Legislature Action

The State Highway Patrol would be increased from 100 to 300 men by July 1, it was decided today. The expansions would be financed out of boosts in the budget.

Senators Boyle of Sanford and Wright of DeLand Springs proposed a bill to permit from $1 to $2 per acre.

These bills also would grant rights of way up to 100 feet to property owners to corporate roads.

The Senate Committee on Law and Agriculture recommended yesterday to keep the highway.

The committee by a 4-to-3 vote, placed its stamp of approval on the measure without any amendment.

On the other hand, the Senate Select Committee on Roads voted to increase the state highway budget from $1,495,000 to $2,000,000.

Chairman Alford of Grand Ridge said the committee's action would be taken today and the bill probably will be placed on the calendar.

Voting favorably on the bill were Senators Wilson of Quincy, Boyle of Sanford, and McCallum of Gainesville. Pieces of Palatka, King of Winter Haven and Johnson of Ocala voted against it.

Voting against the proposal were Chairman Alford and Senator Boyle of Sanford, and Representatives Gandy of Kissimmee and Ayers of Titusville.

Rep. Rogers of Jackson introduced a bill to prohibit State agencies or departments from contracting with foreign countries except specifically authorized by law.

This measure was referred to the House Criminal Law Committee but had no public hearing.

The Senate Public Health Committee voted to approve the state Motor Control Board.

The measure, submitted by Rep. Rogers of Tampa, was voted down 6-2.

The President pointed the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) and the Civilian Conservation Corps would be modified along similar lines.

Rep. John W. McCormack, Democratic senator backing President Truman's civil rights program, today pledged his support to the proposed amendment in fighting an anti-segregation amendment in the long range.

The measure came from Senators Douglas (D-I.D.), Humphrey (D-Minn.) and others who called it the "bill of the century" up to the multi-billion dollar housing program for

Trustees Explain Ferguson's Release

SEBRING, Apr. 14—(UPI)—Highland County school trustees said Supervising Principal M. M. Ferguson spent too much time with outside interests and this was one reason they did not renew his contract for next year.

Other reason given by the trustees in a letter to Ferguson were that he no longer met the needs of the school or community; that they had heard criticism of his lack of cooperation, and that he had authority to usefulness.

Ferguson made public the letter yesterday without comment. Miss Lund Jr., appointed to succeed Ferguson, has telegraphed acceptance, officials said.

FIGHTS CORRUPTION

BANGKOK, April 14—A ruthless war to smash corruption among State government officials is to be waged by the Prince Mahaekha Corp., authoritative sources say.

The Corps, headed by Premier Marshal Phibun Songkhram, has ordered all of its four divisional branches to collect evidence of corrupt practices by officials. The commissioners, to be composed of military, police and civilians, will be given power to act against official offenders.

As part of the campaign under cover agents will operate in government and police departments to gather incriminating evidence.

Jerusalem. Dr. E. W. Albright, professor of semitic languages at Hopkins and one of the nation's top archaeologists, first established the authenticity of the scrolls from photographs sent him.

Since then he's examined the scrolls. Today he reported:

"During the past few weeks any possible doubt about the age and authenticity of the scrolls has been removed."

He also disclosed that the documents were sent to the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York. There chemists are reportedly working over one scroll whose condition prevented its being unrolled.

SANDBURG, Apr. 14—(UPI)—Highland County government officials are to be swayed by the Prince Mahaekha Corp., authoritative sources say.

The Corps, headed by Premier Marshal Phibun Songkhram, has ordered all of its four divisional branches to collect evidence of corrupt practices by officials. The commissioners, to be composed of military, police and civilians, will be given power to act against official offenders.

Price suggested a "fixed, reasonable limitation on the share of personal earnings which the government and the income taxes, and said the double taxation may placed on dividends should be eliminated by making dividends free of taxation on the stockholders' shares."

were granted in all but 13 cases. But both AFL and CIO textile unions failed to receive wage raises. An arbitrator said business conditions were such that pay raises would be likely to result in lay-offs harmful both to workers and employers.

And the United Shoe Workers (U.S.W.) sought a raise from its members to do the work of three or four. In a given country, it is always hoping to make a single dollar add a dollar to exports as well as a dollar to imports, trim a dollar off the national debt as well as add a dollar to capital investment.

All eyes this spring will be on the Consumer Price Index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics. The index, which is a measure of living costs, has dropped to 170.9 from its all-time peak of 174.6 last August.

Since 1939, the average weekly wage in manufacturing industries has increased from $23.66 to $54.54 as of October 1948. The rate in the wage of bituminous coal miners has been perhaps the most spectacular. From 123.98 in October 1939 to $76.40 last October.

In terms of real wages, however, coal workers have not improved their lot nearly so much. The $54.54 which the average factory worker was getting in October would buy no more than $41.23 in 1939.

