George Coffin lists today's hand under D for deception. It seems that East won the third diamond in order to lead the jack of spades.

South played the three; West the six in order to give his partner a count and dummy's king won the trick.

South promptly led a low club and the moment of truth had arrived. East pulled out the ace; pushed it back; pulled it out again; pushed it back once more; and finally played low. East blamed his partner for playing the six. He was right

County Expected To Move Closer To Owning Utilities

County Commissioners are expected to give their approval tomorrow to ordinances that will significantly enhance their move towards a unified regional utility system.

If a housing development is planned outside an area already served by an existing "certified" utility, the developer will be responsible for installing the water and sewer systems — which he would then deed over to the county under the ordinances.

The systems would then be tied into a nearby private utility plant by a "master meter." The plant would supply water and process the raw sewage, the county will pay the private firm, and the customers will then pay the county. The county will maintain and inspect the new system.

The developers, according to Utility Control Director Bill Dale, will eventually be reimbursed with utilities revenue for their construction of the donated system.

As another phase of the move towards a county-owned system, the commissioners have okayed the purchase of Consumer Utilities and Indian Hills Utilities, and have been negotiating with Eagle Utilities for purchase.

Besides unifying and consolidating 21 individual private utility operations in the county, a county-owned system — facilitating the regulation and control of these systems — should eventually offer better service to the customer, at lower rates.

When the county gets ready to expand and improve any system, it will have the advantage of access to federal funds that will support up to 75 per cent of that expansion cost.

According to Dale, validation hearings for the bonds to purchase Consumer and Indian Hills will have to be set, and — barring any law suits — the bonds will have to be approved before the two systems can be officially purchased.

At utility work sessions with the County Commissioners in the past, Dale has pointed out that the Board can expect "requests for rate increases from all firms operating in the county." While a county-owned system would not actually reduce rates, it would keep them from increasing at the schedule that they currently follow, Dale said.

The lure of $200 to $600 cash rebates for new car buyers drew a record number of shoppers and buyers onto Seminole County showroom floors over the weekend.

"Saturday, we must have sold nine automobiles. This is the first time we've sold nine automobiles in months and months. Things are gonna get better," said Skip Kellogg, president of Clark-Chrysler Plymouth in Casselberry.

The good news was echoed by other new car dealers. Listen to Paul Powell, the general sales manager at Joe Creamons Inc. in Sanford:

"We had the best weekend in 18 months. We had a fantastic weekend. We couldn't even take care of shoppers with eight salesmen."

Dealers seem elated — at least for the time being — over the sales rebate programs instituted by the major manufacturers to try and offset a 2 1/2-year low recorded in the first 10 days of January.

Around the nation, the rebate seems to be working equally as well — with sales rebounding by 41 per cent during the Jan. 11-30 reporting period.

All told, sales trailed year-ago figures by 15.4 per cent — a marked improvement from recent months when they have slumped by whopping 25 to 35 per cent margins.

The rebate dose, dealers say, just may have been the needed medicine to get the American public back into the new car buying cycle, but the big question now is will the rebates end after Feb. 28, the date beyond which none of the four plans is scheduled to extend.

According to Lou Lucchetti, sales manager at Jack Prosser Ford, the rebate "has turned it around, but how long it will last no one knows."

Lucchetti said his salesmen sold about 30 cars over the weekend, picking up sales at the facility "quite a bit."

Kellogg feels the Big Four may extend the rebate program because of "the tremendous number of lookers and buyers" who are flooding showroom floors.

A spokesman at Jim Lash Chrysler Plymouth Inc. said it's "doing a lot of good. We've got a lot of traffic on it. It's doing real well."

It was reportedly much the same at Bob Dance Dodge in Sanford, where a spokesman said weekend business was "good, real good."

Powell said auto companies should be "dummies" not to extend it. Chrysler started the rebates rolling, with General Motors, American Motors and Ford following close behind.

Each firm's rules vary slightly, but the big push is on small cars that have been the slowest sellers during a depressed market.

Buyers are promised refund checks of $200 to $600 — depending on the model — direct from the factory on a wide variety of car lines.

And the buyers, dealers report, are biting.

Motorcyclist Leads Police Merry Chase

By BOB LLOYD Herald Staff Writer

SR-46 in the Paola area west of Sanford was observed two motorcycles racing at a high rate of speed.

Nickle said he gave pursuit with blue lights and siren on SR-41-B, SR-46A, Rhinehart Road, Lake Mary Boulevard, Interstate Four and finally SR-44.

Deputies said other sheriff's and Altamonte Springs Police units were unable to intercept the motorcycles.

Officers said one motorcycle got away, but Nickle reported he finally stopped the motorcycle ridden by Graham at SR-434 and Meadowfield Lane west of 14. Nickle said at one point in the pursuit the motorcycle was traveling in excess of 100 miles an hour in a posted 45 mile an hour speed zone.

