Sharon will preside over the Court before which a record number of boys are expected to appear.

Announcement was made today that when the county registration books were closed for the year on Saturday afternoon, only 53 new names had been added to the books which contain the names of Sanford persons. Not all of the books had been reported from around the county today, so no accurate report on the total number of new voters could be ascertained. Belief was expressed, however, that fully another 50 names will be added around the county. In that event, the total number of registered names should be in excess of 5000 again.

NORTH CAROLINA UPSETS GEORGIA—TULANE WINS

The North Carolina Tarheels gave the football experts a big surprise by trimming the University of Georgia Bulldogs, considered one of the South's strongest teams, 14 to 0, in a stiff battle at Athens. In the picture above Charlie Shaffer, one of the stars of the game, is shown tearing around right end for a 10-yard gain for the Tarheels. Below Monk Simons, brilliant Tulane halfback, is shown ripping off an eight-yard gain against the University of Florida in the first quarter of the game played at Gainesville. Tulane won 28 to 12 after a hard fight. (Associated Press Photos)

The building committee includes W. J. Toll, Howard Long, W. C. Kennedy, E. B. Randall, W. C. Hill, R. A. Newman, P. R. Stanley, G. U. Stuart and Al Lee.

Around 1:00 o'clock this afternoon Mayor W. A. Leffler gave official notice that he had changed his mind about not running for the City Commission again by appearing at the City Hall to qualify for re-election for a three year term which begins on Jan. 1, 1935. He is the first person to qualify for the office, only one which is open this year. If no one else qualifies by 8:00 o'clock on Wednesday night, Mayor Leffler will be unopposed for office, for Wednesday is the last day in which persons may qualify. In that event, a primary will be held as a matter of form on Nov. 6, but the general election will be avoided, and City Clerk F. S. Lamson will cast a single ballot in favor of Mayor Leffler and he will be elected officially.

Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce officials today stated that everything is in readiness for the most unique party of the year, scheduled for the Community House in that town tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock, when all of the recently defeated political candidates are to be feted. Speeches will be the principal feature of the evening. Speakers will be: George G. Herring, proponent, and R. L. Glenn, opponent, of the Homestead Exemption Amendment; E. H. Kilbee, proponent, and H. D. Durant, opponent, of a sales tax, and Harry M. Papworth, Chamber of Commerce president who will bring greetings from the Sanford organization. Defeated candidates who are expected to attend include: G. W. Spencer, Gordon Barnett, W. E. Malleon, A. D. Jarrell, E. H. Kilbee, W. D. Holdsworth, L. P. Hagan, J. E. Jackson, and J. E. Preston.

Fans, players, and sports writers alike are agreed that among the outstanding performances at Florida Field in Gainesville Saturday afternoon when Tulane and Florida met in a national football game, was that turned in by George Moya, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Moya of this city. Young Moya, a senior on the squad, earned the first string end berth with a whale of a showing against V. P. I. just a week ago, Saturday he demonstrated before 15,000 fans limits required by the balance of payments.

The national government's decision (followed receipt of the American reply to a recent note from China pleading for United States co-operation in maintaining silver prices and halting the drain of silver from China.
The United States answer, offering a measure of co-operation but pointing out the United States silver program was deemed mandatory by President Roosevelt, failed to satisfy the Chinese. Their diminished silver reserves were facing a huge new reduction during the next 48 hours. Exports of silver had reached ever-increasing amounts with higher prices in recent days.

HERE WEDNESDAY

Circus impresarios look far and wide each year for some new and astounding feature for their shows. Countries are accorded, agents travel far to bring to the American circus loving public something new, something different, but they have yet to find one that will replace the performing elephants. The good natured big fellows are still one of the outstanding features in every big circus. The above picture shows a part of the herd of performing giants of the jungle which are among the many features with Downie Bros. Circus and will be here Wednesday when the show comes for its two performance engagements. With Miss Ellis Harrier, their trainer, these goliaths from India perform some intricate routines in the circus ring.

that he is there to stay. A power on the defense and seldom taken out of the play by the hunky Tulane players, Moya was spectacular on the offense. He not only was on the receiving end of short E. passes that led to Florida's first score, but he made a difficult catch of a 24 yard pass to gallop 40 yards for the second touchdown in one of the greatest plays of the game. He was slightly injured during the tilt, but he is expected to be among the starters at Tampa next Saturday against North Carolina state.

Territory that now constitutes the state of Tennessee was ceded to the United States government by North Carolina in 1796.

A New Slant

Retired public officials often show more common horse sense after they have retired from office than before. Whether it is because they are not free to express their honest convictions while employed by the government...

General Hugh Johnson, who crammed the Blue Eagle down the public's throat, thought it was a fine thing while he ruled the roost to cut working hours from an average of 48 a week to 35. But now that he is out, he says a 30-hour week would bring on "a depression that'll turn your hair gray."

Evidently General Johnson has changed his mind about a lot of things since he retired from NRA. Now he says "I don't believe a work week reduction by statute will stick a Supreme Court test."

But the General has some pretty good arguments against the 30-hour week. He says, "The reduction of hours, except in some industries, is not economically sound and a statute wouldn't make it so."

