CRIME GROWTH TIRS SOLONS TO TAKE STEPS

House Prepares To Enact Stringent Bill Directed At Alien Gunmen, Racketeers

Chicago Shooting Immediate Cause

Measure Provides For Deporting Of Alien Violators Of Laws

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (INS)— Aroused by the nationwide increase in crime and particularly shocked by the Chicago gangland massacre, the House prepared today to pass a stringent bill under which alien gunmen, racketeers and big bootleggers could be deported.

Foes of the present restrictive immigration policy have joined with backers of the deportation bill in support of provisions aimed at alien criminals, although there is division on some features of the measure. A final vote on the measure was assured today.

One amendment prepared by the committee since the shooting of seven gangsters in Chicago was adopted is that any alien found guilty of carrying concealed weapons or bombs and sentenced to six months imprisonment, or convicted twice but sentenced for a good time, would be deported.

A fight was in prospect over an amendment offered today by Rep. Traver (D) of Georgia and supported by extreme drys. This provides for the deportation "of any alien who hereafter violates or conspires to violate any statute of the United States forbidding the sale of intoxicating liquor."

"There is a chance to provide stringent enforcement of the Eighteenth Amendment and the Prohibition Act," said Traver. The amendment will be opposed by Rep. Johnson (R) of Washington, chairman of the committee, and other members.

Rep. Sabath (D) of Illinois, who has opposed restricted immigration, joined in the fight against the measure by proposing an amendment so stringent that the committee also rejected it. Under the Sabath amendment any alien twice convicted of vagrancy would be deported if at the time of arrest he was carrying concealed weapons.

Among the stringent features of the Johnson bill are: Removal of the requirement that deportation be based upon a crime involving moral turpitude, which prevents deportation for bootlegging or similar crimes. Makes subject to deportation any alien who violates the Harrison anti-narcotics law. Any alien who aids another alien to enter the country unlawfully. Any alien who is convicted of vice and sentenced to separate terms of a year or more in prison who is convicted of several minor crimes which total two years or more sentence.

Boating Party Gets Rescued By Plane After Engine Stops

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Feb. 16 (INS)— Seven vacationers from Cleveland, Ohio, today enjoyed the "thrill of a lifetime" following their "rescue by air" from the disabled yacht Caliph of Miami.

The rescue was effected by Harry Rogers, superintendent of the Miami-Nassau division of the Pan-American Airways, Inc., who himself, last Wednesday, was the object of a frantic search because of a heart attack.

Colonel Charles Lindbergh, returning from Nassau, Rogers was over the yacht. Noticing his distress flag, he passed alongside the Caliph, which is owned by Robert J. Lammerson, of New York, retired ocean engineer.

Rogers took the seven passengers into his plane. The transfer was effected by means of a small boat in rather rough water.

The rescued passengers, who were in no immediate danger, were brought here and landed shortly after five o'clock yesterday afternoon. They are Mr. and Mrs. James M. S. Bur and son; L. C. England, James De Bur and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cullin.

Lindbergh Overdue At His Destination

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16 (INS)— Charles A. Lindbergh was overdue at 11:45 at Field, this afternoon, en route from Charleston, S. C., where he was forced down and compelled to spend last night because of bad weather. Lindbergh left Charleston, N. Y., Wed., this morning, at 6:45 a.m. and under ordinary circumstances should have been in Sikorsky plane down in Bok Choy Field in about five hours. The weather, however, was foggy and murky, with rain to the south, which would not allow up his progress. Officers at the field expressed the opinion that Lindbergh may be forced to land some time very soon, and that because of the fog he may turn off his course.

AUTO SHOW ENDS WITH EXHIBITORS WELL SATISFIED

Two Thousand Visit Display Last Day; Public Interest Keen

SANFORD'S two-day automobile exhibition came to a close last night after 2,000 persons had visited the Hotel Forest Lake during the day to see the second annual exhibition arranged under the auspices of the Automobile Dealers Association.

The event was declared a complete success, the distributors being unanimous in the belief that the show eclipsed last year's affair by a good margin. No keen was public interest in the displays, the dealers were said to have already informally discussed plans for next winter's show, which date fair to be conducted on a more pretentious scale.

Altogether more than 5,000 persons were entertained as guests of the participating dealers, 3,000 of the number passing through the doors on the first day. Thirty machines were shown by 10 dealers, this display being supplemented by an exhibition of radios and automobile accessories. The cars were placed in the lobby, ball room and veranda, while the special exhibits were located in the lounge room.

LEWISTON, Fla., Feb. 16 (INS)— President-elect Herbert Hoover, on tour of the Everglades, heard Governor Carlton, his cabinet and other state leaders last night roundly applaud the idea that the government pay the whole cost of reclamation and at the same banquet attended to some "cold turkey" talk from a member of the inspection party who will have much to do with the ultimate success or failure of their efforts.

The member was Rep. Frank R. Reid (R) of Illinois, chairman of the huge flood control committee.

Reid followed Major General Edgar Baldwin, chief of army engineers, as a speaker at the Hoover's banquet. Baldwin had expressed the opinion the government should not pay more than $4,000,000 of the total cost of work.

The speaker, however, which was entered into the records of the inspection party, was that the government was not to be blamed for the failure of the project.

But not about our son.

Think this: There was no need

For such a lack of Youth

We burned our lives,

We were the ones more,

We were from want of food,

From world-wide hate of truth,

And souls in graves.

Let the dead bury their dead;

Let the great gravely go;

Life had not health to club;

It loved no strength that saves;

Furnish our million graves;

But give us lighter bread;

Unite hearts and head;

Set-prisoned angels free.

Mr. Ford says that the way to success is hard work and plenty of it. How does he explain the number of failing business men? We believe, utterly impossible for him who knows the correct way to do things. He has throughout the state that he has executive tasks before him. Let's leave his task to him.

It is, of course, well for a person to use words of one syllable wherever possible, and it certainly avoids little words. It would seem to justify the assertion that there are still some words left of an inch or two in length.