Sheriff's Detective Sgt. William Hogan jailed a Sanford man on a sexual battery charge in connection with the Saturday rape of a 48-year-old woman in a wooded area off Southwest Road at Sanford.

Being held today without bond in County Jail at Sanford was James Edward Knight, 20, of 1804 W. 15th St., Sanford.

The woman told investigators she was raped early Saturday morning by a young man who jumped from behind a utility pole and ripped off her undergarments.

In other weekend arrests, Jackie Kyle Stewart, 26, of 102 Wilkins Circle, Sanford, was jailed without bond on a charge of violation of probation.

Second Suspect Sought

Orange County sheriff's investigators were reported searching today for a second suspect in the stabbing slaying early Saturday of an Altamonte Springs man.

Sheriff's spokesman Richard King said Oakley Andrews, 24, of Altamonte Springs, died of three stab wounds in the chest following what officers believe was an argument between two groups of 15 to 20 men in the parking lot at Day's Inn, McCoy Road, Orlando.

Deputies have arrested one suspect, Robert Feriend of Grand Haven, Mich., on a first degree murder charge. Feriend, 25, was being held without bond today in Orange County Jail at Orlando.

King said the dead man's home address in Altamonte Springs was not immediately available.

Longwood Council Seeks County Aid

By DONNA ESTES Herald Staff Writer

LONGWOOD—City Council, at a brief "emergency meeting" this morning, voted to request six employees in the federally-sponsored program to put to work persons who are either unemployed or on welfare.