The cause of the trouble in the heavy industries is the sluggish re-investment of money. You can't reduce the work hours unless the industries will agree. Industries should absorb their 1929 percentage of workers—that was the basis of NRA.

"Cutting the work week to 30 hours would increase costs to the consumer 23 1-3 percent. If you increase costs 30 percent you'll stagnate consumption and get a depression that'll make your hair turn gray."

If you increase costs to the consumer, you are sure to decrease production, unless incomes manage somehow to keep pace. If you decrease production, you increase unemployment... which is just what the country doesn't need at this time.

A Successful Campaign

Recent actions in Florida courts seem to have destroyed permanently the preferred position among gambling devices which slot machines have enjoyed for many years. Last Friday Judge Millard Smith denied an injunction seeking to restrain Sheriff McClelland from seizing slot machines and asking that the court hold such machines not to be gambling devices.

As a result of these decisions there should be no question in the future as to the legality of slot machines and their use and no difficulty on the part of law enforcement officers in preventing their appearance in public places. Slot machines have already disappeared in Seminole County and, we believe, in most other Florida counties as a result of the campaign started by Gov. Sholtz, carried out by scores of local officers, and supported by the courts.

All right thinking citizens will rejoice that this particular gambling menace has been removed from our midst. Other forms of gambling to a more or less extent may perhaps continue to flourish among those who have the habit, but the slot machines have been an especially difficult problem in the past, appealing as they do largely to children and the poorer classes who can ill afford to lose the nickels with which they play the machines.

To Sheriff McClelland and State's Attorney Boyle go the highest praise and commendation for their efficient work in combatting this evil. They have made enemies among the few who have profited from these machines, but the great majority who realize the harm which is done to a community when the gambling instinct is cultivated as it has been by these "one arm bandits," will congratulate them for their successful campaign.

It is to be hoped that the good work will not stop here. It should be the aim of our public officials, supported by all law abiding citizens, to do away with the "bolita" rackets, punchboards, lotteries and other forms of gambling, which only filch the pockets of those who have so little to lose, but who always hope that sometime they will make a killing. With nearly one-third of our people on Federal Relief, and most of the rest of them not far from it, there is no place in this county for gambling.

In honor of the birthday of their little daughter, Elisabeth, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Whitner entertained with a beautiful birthday party Monday afternoon. CHURCH LOYALTY

By F. E. GATCHEL

Why should Christians go to church?

(1) Because Jesus was a regular attendant at the services of the Temple, or Synagogue. Christians, the followers of Christ, should also regularly turn their footsteps towards the House of God.

(2) Because the Bible, which is the Word of God, commands that Christians should not forsake the assembling of themselves together. A Christian who deliberately fails to go to church disregards his Guide Book and is in danger of losing his way.

(3) Because the Christian needs the church. Man is a social creature. He was not made to live alone. To live the fullest life he needs to mingle with his brothers in Christ, to work with them, to rejoice with them, to sympathize with them, to worship with them week by week in and through the church.

(4) Because the church needs the Christian. Only through the loyalty of Christians, its individual units, can the church carry forward its divinely appointed mission of evangelizing the world and bringing in the Kingdom of God.

AMENDMENT IS ATTACKED BY HARDEE

Continued From Page One. "Watch penny" plan in an effort to avoid legitimate taxation, they soon regret their actions. Every time the state waives any foreign prerogative, it will ultimately rue its bargain.

"Many of our cities, towns, districts, and counties will be able to refund their bonds over a long period and at less rates. This proposed amendment will absolutely preclude that because no bondholder will surrender his bonds for the payment of which homes are now pledged, and accept a later issue for less rate with homes exempted.

"Bear in mind that our houses cannot be exempted from the payment of these bonds now outstanding. The Wilson bill, intended to offer a measure of relief to overburdened communities,

MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By GEORGE TUCKER

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—What distinguished reporters from the mobs that eddied about every police station in town on the day that the Lindbergh story broke was the yellow slip of cardboard known as a police press pass.

These are worn in hat-bands to pin on so that the police may tell at a glance that you belong. This small, shield-like card is the magic talisman that opens grim doors and permits you to wander along secret corridors. Every active newspaperman in town has one, a gesture on the part of the police to facilitate the speedy gathering of news.

It's wording—if you're interested—goes like this: PRESS Police Department City of New York The Bearer Representing City Editor

It is entitled to pass police and fire lines wherever formed. To avoid imitation and counterfeit cards, new passes are issued each month. The new releases are always in a different color and each bears the twin signatures of the fire and police commissioners. The old ones are destroyed.

What all this leads up to is you would be in one awful predicament if at the crucial moment of the story you should happen to lose this card. It is the one and only identification the police will honor. Lose it and no amount of cajoling, bargaining, or importuning will move those hard-boiled coppers who have been told that only police officers of cards may pass.

It will become almost a nullity. The passage of this amendment will cripple our schools. It will add a burden to the laboring man who will suffer through the imposition of other forms of taxation. We are gradually seeing daylight in our debt problems and likewise some reduction in taxes. If we pass this amendment, it will "throw a monkey wrench" in all of our governmental machinery.

