Selection Of Site For State Prison To Be Made Today

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Oct. 2.— (P)—Selection of the site for Florida's new state penitentiary was scheduled to take place today at Raiford. Nathan Mayo, Commissioner of agriculture; J. C. Luning, state treasurer, and W. S. Cawthon, Supt. of Public instruction planned to visit the prison grounds for location of the proposed new penitentiary.

Actual work on the excavation for the building will start within a lew days, Mr. Mayo said. Bids have been asked for the material, and contracts will be awarded shortly by the board of commissioners of state institutions.

The new prison building is to be erected wholly by convict labor and is to be supervisored by J. J. Mendenhall life termer and C. E. Hammatt, chief state engineer. Mendenhall has been serving in the espacity of supervisor of construc-tion and has just completed the power plant, tag and shirt factori-and prison buildings.

There is really no reason why men of average salaries should. not be able to build homes of their own,

Usually if the whole family wants it, enough impetus in given to saving to insure the necessary first payment. The rest of the purchase price is easier to pay than rent.

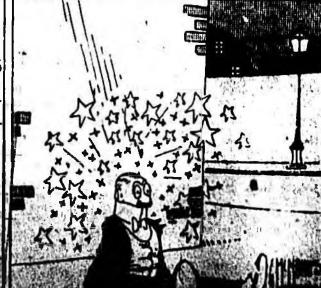

We shall be glad to figure with you on the type of house you want, to show you that a home is within your reach.