The Labor Department has figured out that the average factory worker, although receiving a raise of 129.1 percent since 1939, has gained only 30.9 percent in purchasing power. The bituminous coal miners have increased their purchasing power 33.2 percent.

But some other kinds of employees have done much worse. Brokerage house employees' real wages went up only 3.6 percent. The real wages of employees of insurance firms have dropped 14.9 percent.

The President's Council of Economic Advisors said in its year-end report: "Substantial wage increases are still called for in a number of instances where wages are undervalued." But the council added: "Rising for the highest possible wage advance is dangerous to the economy in a period when that advance necessitates even higher prices."

The immediate economic purpose of the ERP was to sustain the postwar recovery drive of Western Europe. This drive had been on the verge of collapse. By the end of 1948, with due credit to the ERP, Western Europe's industrial production had risen 14 per cent above 1947. Another substantial production boost is in sight for 1949.

Western Europe's recovery is apparently progressing almost twice as fast now as it did after the First World War.

But insiders of the ERP still keep their fingers crossed. Fundamental rearrangement of the economic activity of 270,000,000 Europeans must be far advanced by 1952, or their countries could rapidly suddenly into another coma.

The Treasury Chief told reporters yesterday that more people had jobs in January, February and March 1949 than in the same month last year and that the rise in unemployment in the first two months came from an increase in job seekers rather than a reduction in the number having jobs.

Russia is reported to have made another offer to lift the Berlin blockade if Big Four talks on Germany are resumed.

A diplomatic informant in London said the Russians have had feelings for the past six weeks about possible negotiations with the West over the German question.

Unless it added something new such an offer would not materially affect the Berlin situation, since the Allies have insisted all along that the blockade must be lifted before any Big Four talks on Germany take place. The Russians have insisted on calling the Four Power conference first.

The informant, a specialist in German affairs, declined to be identified, even by nationality. He did not say where the newest approach was made, but presumably it was in Berlin. Asked whether the American, British and French authorities were approached jointly or individually, the informant replied: "This is a Washington story."

No details of the approach could be given, the informant said. He said one such approach was made by the Poles who asked the Western Powers how they would react to ending the blockade under certain conditions, which the informant did not detail.

Russia imposed the Berlin blockade last June.

Whether there was anything new

Western Europe needs more than a verbal promise of unification.

As the threat of an economic catastrophe lessens, nationalistic barriers and rivalries still require liquidation, but the will to do this is hard to sustain.

There is much to do and so little time. That is always a warning thought for the men who are trying to make the European Recovery Program a fact instead of a name.

In no ERP country is there the likelihood now that Communists could win governmental control by anything short of invasion by the Soviet army.

The immediate economic purpose of the ERP was to sustain the postwar recovery drive of Western Europe. This drive had been on the verge of collapse. FOREIGNERS COME TO AMERICA TO OBSERVE METHODS OF FARMING

American agriculture, the most progressive and efficient in the world, has attracted the attention of many countries and numerous students and others from foreign lands have come to the United States since the war to observe and learn about the way in which Americans produce their large, high quality crops.

To be sure, there is much room for improvement in our agriculture, but, generally speaking, we are many, many years ahead of other countries in our farm practices and crop production. Our tremendous productive ability was brought home to foreigners in a

By These Signs, You Know That Spring Is Here

BY HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK, (DT)—Ya-a-a-hw!

I guess spring is really here. Spring fever is away. And the season of gentle melancholy and pleasant foolishness is upon us.

It is a time of dreamy peace for the common man, as his mind and body prepare for the chemistry of summer. But it is also a time of great wars. Ambitious leaders through all history have picked this season to unleash the armies they have built up through the winter. The ground has been cleared for the martial foot.

But this year looks like another of the years the world treasures a year of peace. The bugle hangs on the wall, brightly polished but unbrightened. No mighty armies are massed for attack that we know of.

Spring comes to the city in small surprises. Down where I live you can tell it best by the sudden increase of perambulators. The poor man on the lower east side may never hope to own a motor car. But he will go without a suit to see that his new baby rides in the finest buggy in the neighborhood.

A day arrives when the air wears a chill in the shade and a sudden softness in the sun. And the sidewalks bloom with them sand of baby buggies, alive with posterity and the voices of tomorrow.

Across the East River a few buds burst open on the trees that grow in Brooklyn. And here in Manhattan you'd think the cold skyscrapers themselves would erupt in gremory-thrust out limbs and leaves to catch the warmth. And perhaps some day they will, and turn this stony wilderness into a green garden of the spirit.

You can live here all your life affects him. He dares a brighter bird, the heralds of spring elsewhere. But the pigeons aren't a bad substitute. The pavement is alive with their courtships-love underfoot-and their cooing can be heard half a block.

Up in Central Park they begin to put out the boats for the sailors. People often wonder why sailors fresh from the sea go there to row boats around the lake. There is no mystery about it. They go there because, as one sailor told me, "it's a wonderful place to meet a girl."