Two girls are employed by a rubber company in Liverpool to test rubber footwear of various types. They walked 12,000 miles in four years of testing.

Modern Equipment Appears Foreign To Illinois Farms

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 16.—Conveniences such as electricity, running water and modern plumbing are almost entirely unknown to a majority of Illinois farm homes, says a farm school expert here.

W. A. Foster, rural architecture specialist at the college of agriculture, University of Illinois, is pointing out possibilities of the new Federal Housing Administration, made these disclosures. Eighty-four percent of the farm families of Illinois read by the kerosene lamp; 89 percent do not have a bath tub or shower; 80 percent continue to carry water from the backyard pump for domestic consumption.

Foster said 75 percent of these farm dwellings were built more than 25 years ago and thousands are in need of repair.

Supreme Court Points Way To Tax Reduction

A court agency officials of Broward county brought about the court's decision yesterday in a case filed by the State Bank of Havana, Fla. The bank contended the county commission had not complied with a mandamus order requiring levy of taxes to pay defaulted bonds held by it.

The court previously ordered the county commission to provide a tax levy sufficient to "create" approximately $6,000 for payment of the bonds, which were obligations of a special road and bridge district. The commission ordered a levy in the district of four mills upon a basis of 100 persons collected on the assessed valuation would be more than sufficient to pay the amount.

Contending the commission was in contempt of court, the bank sued the four mill levy, on the basis of the percentage of tax collections in recent years, actually would produce only about half the amount required.

Denying the contempt citation, had complied with the law requiring levies on the basis of 95 percent anticipated collection, and that if this levy failed to produce sufficient money, the bondholder would be entitled to levies in succeeding years.

Discussing the tax situation in general, the court, through Chief Justice Fred H. Davis, said in part: "The statutes of Florida relating to finance and taxation contemplate that taxes shall not only be levied to meet the revenue requirements of the government, but that the responsible officials of the county shall use all appropriate means to enforce collection of those taxes which are lawfully levied. There is no warrant in law for making excessive current tax levies on tax payers on the theory that a large portion of the taxpayers either will fail or refuse to pay what is levied and assessed against them."

"The statutes contemplate the voluntary payment of taxes by taxpayers within the season allowed therefor, and if that be not done, that then the taxing authorities shall proceed forthwith to "realize" the amount of taxes levied and assessed by selling the properties and thereby getting the cash from other sources than the delinquent taxpayers.

"The failure of some taxpayers to pay their taxes when due inevitably results, of course, in a greater burden of taxation being borne by the faithful who may be required on successive, but not cumulative tax levies to make up for defaults and delinquencies."

market will absorb at the lowest prices which encourage production, then such restraints can only be imposed, if at all, in the full light of public knowledge and under the continuing supervision and sanction of those officially charged with protection of the public interest."

Hitting at opposition to the Administration's policies, he asserted that "all quick remedies the sweet that is offered to a nation in the cold glow after a wild night of inflated, intoxicated prosperity, is to get drunk again."

"Yet, that," he said, "is the essence of the only coherent opposition today, only with the old lunatic just methods I might expect a while."

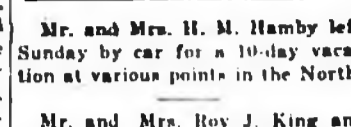

Richberg contended that the present "is no time for the petty partisanship of ordinary political campaigns."

of all of our contacts, especially those in our immediate family."

Mrs. Percy Chapman of the Methodist Church was next with a report on her pastoral stewardship. The world is God's, and we are here to do His work, that job is to make the world lighter, happier and better. We are responsible to God for our talents and our lives. Then often we give God what is left over of our time after we have done everything we want to do for our own selfish desires. Likewise of our talents and our lives.

Mrs. F. W. Stanley, a member of the Baptist Church spoke of Prayer and Meditation. She stated that "Prayer is the most sincere desire, uttered of the soul."

We can unite in fellowship. And with the love of God guiding and influencing us we can unite in service and bring mercy and joy in the contacts of life."

Mrs. R. H. Booth, of the Congregational Church spoke on Community Devotional Life. Speaking from long experience, she pointed out how much has been done, is being done, and can be done by having groups meet in the prisons, old folks homes, and cottages to hold services and cottage meetings for those shut-ins to whom it would mean so much.

Representing the Jewish Community Center, Mrs. Julius Dingfelder speaking on "Sisterhood of Women in the World Today," showed that among women there is one bond that ties them together which knows no difference between the humble or rich, between the queen of the bazaar, between class, race or creed, and that is motherhood. It fosters understanding through the similar experiences of love for the children, the ambitions and dreams for the children and that this understanding outgrows womanhood into sisterhood.

The last speaker was Mrs. Raymond L. Dean, of the Episcopal Church who discussed World Peace. She illustrated by significant facts that there are uncountable tinder boxes throughout the world which start another conflagration, that the principal countries of the world which in 1914 had armies totaling 25 million men, now have 48 1/2 million men under arms, with military appropriations three times what they were then, all in the face of the horrors and economic dislocation still present as a result of the last war. Linking his remarks up with the address of the previous speaker, Mrs. Dean indicated that "we must teach our children to understand other nations. We must educate ourselves and our children. We must put ourselves in the place of someone in Japan and Russia and all the other countries, and try to understand their problems, to sympathize with the world, and have the same feelings as we."