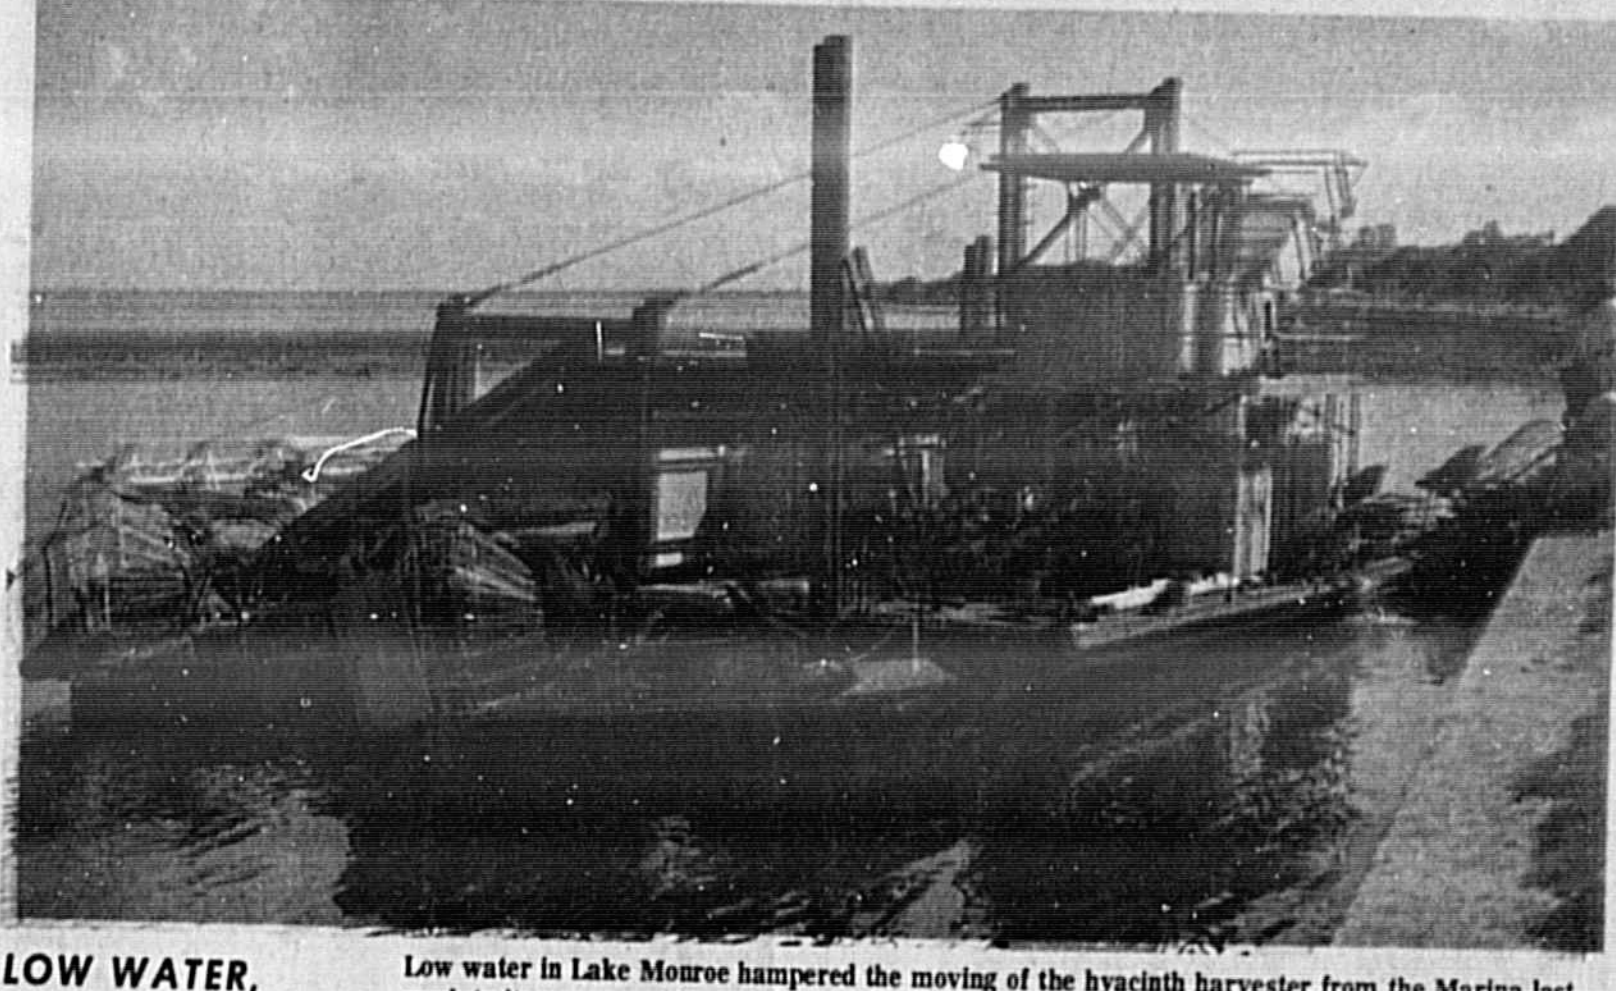

Mayor James R. Lormann was to turn in the city's request to the Seminole County Commission this morning. Pay scales plus fringe benefit costs work on installing drainage lines and water pipe.

The city has had nearly $10,000 in drainage pipe stockpiled for more than 18 months since city consulting engineers estimated costs under contract for installation of $33,000 to upwards of $110,000.

Some money has been budgeted from federal revenue sharing funds for the installation.

Expected to be given priority among drainage projects is the Land Avenue area which floods severely after every rainfall.

Council member June Lormann was absent from the meeting, but Mayor James R. Lormann said she favored asking for a grader operator, a back hoe operator, three vacancies exist in the police department the city would have great difficulty in hiring a complete customer service banking, the only one of its kind in Sanford.

LOW WATER, DRY HARVESTER. Low water in Lake Monroe hampered the moving of the hay harvesters from the Marina last week to its permanent home near the Osteen Bridge on the St. Johns. But, low water isn't the only thing keeping the harvesters high and dry. County Commissioners have refused to approve a budget for their share of the harvester operation, which they previously okayed. Dr. Al Burkhalter of Natural Resources will ask the Board tomorrow for approval of the budget — the delay of which is holding up $1,000 in state matching funds. If the budget is not approved tomorrow, the state might remove the harvesters from the St. Johns, according to local National Resources representative Del Enga.

She Fears Dental Conspiracy

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: I have never been a woman's libber, but I am now because I am now aware that there is a deplorable conspiracy being perpetrated against women by dentists in my city, and probably throughout the nation.

When a dentist makes dentures for a woman, he purposely makes them so that she can't talk properly! I have yet to see a man with dentures (and I have known several) whose dentures interfere with his speech. But all the women I know who wear dentures have trouble talking because the dentist intentionally made them that way so women will keep their mouths shut.

Pants Are Made Sexless So Why Not Jackets?

By VERLA RANSTROM The Herald Staff

Why do men's jackets open from the left and women's from the right? Come to think of it, men's clothes are better made. They last longer, hang better, have more enduring style, and in the end are cheaper. Managers of men's stores agree. Tailoring shop owner said "there's no question about it." Men's clothes are better made. He says lots of women customers have him make jackets from men's patterns. The jackets are identical except for the buttons. On women's jackets they are on the left panel, and for men on the right.