There isn't much the average man does here to show how spring affects him. He dares a brighter neckline. He dawdles and day dreams more. And I think the dood

Soviets Order Red Diplomats To Leave Iran

Departure Comes At Time Of Tension; Commies To Deport Iranian Nationals

TEHRAN, Iran, Apr. 15.—(AP)—The Soviet ambassador to Iran, Ivan Sashikov, left Tehran for Russia today.

His departure came in a time of tension between Iran and Moscow, underscored by the recent closing by the Russians of their consulates in four Iranian cities. There are reports that all the other consuls are packed and ready to leave. The ambassador left by automobile. The car was followed by a busload of baggage and a diplomatic car carrying five unidentified persons.

Sources close to the Russian embassy said the ambassador's wife still was in Iran.

The Soviet-Iranian bad feeling was heightened recently by border incidents. Two occurred in the past month—one at the Gurgan area on the eastern side of the Caspian Sea and the other across the water on the western side.

While casualties in these incidents were relatively light, army sources said they were highly important in their significance.

The unoffered army newspaper Tehran Mosavar, edited by Ahmed Dabagh, deputy-chief from Azerbaijan province, said the Russians brought up tanks and armored cars in both the border incidents, and that Soviet troops are present on Iranian frontiers and made up of infantry with motorized units.

The Soviet Union has just announced she intends to deport 150 persons from Russia as Iranian nationals, but the Iranian government has refused to issue visas for them. Iranian security authorities are reported ready to expel these persons as suspected agents of Russia if they try to cross the frontier.

A high ranking government source told a reporter two American archbishops, one in Tehran and the other in Isfahan, both of Soviet origin, and several Czechoslovak emigres and students now are

Other railroaders elected to office were: A. W. Cooper, Hamlet, N. C., first vice-president; T. J. Bryant, Cumberland, Md.; second vice-president; L. T. Robinson, Ralston, W. "Many who attended are planning to make Sanford their home on retirement. Some have planned to return next winter for a mid-winter conference sponsored by the Railroad Evangelist on Feb. 15."

The state annual conference will be held at Indianapolis, Ind., during the first week of June, 1950.

One of the outstanding speakers attending the conference, said Mr. Harkey, was Lloyd Burrell, editor of the Central of Georgia Railroad Magazine.

The conference committee extended thanks to City, Chamber of Commerce, press and radio officials for co-operation in making the conference a great success, Mr. Harkey declared.

Celery Growers Acheson's Stand Against Big-Scale Resume Cuttings Following Holiday

WASHINGTON, Apr. 15—(AP)—Secretary of State Acheson's flat stand against massive aid to Nationalist China was assailed today by some Republican senators.

Senator Brooks (R-N.D.) said in a statement that Acheson's views are "absolute proof" that Congress ought to make a full dress investigation of the State Department's Celery growers in Seminole County and throughout the state today resumed cutting of celery following a three day cutting holiday, which, according to local shippers, had the effect of boosting the bulk of supplies from a little above the cost of producing and packing to $2.00 to $2.50 F. O. B. state.

At a meeting of 110 Central Florida celery growers and shippers at Chuluota Wednesday, another cutting holiday was planned, starting Saturday and is to be observed on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, leaving Monday, Tuesday and Friday open for cutting. Schools Request Half Of County's Race Track Money day. Bridges, Knowland, Morris and Fullbright were among 50 senators who joined in urging hearings on the McCarran bill after it was introduced in February. They called for a definite policy on China.

Knowland declared the Acheson letter is "not the final answer" to China's plight.

"It's no answer to China's problem to merely knock down the McCarran bill without offering an

Gen. Clay Kills Hike Asked In Mrs. Ybarbo's Florida Flood Prison Term Control Funds

Woman, Serving Five Years For Death Of Husband, To Be Returned To U. S.

FRANKFURT, Germany, Apr. 15—(AP)—General Lucius D. Clay today freed Mrs. Wilma Ybarbo, who had been serving a five-year sentence for killing her American soldier husband.

The American military governor ordered the Malden, Mass., mother "returned to the United States by earliest possible transportation to be released."

"I do not believe Mrs. Ybarbo to be a vicious person and I am sure that the remorse of conscience will prove punishment enough in the days ahead," General Clay said in a statement.

Therefore I propose to exercise the power of clemency which vests in me as military governor to commute the sentence and to order Mrs. Ybarbo to be returned to the United States by earliest possible transportation, there to be released.

Mrs. Ybarbo, 29, has been detained at Bad Wildungen, Germany, by the U.S. military government.

Ybarbo was sentenced to 10 years in prison for the death of her husband, John M. Moore, of Middlesex, Mass., during the Korean conflict. She was convicted under both German and military government law by a military court-martial.

The prison term was supported by Rep. Bennett (D-Fla.) and Herndon (D-Fla.).

Rep. Peterson urged appropriations for work on the Put-in-Bay causeway project.