PRICE RAISING PLAN TO MOVE AHEAD SLOWLY

Mrs. J. E. Hart, of the Roman Catholic Church, in her subject "Our Influence toward Better Living in the World Today," gave an account of what the Catholic Church through its League of Nations and the cooperation of its other denominations in the country is doing in an attempt to compel moving produce prices to give clean, wholesome, instructive and educational films to the public. She quoted some vital statistics from "Our Movie Made Children" which indicated that 70 million people who attend the movies each week are more definitely influenced by them than by any other agency, and that 28 million of those are between the ages of 1 and 17, and that 75 percent of the pictures deal with crime, sex, and horror.

These Folks Own The Bell Telephone System

It is truthfully said of the Bell Telephone System that it is owned by the public it serves.

Of the more than 800,000 holders of Bell System securities, 381,000 are women. 100,000 of them are housewives. 90,000 are clerks and sales people; 35,000 are manual laborers; 118,000 are telephone workers. There are other thousands of doctors, lawyers, farmers and mechanics. In fact, people in every walk of life, many of whom are doubtless your neighbors and friends.

Most of these folks are small investors. Eighty per cent own twenty-five or less shares of stock, while forty per cent of the total own five shares or less. No one owns as much as one-fifth of one per cent of the outstanding stock of the Bell System.

It is this vast army of small investors whose savings have financed the telephone business. Their savings have been attracted to the telephone industry because of their faith in the integrity of the management, and their confidence in the willingness of the public to pay a price for the service that will allow earnings sufficient to assure the best possible service at all times and to insure the continued financial stability of the business.

Theodore Roosevelt Attacks Present Administration As Tammanizer Of Government

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Oct. 16.—Col. Theodore Roosevelt Saturday attacked the Administration of his distant cousin, President Franklin D. Roosevelt, as "Tammanizers of the government."

Addressing the Young Republicans of Connecticut, he asserted that "there never has been an administration within the last 50 years where politics were played as brazenly and openly and where appointments were used for partisan purposes with such ruthless disregard of ethics and good government."

He charged that not only has the Administration created a tremendous army of adherents by building a "colossal bureaucracy" but under civil service, but that it has "slandered and undermined" positions that have been under civil service.

Colonel Roosevelt lashed out at James Aloysius Farley, Tammany boss, who he declared had been placed at the head and given charge of the debauching of our government. He also charged that Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes had "sold out."

"Not for more than half a century have we had such a condition as exists today," he said. "The present national administration has not merely done nothing to advance the merit system—it has openly and brazenly set out to destroy it."

"For the first time in the history of the United States, Washington lies in the shadow of Tammany Hall. The methods of Boss Tweed, Croker and Murphy are being applied in our federal government. Every day that passes the Tammany spoils system fastens its tentacles more firmly upon our nation."

The Maine election, Colonel Roosevelt declared was "bought and paid for" with "millions of dollars of the taxpayers' money."

"Today there are ensigns of the federal government prying in to every last one of our affairs," he said. "They are not merely concentrated in Washington, but are scattered through the country spying, interfering, living off us. Take up any telephone book in a large city and you will see long lists of new government offices."

"These great new organizations have been specifically exempted from the civil service law. In all except a few instances, such as the Tennessee Valley Authority, employees have been selected on a strictly spoils system with the end in view of creating a Tammany machine in the United States."

Colonel Roosevelt attacked the Home Owners' Loan Corporation as "a typical illustration of the national administration's prostitution of its endeavors to the service of partisan politics."

CITY ADOPTS BUDGET FOR COMING YEAR

(Continued From Page One) No change in the cost of municipal elections from the 1933-34 year. The total cash collected by the City for the year just closed was $25,339.18, or 64.47 percent of the assessment.

The Committee received about $47,000 of this sum as their share under an agreement reached a year ago, in addition to about $20,000 of the earnings of the Water Department.

It was pointed out that if the tax collection for the coming year is the same as for the past year, the Committee again will receive about $47,000, and it will be necessary to raise an additional $4,000 in order to meet the $55,000 offer.

The Commissioners believe that they will collect at least $10,000 in delinquent taxes during the coming year. In that event, they will have about $2,000 remaining with which to buy bonds.

With the exception of Mayor Leffer, the other Commissioners are of the opinion that the City can meet the requirements laid down by the Committee.

However, it was agreed that a letter should be sent heads of the Committee asking them to agree that if it appears that the collection may fall short of the sum required, the Committee will purchase tax certificates enough to make up the difference.

It also was pointed out that due to careful management, it was possible to operate the City practically within the $44,420 budget set up for operations costs last year.

Before turning their attention to the budget, the Commissioners heard Mrs. W. L. Cooper and Mrs. H. M. Payword, Women's Club officials, speak in behalf of the need for an improvement in the city water supply.

Mayor Leffer thanked the women for their interest in the community and expressed the hope that they would continue their efforts to bring about the improvements they sought.

Decrease of $30,000 in the estimated 1935-36 budget... The salary of Chief Clerk F. S. Lammson was raised from $1200 to $1300.

