The nomination of Thompson indicates that Chicago Republicans are content for Chicago to remain the refuge of racketeers, and the butt of ridicule for the whole nation.

A Frenchman, who made a plea recently for its general introduction in France, said that in evaluating "a la Romaine" he was "linking himself to tradition" and felt "reviving in his breast the virtues of those who achieved the conquest of the world."

As a sample of the stuff that is being peddled by the followers of Herr Hitler to the German country people, who are the object of the latest drive for membership in the National-Socialist party, we call the following speech by one of their party "orators" pronounced in a small Saxon community as reported by the local paper:

When we (the Fascists) reach power, we will dismiss half the government functionaries and cut the salaries of the other half. The ministers will be sent home and we will divide up the great agricultural estates in the Kingdom of Saxony. We will stop the scandalous payments for reparations which Germany is compelled to produce under the Young Plan.

Nevada politicians are real business men, knowing full well how to meet dastardly competition. Reading of the successful passage of the Arkansas 90-day divorce bill, and perhaps hearing of a similar one contemplated in Florida, the Nevada legislators have introduced a bill which makes a divorce possible to non-residents in six weeks.

But may be Chicago will repudiate him and his methods in the general election and choose the Democratic candidate for the highest office in the city.

If the attempted assassination of President Machado did nothing else, it proved beyond all question that the Cuban leader is one of those early-to-bed-and-early-to-rise boys. Associated Press dispatches tell that the bomb was set to explode at 10:30 in the morning, just as the president was rising to take his morning bath. We don't know, but we are inclined to believe that somebody who gets up in the middle of the night like that should be a little more careful.

Professional beggars and idlers, according to police departments of large cities, form a considerable proportion of those at the soup kitchens and bake shops, seeking food intended for the worthy. There are normally 1,500,000 people in this country unemployed in good times. Most of them would not work if they had work. So it is desirable, in any analysis made of actual distress and in all measures taken to bring about relief, to separate the parasite from the industrious man who should be given work whenever it is possible.

You hear a peculiar rumbling in the direction of New York City. It's just old Joseph P. Kamp running over in his grave. He's not dead yet, but he's not quite fifty years old either. and city officers. All were scrutinized and some were searched for pistols. Moving picture and newspaper photographers dogged the steps of the Capone entourage to the courtroom, from it at noon to a municipal court where he answered a vagrancy charge and back to the contempt proceedings. Smiling, affable, apparently at ease, the "scar-faced one" told reporters "I'm just a goat" when asked about Tuesday's primary election. "Foolish," he called the charge that he gave $150,000 to Mayor Thompson's campaign.

His ample bulk—206 pounds, he said—was encased in a soft blue suit. Gray spats topped highly shined black shoes. Occasionally during the tedious court proceedings, the gangster's partly bald head turned and his black eyes swept the courtroom, but generally he followed the routine. If there were bodyguards, and police officers said a dozen or so accompanied him, they were far back in the courtroom. Al was at the counsel table. He chewed gum leisurely, and rucked his chair slowly back and forward. From the left hand on the table sparkled a diamond. Across his expansive girth stretched a watch chain. After the federal proceedings, Capone will appear in municipal court to answer Judge John H. Lyle's vagrancy warrant. He made bond of $80,000 yesterday during the noon recess.

Protest Is Made Against Sale Of New York Paper

And Surrogate James A. Foley deferred until this morning or later his decision as to whether it is legally possible under the will of Pulitzer will, for the sons to dispose of the Morning, Evening and Sunday World.

What began late Tuesday as a perfunctory action to merge the World papers with the New York Telegram and supposedly to unite all in one evening newspaper to be called the World-Telegram, became yesterday an impassioned hearing at which the men who pleaded for the World pleaded for a chance to continue on a co-operative basis a newspaper, "with traditions worth preserving—the traditions of Joseph Pulitzer."

Presented in a written offer, spending several days here with Mr. and Mrs. John Knox Witherspoon.

By Mr. Block to Herbert, Joseph and Ralph Pulitzer, as trustees of their father's estate, in which he proposed that he buy the paper, pay cash for it, and give the employees a month and a half to acquire it from him.

The brothers may consider the offer if Judge Foley rules that they can accept it they may submit a contract of sale to the surrogate for his approval. Block and his attorney, Max D. Steuer, did not say how much they offered for the World papers. The Scripps-Howard papers had offered $5,000,000—two million of it conditional on profits to be earned by the World-Telegram.

It was deemed possible that disposal of the World, if approved by the surrogate, might develop into a bidding scramble in which new figures might appear for Herbert Bayard Swope, former executive editor of the World, indicated yesterday that a group which he heads would be interested in the papers.

Mrs. Chase Hostess To Members Of Club

Garden flowers adorned the living rooms of the home of Mrs. S. O. Chase, Jr., at Golden Lakes when she entertained the members of the Merry-Go-Round Club with a bridge party yesterday afternoon. After several progressions of bridge prizes were awarded to M. S. Roy Holler, Mrs. A. T. Cashion, of Shelby, N. C., and Mrs. Raymond Phillips.

At the tea hour an ice course was served by the hostess to the following: Mrs. Roy Holler and house guest, Mrs. A. T. Cashion, of Shelby, N. C., Mrs. Monroe B. Hutton, Mrs. John L. Galloway, Mrs. W. Cauthen Hutchison, Mrs. Raymond Phillips, Mrs. B. F. Whitner, Jr., and Mrs. W. D. Gardiner.

