot answer. What is Hypnotism? How did Svergallo overcome "Trilby"? What power is there in a person's eye that causes another to fall asleep under its gaze? How long does this influence last. Why is it that some people possess it and others do not. Why cannot everyone be hypnotized? All of these are questions that the public take great interest in and all of them are answered by the Great Powers who are to appear at the Opera House next week, with the largest Hypnotic Comedy Company now on the road.

Odd Fellows Anniversary

On account of lack of space the article relating to the Odd Fellows anniversary last Sunday has been crowded out of this issue but will appear in Friday's paper.

SEMINOLE COUNTY IS CREATED

Governor Trammell Signed The Bill Last Friday Morning

Gigantic Parade and Cheering Thousands Greet The Seminole Warriors Returning From Tallahassee.

Seminole county is a fact! Any one alighting from the train Saturday afternoon would have thought so, from the multitude that awaited the warriors returning from Tallahassee with the scalps of the Orlando slugs dangling from their belts.

The bill creating Seminole county passed the Senate last Thursday without a dissenting vote, Senator Donegan waiving the rules and his fellow Senators granting him the usual courtesy on local bills. Almost before the Sanford delegation was aware of the fact the Senate had accomplished the next step in division and then came the enrolling and engrossing and all the other matters so essential at the capital in making bills into laws. Through the good work of Forrest Lake the work was done by working overtime and by nine o'clock Friday morning the bill was ready for the signature of the Governor. First, though it was necessary for Speaker Ferris and President Drain respectively to sign it. Mr. Lake purchased three fine fountain pens, one for the signature of the Speaker, one for the signature of the President of the Senate and one for the Governor. The Speaker called first and rapping for order said the magic words, "I am now signing the bill making the county of Seminole," and the loud clapping of hands attested to the popularity of the movement. In the Senate the act was accomplished in silence, although the Sanford delegation were upon the point of bursting forth.

Then came the march to the Governor's office, and here after a few minutes delay Governor Trammell signed the bill and after a cordial handshake we thanked him and made our way to the telegraph office to wire the folks at home. We had worried and labored so long and faithfully that we were a trifle tired and perhaps not so enthusiastic as formerly and were also intent upon getting home and it was rather a quiet crowd that bade the many friends goodbye. Mr. Thrasher had printed 500 badges and several hat bands for the homeward march and all the representatives were presented one by Mr. Lake and also the senators and the capital was peopled by Seminole men that day as we started down the corkscrew turn to the station. We prevailed upon Lake and Donegan to accompany us but the next morning in Jacksonville Senator Donegan found that he had several important business matters that would not permit his absence from the city and this was a great disappointment to all of us, for could the Senator have accompanied us home and received the honors accorded the delegation and Mr. Lake it would have demonstrated the love for him held by the people of Sanford.

There must have been several thousand people at the station to meet the conquering heroes and they were showered with flowers and best wishes and when they were able to break away from the crowd and climb into the cars a most wonderful procession greeted their eyes. Almost a hundred autos and carriages and wagons as floats lined the street and headed by the Sanford Military band the procession started down Ninth street. There were many Senators and one of Indian Seminole maidens and several cars had small Seminoles in the back. All along the way yelled as no real Indian could do and altogether it was an occasion never to be forgotten and the tired and dusty warriors smiled their appreciation and answered the cheery greetings.

The procession came down First street to Palmetto and thence to the Sanford House where a three course turkey dinner awaited them, and where before they were allowed to eat Representative Lake and Chairman F. P. Forster were introduced by Mayor Spencer and forced to give a brief account of how it happened. Both gentlemen were cheered to the echo and were almost hustled off the steps by their thousands of admiring friends.

At the luncheon merry jest and lively tales were told by those who had participated in the Tallahassee campaign and those who had stayed at home and a pleasant hour was spent. Their only regret was the absence of Senator Donegan.

Those in attendance at the banquet were Hon. Forrest Lake, F. P. Forster, D. L. Thrasher, Charles Hand, A. T. Rosetter, C. R. Walker, S. C. Dixon and W. R. Healey of Longwood; E. T. Woodruff, W. J. Hill, R. J. Holly, F. W. Mahoney, S. Runge, T. J. Miller, L. P. McCuller, Thomas Emmett Wilson, Mayor Spencer, Geo. H. Fernald, A. E. Fatjo, B. G. Smith and E. A. Douglass and wife of Oviedo, H. C. Dubose, A. P. Connelly, H. McLaughlin, G. F. Smith, N. H. Garner, W. F. Shelley, M. F. Robinson, L. R. Phillips and Thomas K. Bates.

After the luncheon the warriors and their friends "scattered" to their homes and the streets were alive with busy groups discussing the event and the crowds were augmented by many shoppers from the country who came in to hear the news.

Many were disappointed that no public speaking was to be indulged in later in the evening, but those who were in Tallahassee and Mr. Lake were already talked to death and much preferring a good evening.

There was never such a home coming for there has never been such an occasion for rejoicing. The affair was impromptu and arranged on very short notice and on Saturday the busiest day of the week, but it was a joyous occasion for the people of Sanford, and for the boys who had accomplished so much in such an able manner and it demonstrated that the Sanford people are the biggest hearted, most generous and best people on earth. The celebration on Saturday was but the preliminary. About the Fourth of July the people of Seminole county will celebrate as only these big hearted people know how and then all our friends of the Legislature from Governor Trammell down will be invited to come to Sanford and see the baby.

