Maid Is Man In Vienna

VIENNA (AP) - A 64-yearold pensioner told the court he donned women's clothes and went to work in households because he was unable to do any other work and would not have been hired as a man.

The court action was started after police in a routine check noted that he had altered his identification card. He was fined 400 Schillings ($16) for

The prosecutor said he did not care if the man continued going to work in women's garb. "As far as I am concerned you may buy yourself a nice hat to go with your dress," he said.

The spacious and attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Davis, 126 West Woodland Dr., was bulging at the seams Saturday night, May 3, when about 40 members of the American Home Department of the Sanford Woman's Club and their husbands met for the annual cookout.

The patio surrounding the pool was transformed into a psychedeilic setting when the members and husbands in colorful attire gathered for sizzling steaks with all the trimmings from the grills. Mrs. Kenneth Wing, retiring department chairman, was charming in a pants ensemble of red, white and blue. She was honored at the informal event in appreciation of her services to the group and presented a silver engraved bon ben dish.

During the past year, under her supervision, the department has made many improvements to the club house. They also gave the first donation toward the club's Mental Health project by earmarking all funds from the fashion show for this purpose. Hostesses for the gala evening and cook-out were Dorohy McReynolds, chairman; Linda McKee, co-chairman; Mary Kauffmann, Jerri Kirk and Betty Davis.

* * * The General Business and Civic Departments of the Sanford Woman's Club held the May luncheon meeting at the Club House with Tom Deppen, of the Sanford Police Department as featured speaker. In observance of "Law Day" he chose as his topic "How the Police Department uses the new polygraph machine in their work with criminals." In demonstrating the ma-