The Division of Parks account has been increased from $2000 to $2800, primarily because $500 may be spent in repair on Municipal Park, and $280 has been added to the cost of labor.

The Division of Public Health and Sanitation account has been increased from $2500 to $3500. Salary of City Physician J. N. Tolar was raised from $750 to $900 per year, and it is anticipated that $1800 worth of labor may be required instead of $1200 anticipated for last year.

The Commissioners increased the annual appropriation for the Fernald-Laughton Memorial Hospital to $1200 from $1000.

The "Public Library" account was boosted from $1500 to $1650 because of an increase in the salary of Librarian Mrs. E. J. Moughton from $90 to $90 per month, and an estimated $30 increase in the cost of books and supplies.

No change was made in the "Charity" fund of $2500. It was estimated that it might cost $700 instead of $600 to keep up the Aviation Field this year.

Under what is known as the "Division of Finance, Records and Taxation," the Commissioners anticipated an increase of $41,500 for 1935-36.

Under what is known as the "Division of Finance, Records and Taxation," the Commissioners anticipated an increase of $41,500 for 1935-36.

You are hereby notified that the undersigned will on the 1st day of October, A. D. 1934, between the hours of 10 and 12 o'clock, sell at public sale for cash, all the certain property described in and exhibiting to page 17 of Deed No. 17 of the Public Records of Jefferson County, Florida.

Under this department, the salary of City Clerk F. S. Lammson was raised from $1200 to $1300 for the year, making his total salary as a city employee $2000 per year instead of the $1700 of last year.

The "Publicity" account was increased from $1200 to $1400 for the year, with the Chamber of Commerce contributing to the sum of $100 per month instead of the $83.33 appropriation of the past year.

No change was made in the contingent fund of $3000. The special litigation and financing account was increased from $1200 to $2250 because it is believed that extra help needed in foreclosing on property and handling detailed matters connected with that work may cost about $1250 during the year.

Because the City has finally paid all it owes to the Nye Odorous Crematory Co. the "Notes and Judgments payable" account was cut down from $10,000 to $9000. The Commissioners have set aside $5000 this year as payment on the DeCottas and Boggs judgment.

Total cost of operating the city, exclusive of paying on the outstanding bonded debt, therefore, has been raised from the estimated $34,420 of last year to $37,375 for the new year, or an increase of about $2,955.

Nearly half of this sum is represented by the approximate 10 percent increase in salaries, with the remainder having been appropriated because of repairs and improvements needed and contemplated.

Gross revenues of the City's water department, operated independently, are estimated at $41,500 for 1935-36.

And now— A New System of Plant Feeding

FOR twenty-five years fertilizers have been "fed" into the soil. They have not moved very far from the first original formula. Yet now "Fertilizer" just after years of being fed up on, has been thought the proper thing and quite necessary.

But SOME minds have been at work thinking out the way. By research and laboratory work and practical outdoor work in fields, farms, and gardens, it has been demonstrated that old-time formulas don't go nearly far enough for proper results—that they were not only inefficient but WASTEFUL.

As a result came SOILADE—the most important innovation in twenty-five years of soil fertilization.

SOILADE The Longer Lasting Plant Food

Chemistry is constantly discovering new ways and better methods. It has given us elements that were unknown to our forefathers. SOILADE is made of these elements.

SOILADE is made of 14 different elements, all of which are essential to plant growth. SOILADE is RICH in plant nourishment. It is the oldest formula of Fertilizer, and it is made of the most valuable elements. SOILADE is ESSENTIAL to healthy, vigorous plant growth.

GERMAN CHURCH GROUP REVOLTS AGAINST HITLER

Bishop Meiser Deposed By Mob Which Holds Him As Prisoner

BERLIN, Oct. 16.—(AP)—The entire Protestant church population of Bavaria was in open revolt last night against the Nazi-dominated central church government at Berlin. Their leader, Bishop Hans Meiser, was deposed and a virtual prisoner in his palace.

Bishop Meiser, and with him a considerable section of the Bavarian evangelistic clergy and lay followers, threw down the gauntlet to Reich Bishop Ludwig Mueller, refused to surrender their offices in a fighting proclamation read yesterday at each church service.

The police, refusing either to permit Bishop Meiser to address his followers from the windows of his home or from the pulpit of his church, took an active, though at least partly in the service of every pro-Meiser church, making notes of the names and speeches of Mueller's antagonists.

The proclamation was read to an overflow congregation at St. Maria. Even the aisles of the famous church were jammed, and hundreds stood outside on the portico and in the streets.

The congregation was infiltrated with police, brown shirts and detectives, but a loud buzz of approval came from the audience when the document, bearing the approval of the ousted church councilors, flaily rejected Reich-bishop Mueller's orders.

Respectful and bitter ejaculations accompanied its reading, and there was an outburst of "thank God!" when it was announced that Bishop Meiser and his council refused to surrender to the central power.

Meanwhile, it was learned, although Reich President Adolf Hitler was begged, in a two-hour conference, to intervene and end the schism, the fustler refused to add the weight of his office to either side.