Verily Sanford has come into her own!

SANFORD'S PAPER PLANT

Big Pacific Company Invests Large Amount of Capital Here

An industry of state wide importance to Florida will be that of the Crown Columbia Paper Company which is preparing to open up the greatest and only plant of its kind in the state with manufacturing headquarters at Sanford with Mr. George D. Bishop, formerly superintendent of the company's plant at Los Angeles, Cal., as general manager. The Crown Columbia Paper Company is a San Francisco corporation with a capital stock of $15,000,000. It operates manufacturing, finishing and distributing plants in San Francisco, Los Angeles, Oregon City and Portland, Ore., Camas, Wash., and the new plant at Sanford.

The company will manufacture from its own raw materials and place on the market in a ready for use condition, wraps for citrus fruits, wraps for vegetables and melons and wraps for deciduous fruits. Its manufacturing facilities at Sanford will be sufficient to turn out 5,000,000 wraps in eight hours, and such steps have been taken as will necessitate the running of the plant at its full capacity each working day in the year. Long time contracts have been closed with the Florida Citrus Exchange, Chase & Co., and many other consumers and dealers throughout the state, which guarantees the active cooperation of the complete plant throughout all seasons of the year.

The plant will be equipped with three rotary cylinder presses for printing the wraps, latest design of power cutter, bundling machines and counting apparatus, stereotyping plant and such other appliances as will conduce to the rapid and prompt handling of business. The power of the plant will be of the electric type and this will be supplemented with an auxiliary gas plant to be used in emergency cases. Expert mechanics will have charge of the various departments and the resources of the local plant will be so poised that a solid carload of printed wraps with special designs can be sent forward within forty-eight hours after the receipt of the order.

The business of the company at this point will approximate $20,000 per annum and the quantity of paper used will amount to 2,400,000 pounds per year. The paper will be received here from the Pacific coast mills in train loads, it being put up in rolls, ready to go to the presses for printing and cutting. The plant will be in operation by the first day of June and will employ a large force of experts in this particular line.

Mr. George D. Bishop, who will have the entire management of this plant, is a young man who has grown up in the industry in the plants of the company out west and is familiar with the various lines of endeavor necessary to the successful operation of the plant. He has been warmly welcomed to the community.—Times-Union.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain

Word reached this city shortly after ten o'clock this morning of the death by suicide of T. T. Tiner of Pine Castle. Mr. Tiner was fifty-five years old, and was one of the prominent citizens of the lower county and was well known in Orlando. He is reported to have been depressed for several days, and was several times heard to talk about the effect of laudanum producing a painless death.—Orlando Star.

What was termed "dirty Republicanism" was scored in the House this morning. It had reference to the closing of the Pensacola navy yards by the recent Republican administration and came up in a debate over the resolution to send Speaker Farris of the House to Pensacola on May 6 to take part in the welcome to be accorded Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels. The House had last week decided to go in a body, also the senate, both branches accepting the invitation sent.

Preparations are being made in Jacksonville for the erection of an armory for the battalion of the 1st Florida Infantry that city. The city attorney has prepared the papers necessary to the carrying out of the project.

The Tribune of Bunnell, St. Johns county, announces that there will soon be a canning factory opened in that town. A. C. Phillips, formerly of Atlanta, has lately purchased twenty-five acres of land there and will make his home upon it. He will plant the entire tract in tomatoes and will build a canning plant for the purpose of taking care of his own crop, as well as those of any other growers who may desire their vegetables canned.

The Florida Military Academy, heretofore located at Green Cove Springs, will be moved to Jacksonville just as soon as the buildings necessary to house it can be completed. The contract has been let to W. T. Hadlow Company and work has already been commenced. The buildings are to be located on Edgewood avenue, in Murray Hill Heights.

Kissimmee, April 27. Atlantic Coast Line train No. 80 from Tampa to Jacksonville ran into a burning trestle at Boggy creek five miles north of here at one two o'clock today. The engine remained in the track but the tender, mail, baggage and two day coaches were ditched. None was hurt. Trains 89, 85, 83 were routed by Orlando to Apopka over the Seaboard to Kissimmee over Midland. A wrecker is on the scene and will possibly clear it by this morning.

Revival Services at Presbyterian church

The revival services at the Presbyterian church are attracting the attention of the people of Sanford this week. Dr. Little of Atlanta who has been in charge of the meetings has endeared himself to the people by his earnest solicitations and excellent lectures. Last Sunday afternoon he talked to the children and all of them love him for his gentle manner in leading the lambs to the Saviour. This afternoon he will again talk to the children. Tonight the services will start at 7:30 and every morning service are held at 10 o'clock, lasting one hour, thus giving even the busy housekeepers and business men an opportunity of hearing this wonderful man of God. Dr. Little is forced to leave Sanford this week and Thursday night will be his last night here. If there are any who have not attended these revivals they should take advantage of the few remaining days and attend morning and evening services. Dr. Little is one of the most convincing speakers that has ever been heard in Sanford and his many distinct traits of character and earnest manner have endeared him to the people of this city and his departure will be regretted by the many who have been greatly benefited by his teachings.