OUR TEN YEARS IN SANFORD

Just a decade ago we started in Sanford in a little store that blocked First Street at Sanford Avenue. It wasn't so much of a start, but from it we have grown to be one of the largest enterprises in our city. It is true that we, like almost everyone, have had a few down mixed in with our ups but in spite of a few setbacks on our side the good old ship is still plowing ahead, determined as firmly this year to continue serving, faithfully and efficiently, the thousands of friends.

During our business life here we have been favored with nearly a million dollars in patronage by our many friends and we point with pride to a record of service that merits the enormous volume of trade which we have enjoyed.

We appreciate this patronage beyond words and now, at the end of our tenth year of service, we want to say to our multitude of customers and friends: "THANK YOU AGAIN! MAY WE SERVE YOU MANY MORE TIMES IN THE NEXT TEN YEARS!"

WILL MANDELL DAYTONA BOUT

Rock Scrapper Has Made Very Good Showings Recently

DAYTONA BEACH, Feb. 24 — Gore, who has not lost a fight in 18 months and only a few months ago held one of the great titles in the world to a man who will make a bid for no less fame here Friday night than he tackled Sammy Mandell, is campaigning among the well-

Gore surprised the entire southwest by holding Young Manue Lero even and has been cast as an eye on other headline shots since. He was selected to fight Mandell here because of his record in the recent state championship.

Gore arrived here Wednesday morning to complete training for the 10 round battle and reported in excellent shape as a result of strenuous training since during the last few weeks. He and Mandell will scale about 142 pounds each.

Mandell has been here three weeks training daily. His battle with Gore will be the beginning of a campaign which he has laid out toward the welterweight championship now held by Tommy Freeman. He believes he can easily outpoint the Little Rock scrapper. He holds a decision over Jesse Fields, a previous holder of the crown.

The fight here will be Sammy's second in the state and his third as a welterweight. He beat Armando Schackel, at Tampa during the boom and since he lost his welterweight title in July to Al Gage—since deposed by Tony Cacciarri—he has battled several local fighters, through the midwest.
There will be nearly 40 rounds of boxing on the card here.

LEROY RETAINS GOLF TITLE AS CITY CHAMPION

Lundquist and all Leroy would have to do to win would be to holve either of the remaining two holes. The sad outlook didn't dismay Lundquist for he tightener up and won both holes in a style to even the match on the final green.

The players looked tired as they stepped up to the first tee, for the thirty-seventh hole of a match which had been long and grueling. The wind still howled and the prospect of playing extra holes did not have been very pleasant. Leroy hit a beautiful tee shot down the middle but Lundquist was badly off and topped his drive into the trap just off the tee and despite a nice recovery he looked to be doomed. He would have been if Leroy hadn't fallen-ed and three-patted the green to allow a ball.

The thirty-eighth hole came near ending the match for Leroy. Both men got fair drives. Leroy's second shot ended in the trap on the right of the green. Lundquist's second was short but his third led to the pin for a fairly good score. Leroy's position in the trap spread gloom over the chances, but he played a masterful shot, also to the cup, for a four. The match now went to the thirty-ninth and final hole.
Lundquist's drive, pulled to the right on the left of the hill while Leroy hit a perfect shot through the center of the fairway. Lundquist missed his second and popped his third into a trap. Leroy's second stroke was one of performance. It carried straight for the hole with the direction of an arrow and came to rest only a few inches from the cup.

It was a shot one layer to see the golden gate. It was a shot that brought victory to one and defeat to another. It spelled title in the match. Both men shook hands.

WALKER WINS OVER RUSKO IN MIAMI BATTLE

Gets Judge's Decision By Kiso Finish Over Heavier Opponent

WALKER SQUARE GARDEN MIAMI, Feb. 23.—In a shaking contest, Walker won over Rusko in a 10-round victory last night.

Walker spotted his rival nearly 30 pounds, weighing 165 1/2 to 184 for Rusko.

Mike Dunne, Rock Island (Ill.)

Walker won over Rusko after three rounds of a scheduled six-rounder. The bout, between two Miami middleweights, was stopped by the referee because of a severe cut over Shell's left eye.

A dramatic entrance was put on for Young Stribling, the heavyweight pride of Georgia, who appeared in a three-round exhibition with as many sparring partners.

The crowd gave the young Georgian a rousing reception but there were some bores from the ring-side customers as the announcer, Joe Weinberg, introduced Stribling as the "next heavyweight champion" of the world.

The crowd got a big laugh out of the third and last round of the exhibition, in which, Chief Newberry, Seminole Indian, put on a war dance, Stribling handled the bounding chief lightly with the big gloves.

Following this Stanislaus Zyzanski, one of the well-known wrestling brothers and one-time world's champion, was introduced as a "big baby" for his match here this Friday against Jim London.

Max Schmeling, the good-looking young German holder of the world's heavyweight title, who made Stribling somewhere in June, furnished another exhibition performance.

Former Mayor of Asheville Is Suicidal Victim

OBSCURE PLAYER FROM NEW YORK LEADS JAX MEET

Is One Stroke Ahead Of Al Espinosa Who Takes Excellent 71

The lanky New Yorker, who sloops well over the ball when shooting, was a stroke ahead of the veteran, Al Espinosa, Chicago, who smacked out a neat 71 yesterday.

Whiffy Cox, blustering pro from Brooklyn failed yesterday, but his 78 was good enough to lead him in a three-day tournament.

George Christ, Rochester, and Ed Fennely, 19-year-old Jacksonville money player, at 140, Christ also failed yesterday on the final of 72 for the second round.

The winner of the $2,000 tournament will be the 32nd awarded with $600, and the next 13 cash awards will taper off from that. Two additional cash prizes for low scores in Thursday's 36 holes were announced yesterday by the tournament committee.