The proclamation described, in harsh terms, how Dr. August Jaeger, representing Mueller, broke into the bishop's palace on Thursday at the head of his police, shouting, "An end must be made to this mutiny and rebellion."

Thereupon, the proclamation went on, Jaeger posted police at the door, summoned the church councilors, and symmetrically ordered their arrest.

"A firebrand of war has been kindled in our church," the proclamation said. "Before God and the community, before the people and the state, before the father and the nation, we denounce this breach of faith and declare our belief that this means destruction of character and confidence."

"We call upon our pastors and congregations not to obey this constitution-breaking church government... our bishop and our council will remain in the future the legal authority of our church."

Plainclothes men were scattered through the St. Mark's congregation. Their notebooks were busy for both pastors Bannentruether and Langewieser made vehement declarations in support of their superior. Other pastors who read the proclamation to their congregations were similarly closely watched.

LABOR SEEKS TO LEND SPEEDY AID TO U. S. BUSINESS

Co-Operative Action Between Capital, Labor Held Needed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—(AP)—A new joint effort by capital and labor to lift American industry out of the doldrums was suggested yesterday by the American Federation of Labor in its monthly business review.

As things now stand, the review said, "we can hope for no important gains in employment before next spring" even though "the summer decline was checked early in September, and business has now turned moderately upward again."

"Today we are in a race between rising production and rising debt," the review concluded. "We cannot afford to lose time."

"Our immediate need is to increase production and buying power; to cut through red tape and lift industry quickly to higher levels."

"We must find a practical, workable plan, and this can only be done through co-operative action under government leadership."

"The program set up by the Winant board in the textile strike settlement gives for one industry a mechanism to examine facts as a basis for action. The federal trade commission is to study production costs, wages and profits as a basis for determining the ability to increase wages. This is a step in the right direction. We need to examine facts for industry as a whole, to discover how production can be quickly increased and workers' income quickly raised to higher levels."

"Might not the President's proposed truce in industry become a dynamic force rather than a static agreement if it promoted conferences between the freely chosen representatives of labor, the employers and the government to plan and carry through co-operative action to life production and employment to 1934 needs?"

"Acceptance of the principles on which the Recovery Act is predicated—industry organized in trade associations and employees organized in self-governed unions, under chairmanship of the government—is the way to peace in industry, to co-operation for increased output of high quality and higher living standards for producers."

After pointing out that maintenance of 1933 gains was about all the Industrial Recovery program had accomplished so far in 1934, the review displayed figures to show that the amount of goods the country produced per capita—national income—was less now than at the beginning of the century.

Approximately 3,800,000 new radio sets were sold in the United States last year.

FORD V-8 WINS WORLD'S SPEED BOAT TITLE

Photo shows Harold Wilson of Ingersoll, Ontario, driving "Little Miss Canada the Third" powered with a Ford V-8 engine to win the first world championship in the new 225 cubic inch international power boat class at the Canadian National Exhibition. At his side is Miss Lorna Reid, his mechanic. Both are University of Toronto students.

Wilson's victory was on points and place. Exhibition crowds were electrified in the third and final heat when Wilson, after losing scores of yards by reason of a delayed start, waged a valiant fight for the lead. With his engine roaring wide open he managed to flash past 6 competing boats but was unable to overtake the heat winner, finishing a scant 75 yards in its wake.

The Exhibition races mark the first running of an international championship in the new speed boat racing class which promises to become one of the most sporting of all power boat contests. Wilson's winning boat and 6 other original entries, all with Ford V-8 engines, were the only competing boats fitted with motors of automobile type. Others were powered with marine engines.

Three of the five leading point winners were driven by Ford V-8 engines. The others, besides Wilson's entry, being the "Wilmer Third," driven by Dr. C. H. Bagley, of Baltimore, Maryland, and the "Riptide," promoted by Al Schwarzier of New York City.

CAPPER WANTS SUPREME COURT KEYS VOTE ON HALT CALLED ON SPENDING

Kansas Senator Sees Republicans Being Called Upon To Balance U.S. Budget

COLBY, Kans., Oct. 16.—(AP)—Senator Arthur Capper (R-Kan.), said Friday night the time was coming when it would be necessary to call a halt on huge governmental expenditures.

In an address for delivery here, Capper said he admitted the truth of a statement from Donald Richberg of the NRA that an immediate balancing of the national budget, in the face of continued relief demands, is impossible.

"I am glad to note that Mr. Richberg—for whom I have a very high regard—says the budget should be balanced at the earliest possible moment," Capper asserted. "With that statement I am in full agreement. Personally, and for the sake of the taxpayers, I hope it can be balanced at an earlier date than Mr. Richberg's talk indicates he believes possible."

Senator Capper said he would be the last to demand that relief expenditures should be suddenly stopped off and that "what has been done has been done" but that nothing can evade the fact that the expenditures will have to be made good, will have to be taken care of by the taxpayers.

Pointing to a public debt which he said is now $27,000,000,000 and which he said would increase to $31,000,000,000 next year, Senator Capper said young people of today would be the ones to face

SUPREME COURT KEYS VOTE ON CUT IN CIRCUITS

Voters To Decide On Number Of Judges Needed In Florida

TALLAHASSEE, Oct. 15.—(AP)—The supreme court yesterday affirmed a decree of the Leon county circuit court, denying an injunction that would have prevented a vote in November on a proposed constitutional amendment to reduce the number of judicial circuits in Florida.