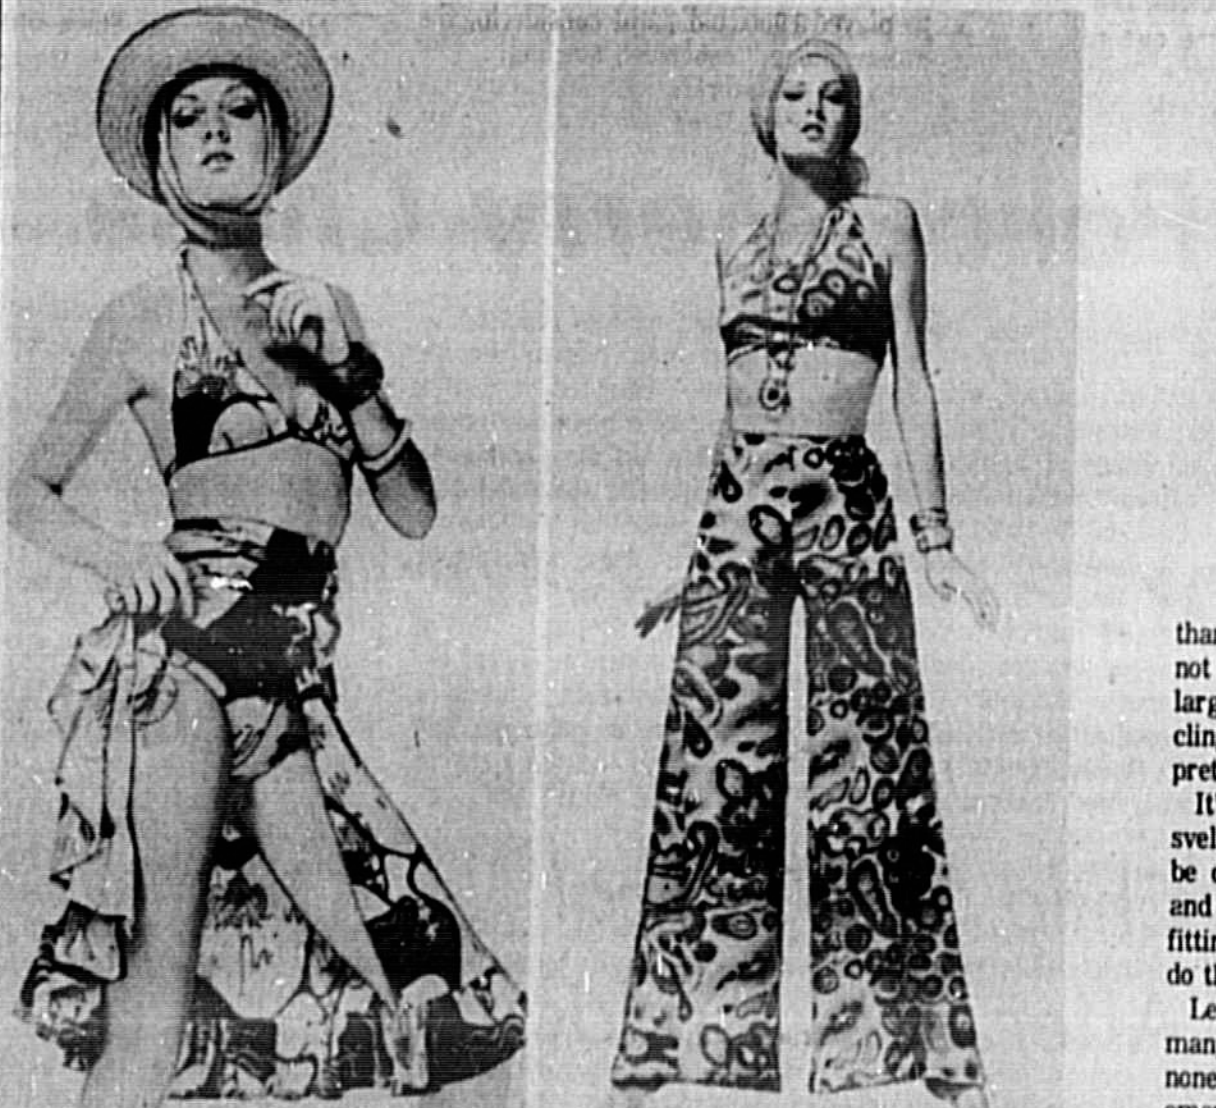

Tiny Strings Big This Season

Whoever heard of beach parties in February? Anyone who lives in Florida, probably, particularly during an especially mild February such as the one we're enjoying right now. So naturally, thoughts are turning to the latest and prettiest in swimwear.

Among the aquatic stars are many versions of the newly made string — solids, checks and stripes. Rope ties, slider bras and gold tips make the Swedish connection for the form divine. And since skin's in, designers are also making waves with a myriad of brief bikinis again with uniquely styled bra tops — angular, plunge, halter. The super cut-outs come in a choice of tiny polyester knits that fit true to form.

Mike Williams guided the Raiders from a nine point deficit with less than five minutes remaining to close within three with one minute remaining. But the Raiders' No. 10 Williams combined for five points in the final 27 seconds of the half to return the Seminole lead to 32-30. It was a "Wolf" fielder by Mike Pittman at the '01 mark that deadlocked the score at 32 apiece at the half.