By a 4-2 decision, the court said it found no basis for the contention by D. B. Collier of Manatee county, that a resolution submitting the proposed amendment to the people never properly passed the state legislature last year.

Collier claimed the House journal of proceedings failed to show that the House adopted a Senate amendment to the original resolution providing for the place of residence of additional judges in circuits having more than one. This amendment was incorporated into the original resolution by the Senate and when the resolution was sent to the House and printed in the journal for the first time, it contained the questioned section.

Thereafter, including the recorded entry of the time the resolution was adopted by the House, the journal failed to show this particular section, but the court held that this was due to a clerical error, and said the record showed the House considered the resolution as originally introduced.

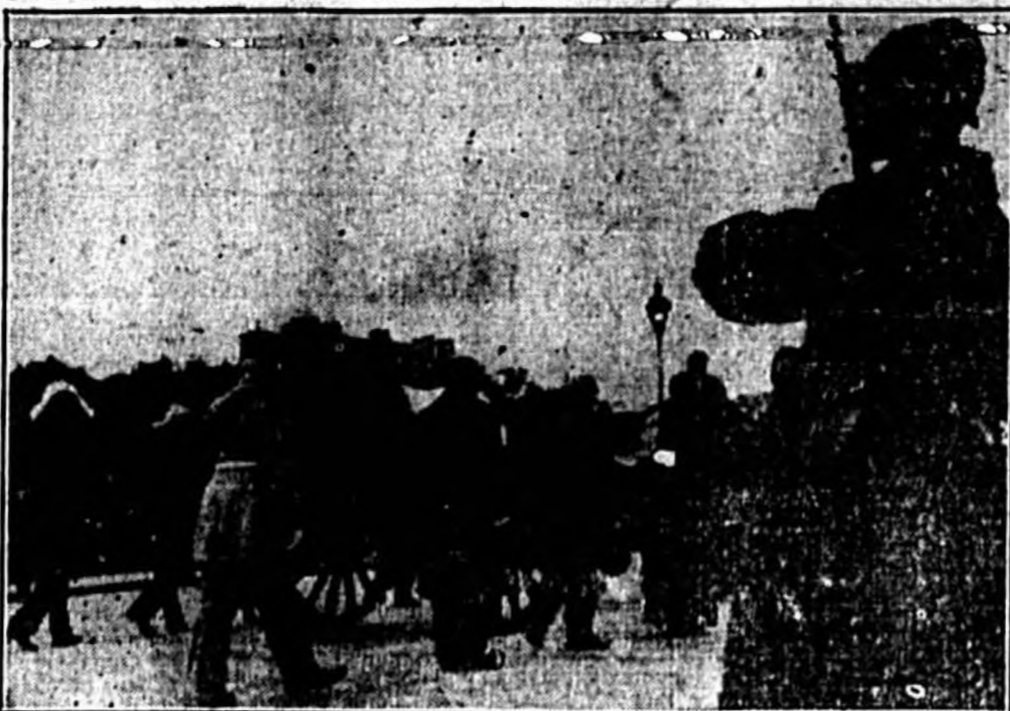

Such a clerical error, the court said, constituted no violation of the constitutional procedure required in submitting amendments to the people, and "unless the courts are satisfied the constitution has been violated in the submission of a proposed amendment they should uphold it."

"The opportunity should be afforded the people, with the least amount of technical departmental obstructions consistent with the letter and spirit of the constitution, to express their desire as to a supposedly needed change in the constitution."

The payments of the bulk of the bill, he said he had a "hunch" it also would be Republicans who would be called upon to balance the budget.

Senator Capper is touring Kansas' Sixth District with Frank Carlson, Republican nominee for congress, in the next week's election.

HUNGARIAN MINE HEADS AGREE TO PAY MORE WAGES

1200 Men Who Threatened To Die Under Ground, Quit Earth

PECS, Hungary, Oct. 16.—(AP)—Owners of the coal mine here where nearly 1200 miners are attempting mass suicide early yesterday reached an agreement with the government to grant the miners' demand of wage increases.

They were goaded into action by public opinion aroused over the plight of the miners who had bandaged together to die by suffocation rather than continue trying to support themselves on wages of less than $2 a week.

The owners agreed to eliminate a wage cut, to raise the working time from two to three days per week, and to pay a bonus of $5 per head to help tide over the winter.

Government and trade union officials sped to the pithead with the agreement, hoping the miners would accept.

It was feared, however, that the mental and physical condition of the men, self-entombed without food or water for nearly five days and nights, may be so far gone as to render conferences with them impossible.

In such a case it was feared a catastrophe of major proportions would be unavoidable.

Late last night they had threatened death to General Janos Esterghazy, Democratic Socialist member of the Hungarian Parliament, who sought to mediate with the miners.

"Don't come down or you won't return," the miners' armed sentries told Esterghazy, who earlier yesterday went down into the black pit to return with stories of an unbearable torture suffered by the men.

While officials of the mining company appealed to the government to dispatch additional troops to cope with an increasingly alarming situation, the miners sent out word that "we have sworn that everyone who comes down to us must remain as long as we have to stay."

Esterghazy said the things he had seen below the men tied to posts by their fellows to prevent their killing themselves, the hunger and exhaustion and mass insanity of the miners, constituted the "most terrible remembrance of my life."

DR. GLENN FRANK TELLS OF DANGER TO GOVERNMENT

Wisconsin Educator Sees Need For Careful Administration

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—(AP)—The danger to constitutional self-government, writes Dr. Glenn Frank in his new book, "America's Hour of Decision," is "quite as great the reactionary right as from the radical left."

"The mass mind," the noted educator says, "might go dangerously far to the right. Strained by an excess of novelty in Rooseveltian policy, it might turn in blind reaction against everything experimental and gamble a living future on dead doctrines."

"It might lodge the leadership of the nation in the hands of men who would stubbornly refuse to see that when a people emerges, as we have emerged, from an economy of scarcity into an economy of plenty, its political, social and economic arrangements must be made to fit the scale and tempo of the new order of projection."

"A national leadership of this sort," Dr. Frank added, "would, in the end, mean national suicide."

The writer, president of the University of Wisconsin, declares in a foreword that "this is no sense 'partisan document.'" In several instances, he reverts to the theme of an economy of plenty and laments himself in vigorous opposition to any program of crop curtailment.

an important part in the sensational 12 to 0 upset victory which the University of South Florida scored over the University of Athens last Saturday, Jackson is the varsity quarterback on the farheel team. His play led directly to the two touchdowns scored in the victory. In the second quarter, Jackson's 21 yard run placed the ball in Georgia territory, and two plays later he tossed an accurate 25 yard pass that led to the first touchdown. Jackson's recovery of a fumble on the Georgia 24 yard line in the last quarter, paved the way for the touchdown drive which followed. Murray Kanner, another former local star, appeared at center in the game for about three minutes, press reports revealed.

5 Die, Many Homeless In Storm At Manila

MANILA, Philippine Islands, Oct. 16.—(AP)—At least five persons lost their lives and thousands were left homeless by a sudden tropical typhoon which twisted Manila from a well ordered city into a confusion of debris early today.

Five drownings in one section of the city were the first fatalities reported in the violent storm. Governor Frank Murphy, after a survey of the havoc strewn city, estimated the damage in Manila alone to run somewhere from $250,000 to $2,500,000.

Manila was the scene of desolation as convicts, police and city workers joined to clear the streets. Eleven and one-half inches of rain fell during the 24 hours.

LAKE MARY IS SCENE OF UNIQUE PARTY

Trade Body Officials Entertain Men Who Recently Were Defeated For Office

Upwards of 200 men and women joined with the Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce last night during its October social meeting in the Community House in that town to hear a number of talks that were features of a program presented in honor of the several candidates who were defeated in the June elections.

G. W. Spencer, Gordon Barnett, J. E. Jackson, W. D. Holdsworth, and E. H. Killbee were among those who accepted the invitation to attend this affair and each was a speaker.

The principal speaker of the evening, however, were George G. Herring of Sanford and Robert L. Glenn, also of this city.

The former spoke for the Homebased Exemption Amendment as one of the many vice-presidents of the Home Owners' League of Florida. The latter spoke in opposition to the Amendment as "Not a paid hurling as charged but a man who has been connected with the laboring men for the past 15 years."

Frank Evans of Lake Mary was introduced to the audience as master of ceremonies by R. A. Howell, president of the Lake Mary trade body, who welcomed the guests.

Mr. Evans in turn introduced various men and women who spoke on phases of Lake Mary Chamber of Commerce work during the past several years. Among these speakers were:

Mr. R. M. Hall, who introduced 14 small girls as members of the "Brownies," a Girl Scout affiliation. Mrs. Hall told of the work being done by the girls, and they offered a song as their part of the program.

Fred Holt, director of a group of young boys known as "The Cubs," who said that the boys would soon develop their club into a much larger unit than it is at present.

Mr. R. E. True, counselor of the Lake Mary Girl Scout troop which she introduced, Mrs. True told of the troop's organization and accomplishments. The girls also offered a song.

Scoutmaster W. F. Thorne of Lake Mary Troop No. 58 who introduced the troop, and Ernest Wilson, who was made an Eagle Scout on Monday night.

The wealthy young society matron was brought home last night after a harrowing five days of captivity for $50,000 ransom.

Robinson, a former inmate of lunatic asylums, is named by federal agents as the man who entered the Stoll home last Wednesday, slugged Mrs. Stoll with an iron pipe, and carried her off to his Indianapolis apartment where she remained until yesterday afternoon.

Federal operatives are confident that they will get their man.

Meanwhile, the entire Chicago police force plunged into a search for Robinson who was said by federal agents to be driving toward that city.

Mrs. Robinson was captured as she accompanied Mrs. Stoll from Indianapolis to Louisville yesterday in company with Reverend E. Arnold Clegg and his wife, a cousin of Perry V. Stoll.

Mrs. Stoll was put to bed as soon as she arrived home last night.
